Loss of Dreams Ted Bowman, 2010 A booklet about loss and grief and how to move on When God Became Apparent Darren Daugherty, 2003

Non-Death Loss and Grief Darcy L. Harris, 2019-10-16 Non Death Loss and Grief offers an inclusive perspective on loss and grief exploring recent research clinical applications and current thinking on non death losses and the unique features of the grieving process that accompany them The book places an overarching focus on the losses that we encounter in everyday life and the role of these loss experiences in shaping us as we continue living A main emphasis is the importance of having words to accurately express these living losses such as loss of communication with a loved one due to disease or trauma which are often not acknowledged for the depth of their impact Chapters showcase a wide range of contributions from international leaders in the field and explore individual perspectives on loss as well as experiences that are more interpersonal and sociopolitical in nature Illustrated by case studies and clinical examples throughout this is a highly relevant text for clinicians looking to enhance their support of those living with ongoing loss and grief

Jacob's Shadow Herbert Anderson, 2019-11-07 In Jacob s Shadow Herbert Anderson uses his own story and the biblical story of Jacob to imagine new and more inclusive patterns of masculinity that balance power with vulnerability With a new introduction the book envisions alternatives to persisting expressions of patriarchy and toxic masculinity Each chapter begins with an event from Jacob s life that foreshadows the struggles of men today The topics explored include the following Acknowledging Vulnerability Paying Attention Nurturing Making and Keeping Friends Learning to Grieve Sharing Power In a new era of thinking about gender Anderson invites men to embrace a masculine humanity deepened by their faith in God

The Care of Men Christie Cozad Neuger, James Newton Poling, 2011-12-01 Men in our culture are experiencing various crises to which pastors and pastoral caregivers are called to respond These crises include changing role definitions and gender expectations as well as diminishing economic opportunities In light of these crises men need new foundations for self esteem and identity and new support for changing With their different experiences and specialties the contributors to The Care of Men examine some crises and provide helpful ideas for caregivers in diverse situations with diverse populations of men

Grief, Loss and Bereavement Peter Wimpenny, John Costello, 2013-03-01 Dealing with the social experience of grief loss and bereavement are challenging areas for everyone including health and social care practitioners who are often well placed to offer help and support to the bereaved This book draws together a comprehensive range of worldwide evidence for understanding and supporting the bereaved in a variety of health and social care contexts It can be used by practitioners from a wide range of backgrounds in both health and social care to gain an appreciation of bereavement and its associated support and care Additionally it can be used for personal and professional development by practitioners who want to enhance their own and others practice with the bereaved in specific contexts or organisations The book may also be of value to those undertaking post graduate study who want to gain a wider understanding of the evidence related to bereavement and bereavement care practice in health and social care and may be seeking to add to the body of evidence in this field

When Professionals Weep Renee S. Katz, Therese A. Johnson, 2016-01-22 When Professionals Weep speaks to the humbling and often transformational moments that clinicians experience in their careers as caregivers and healers moments when it is often hard to separate the influence of our own emotional responses and worldviews from the patient's or family's When Professionals Weep addresses these poignant moments when the professional's personal experiences with trauma illness death and loss can subtly often stealthily surface and affect the helping process This edition like the first both validates clinicians' experiences and also helps them process and productively address compassion fatigue burnout and secondary traumatic stress New material in the second edition includes increased emphasis on the burgeoning fields of hospice and palliative care organizational countertransference mindfulness and compassionate practice It includes thought provoking cases self assessments and exercises that can be used on an individual dyadic or group basis This volume is an invaluable handbook for practitioners in the fields of medicine mental health social work nursing chaplaincy the allied health sciences psychology and psychiatry

Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing Betty R. Ferrell, Nessa Coyle, Judith A. Paice, 2015 The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing is the definitive text on nursing care of the seriously ill and dying It is a comprehensive work addressing all aspects of palliative care including physical psychological social and spiritual needs The text is written by leaders in the field and includes an impressive section on international palliative care Each chapter includes case examples and a strong evidence base to support the highest quality of care The book is rich with tables and figures offering practical resources for clinical practice across all settings of care and encompassing all ages from pediatrics to geriatrics

Caregiver Stress and Staff Support in Illness, Dying and Bereavement

Irene Renzenbrink,2011-03-25 The need for renewal and support for those who care for seriously ill dying and bereaved people has been acknowledged from the very beginning of the hospice and palliative care movement While often referring to the rewards and satisfactions of the work Dame Cicely Saunders was the first to acknowledge that helping encounters with dying patients and distressed relatives could be a source of anguish and grief for dedicated and compassionate carers Caregiver Stress and Staff Support in Illness Dying and Bereavement discusses the challenge of finding a balance between the support needs of patients families and staff and the resources available With contributions from practitioners and researchers from around the world this book recognizes that palliative care today is being provided in many different settings and that there may be wide variations in the way individuals and organizations identify and manage the stressors that arise through the work This unique collection of international perspectives on the complexities and management of caregiver stress and staff support builds on the firm foundation Mary Vachon built over thirty years ago in her studies yet broadens the scope to include significant social political and cultural variations on the theme Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing

Betty Rolling Ferrell,Judith A. Paice,2019-03-04 The Oxford Textbook of Palliative Nursing remains the most comprehensive treatise on the art and science of palliative care nursing available Dr Betty Rolling Ferrell and Dr Judith A Paice have invited 162 nursing experts to contribute 76 chapters addressing the physical psychological social and spiritual needs pertinent to the successful palliative care team Organized within 7 Sections this new edition covers the gamut of principles of care from the time of initial diagnosis of a serious illness to the end of a patient s life and beyond This fifth edition features several new chapters including chapters on advance care planning organ donation self care global palliative care and the ethos of palliative nursing Each chapter is rich with tables and figures case examples for improved learning and a strong evidence based practice to support the highest quality of care The book offers a valuable and practical resource for students and clinicians across all settings of care The content is relevant for specialty hospice agencies and palliative care programs as well as generalist knowledge for schools of nursing oncology critical care and pediatric Developed with the intention of emphasizing the need to extend palliative care beyond the specialty to be integrated in all settings and by all clinicians caring for the seriously ill this new edition will continue to serve as the cornerstone of palliative care education Spiritual, Religious, and Cultural Aspects of Care

Betty Ferrell,2015 Table of contents Spiritual assessment Elizabeth Johnston Taylor Spiritual care intervention Rev Pamela Baird Cultural considerations in palliative care Polly Mazanec and Joan T Panke Meaning in illness Tami Borneman and Katherine Brown Saltzman The meaning of hope in the dying Valerie T Cotter and Anessa M Foxwell Palliative Care within Mental Health

David B. Cooper,Jo Cooper,2024-11-01 Is there a place for palliative care within mental health This inspirational book offers an excellent foundation for integrating best practice specialist palliative care into serious and enduring mental health service delivery The shared practice values and vision between these two disciplines provide an optimistic starting point from which to address the lack of palliative care service delivery in mental health practice Focusing on the similarity in philosophy between palliative care and mental health practice it incorporates person centred practice relationship based connectedness a belief in compassionate care respect for autonomy and choice quality of life issues The book addresses the practice skills needed in preparation for competent intervention and treatment Each chapter develops a theoretical framework which is supported by practical application Both professionals and students of palliative care will find the interactive text and practical case studies especially valuable as will the professional working in substance use Its userfriendly approach will appeal to a wide range of readers in various related disciplines While it could be assumed that mental health has a lot to offer palliative care we both feel that palliative care could offer more to mental health practice It is a neglected area There is little or no literature related to palliative care within serious mental health practice and that which does exist relates to care of the dying in terms of cancer From the Preface
