Haiku The Sacred Art:

Haiku-- the Sacred Art Margaret D. McGee, 2009 In this encouraging guide for both beginning and experienced haiku writers Margaret D McGee shows how writing haiku can be a consciously spiritual practice for seekers of any faith tradition or no tradition The Heartbeat of God Katharine Jefferts Schori, 2010-10 Insights from a pioneering leader in world religion on the intersections of the sacred the secular As Christians indeed as people of faith of any tradition we are called to tend to the needs of the least among us Our response to them must be the response of faith God gives us a new heart to do this work and every time we gather to do it God offers a pacemaker jolt to tweak our heart s rhythm The challenge is this will our hearts respond with a strengthened beat in tune with God s own heartbeat sending more life out into the world from the Introduction Explore our connections as human beings with each other as one nation with all other nations as the human species with the whole of our environment through the lens of faith Katharine Jefferts Schori presiding bishop of The Episcopal Church examines these connections as she looks at the intersections of faith with the major issues of our day How does faith speak to poverty climate change the economy health care and what is the faith response How can believers from many faith traditions find common ground while honoring the Divine serving one another and creating deeper community How do we best use the resources of faith to connect us to the hearts of our neighbors and to the heart of God How Did I Get to be 70 when I'm 35 Inside? Linda Douty, 2011 Have the courage and curiosity to face the inner changes of aging and learn how they can help you find meaning in your later years I used to think that age sixty five was the start of a slippery downward slope to the cemetery But inside I felt a surge of enormous energy with the potential to approach aging as an uncharted adventure instead of a prison sentence from the Introduction Unlike other authors spiritual director Linda Douty discusses the challenges and surprises of aging by talking about how you actually feel not what you re supposed to feel In a warm down to earth voice she offers a spiritually grounded method to adjust to the unexpected as you grow older There is no one size fits all here but a variety of responses to the inner and outer transformations of aging and new ways of looking at them She looks at surprises welcome and unwelcome concerning Self image The physical body Relationships Spiritual life Questions for reflecting on who you are in this period of your life or who you would like to be will help you live each day more purposefully and joyfully The Losses of Our Lives Dr. Nancy Copeland-Payton, 2011-07-11 Find hope and renewal in life s natural cycle of ordinary losses and new beginnings When we intentionally enter into our everyday walk through small losses the terrain of larger losses the valley of the shadow of death is not totally unknown It is not completely unfamiliar alien terrifying for we have walked some of this way before with our lesser losses We can journey through this valley of loss for journey through it we must And we can emerge markedly changed but alive on the other side from the Prologue Going beyond loss as a problem to be resolved a grief to be worked through Dr Nancy Copeland Payton a spiritual director and ordained clergywoman reframes loss from the perspective that our everyday losses help us learn what we need to handle the major losses Weaving in spiritual and classical themes personal and scriptural story Dr Copeland Payton shows us that by becoming aware of what our lesser losses have to teach us the larger losses of our lives become less terrifying Each chapter includes a spiritual practice and questions for reflection to help you Mine the hidden depths of painful losses of things and places Traverse the devastating loss of relationships and the heart wrenching death of people we love Overcome the steep dark slopes of loss of beliefs and faith Venture past our fear of the losses of aging and our own death Laugh Your Way to Grace Susan Sparks,2010-04 Laughter the GPS System for the Soul Laughter was honored by the ancients as a spiritual healing tool and celebrated by the world s great religions So why aren t we laughing along the spiritual path today What would happen if we did In this personal and funny look at humor as a spiritual practice Rev Susan Sparks an ex lawyer turned comedian and Baptist minister presents a convincing case that the power of humor radiates far beyond punch lines Laughter can help you Remove the fearful mask of a God who doesn t laugh Debunk the myths that you don t deserve joy Find perspective when faced with adversity Exercise forgiveness for yourself and others Reclaim play as a spiritual practice Heal emotionally physically and spiritually Keep your faith when God is silent Live with elegance beauty and generosity of spirit Whatever your faith tradition or if you have none at all join this veteran of the punch line and the pulpit in reclaiming the forgotten humor legacy found in thousands of years of human spiritual history Living into Hope Rev. Dr. Joan Brown Campbell,2010-09-01 Step beyond the walls of the church and into the thick of humanity Joan Brown Campbell s career can be regarded as prophetic For Joan faith has meant engagement with the world and its pain Her words remind us that at its best religion should not narrow our horizons but enable us to live more fully should not cause us to withdraw from the world but to do our utmost to make it a better place from the Foreword by Karen Armstrong Drawing on her amazing life experiences Rev Dr Joan Brown Campbell speaks out on the pressing issues that face us today love justice reconciliation forgiveness and community With a bold distinctive voice this visionary minister asserts that we have the capacity to transcend the barriers that separate us from one another She poses that Who is my neighbor may be the most crucial question in our world where so many are hungry and hurting and weary of war She calls us to live life fully not carefully or cautiously but wholly engaged with the world and with the messiness of humanity She dares us to act as the people we are called and created to be to claim our freedom to care to risk and to step out into the unknown Capturing the essence of her wisdom gained from years of world travel and experience Campbell offers inspiration and challenge for all who would claim their lives as people of hope Contemplative Crochet Cindy Crandall-Frazier,2011-09-22 With Hook in Hand Enrich Your Spiritual Practice and Renew Your Awareness of the Connections of Creativity to Spirit What can you learn about yourself through your crocheting What deeper symbolism lies behind the loops and patterns that you create How can this simple activity help you make your way down a spiritual path Delve into these questions and more in this imaginative book that will become your spiritual friend your teacher and your sanctuary Follow the crochet journeys of the author and other crocheters
