Improving Learning Through Dynamic Assessment Fraser Lauchlan, Donna Carrigan, 2013 This is a practical tool for helping to assess and support children aged 4 with learning challenges based on an innovative approach The resource contains photocopiable activities checklists handouts for teachers parents to use with children and training materials explaining the approach in terms understandable to all participating adults Cases on Teaching Critical Thinking through Visual Representation Strategies Shedletsky, Leonard J., Beaudry, Jeffrey S., 2014-03-31 One of the most important aspects of a comprehensive education involves teaching students to analyze arguments and form their own opinions based on available information Visual and graphical mapping strategies are useful in helping students to consider problems from a variety of perspectives Cases on Teaching Critical Thinking through Visual Representation Strategies brings together research from scholars and professionals in the field of education to provide new insights into the use of visual aids for student development in reasoning and critical thinking This essential reference source will enable academics researchers and practitioners in fields such as education business and technology to more effectively foster students critical thinking skills Towards an Understanding of Language Learner Self-Concept Sarah Mercer, 2011-01-04 This book contributes to our growing understanding of the nature and development of language learner self concept It assesses the relevant literature in the disciplines of psychology and applied linguistics and describes in depth qualitative research examining the self concepts of tertiary level EFL learners Although researchers in applied linguistics and SLA have recognized the importance of self constructs there remains little empirical work in the context of foreign language learning that focuses exclusively and at length on this central psychological construct The content of this monograph draws on interdisciplinary sources with input from psychology and applied linguistics It will appeal to students and researchers interested in language learner psychology as well as self related constructs in general The text provides insights into how learners view themselves and how these self beliefs can develop and affect the progress of an individual s language learning A Life Devoted to Quality of Life Filomena Maggino, 2015-10-20 This Festschrift is published in honor of Alex C Michalos a great scholar and inspiration to many upcoming and famous academics and practitioners The Festschrift celebrates his lifelong outstanding scientific and cultural contribution to Quality of Life Research It contains contributions written by the most prestigious and renowned scholars in the field of social indicators research and quality of life studies Taken together the contributions from scholars around the world reflect Michalos stance that even though there may be differences in individual scientific positions the language in the field of quality of life has no limits and boundaries Self-Processes, Learning and Enabling Human Potential Herbert Marsh, Rhonda G. Craven, Dennis M. McInerney, 2008-04-01 This volume deals with a wealth of issues related to self from the overarching theoretical perspective of Bandura and his careful and thorough analysis of the agentic self highlighting the complexities of our multiple selves acting in an integrated holistic and dynamic fashion to the engaging and novel treatment of self concept as a rope by John Hattie From many of the chapters we see the utility value of the social cognitive theory and self determination theory frameworks for interpreting self processes and how these processes might drive engagement in learning In particular we see how autonomy support self regulation self efficacy and self regulation are part and parcel of self processes intimately involved as individuals work out their futures and possible selves Entwined with these processes are the development of identity resilience and a sense of well being The BFLPE and bullying chapters provide two examples of self processes in operation in the school context What can we take from this Self processes are complex differentiated and yet coordinated By focusing on the agentic self we consider the whole person picture as a rich integrated and dynamic tapestry and by focusing on differentiated self elements such as self regulation self determination self concept and self efficacy we are able to examine in more detail some of the individual threads of the tapestry and the roles they play in the integrated self Overall we learn that self processes are dynamic and are fundamental to enabling human potential SAGE Handbook of Research on Classroom Assessment James H. McMillan, 2012-11-02 The Sage Handbook of Research on Classroom Assessment provides scholars professors graduate students and other researchers and policy makers in the organizations agencies testing companies and school districts with a comprehensive source of research on all aspects of K 12 classroom assessment The handbook emphasizes theory conceptual frameworks and all varieties of research quantitative qualitative mixed methods to provide an in depth understanding of the knowledge base in each area of classroom assessment and how to conduct inquiry in the area It presents classroom assessment research to convey in depth the state of knowledge and understanding that is represented by the research with particular emphasis on how classroom assessment practices affect student achievement and teacher behavior Editor James H McMillan and five Associate Editors bring the best thinking and analysis from leading classroom assessment researchers on the nature of the research making significant contributions to this prominent and hotly debated topic in education Assessment Essentials for Standards-Based Education James H.
