For Auld Lang Syne Karen Wiesner,2017-12-11 At the ripe old age of thirty six Clay Wooten is tired of his law career and his insane meddling family Between constantly having to rescue his younger sister from her life and death antics and his parents high handed belief that they can manage his life better than he can he wants out At the very least he wants to escape long enough to figure out on his own which direction to follow for his future Harper Marasek had spent her teenage years wanting nothing more than to escape the stifling suffocating small town she was born and raised in When the charming and much too old for her Clay Wooten passed through Amethyst when she was fifteen years old she found herself smitten and a few years later she headed to New York to start college and learn how to be an independent woman Harper secretly hoped to meet up with Clay and though for the years she was in college they shared an off and on intimacy that could never be enough for her she unfathomably finds after getting her degree that she misses Amethyst her family and old friends and the small town values she d dismissed as old fashioned when she was younger With the offer of a job waiting for her in her hometown and a marriage proposal from her high school boyfriend Harper contacts Clay to say goodbye forever Clay has spent a lifetime unwilling to allow himself to be shackled by anyone or anything except his family Women have merely been a means to an end and unfettered pleasure for him But realizing he's losing Harper he suddenly wants nothing more than to hold on tight to the best part of his life On the pretense of getting away from his family he suggests to Harper that they take a road trip to end in Amethyst for auld lang syne Harper has resigned herself to never capturing Clay's heart but she's loved him for as long as she can remember How can she refuse his offer when her happiest moments have been spent with this man

Forbidden Fruit Karen Wiesner, 2019-02 Rich and superficial Apple Wooten knows best that she's wasted her life in and out of rehab betraying those she considers friends and never forming attachments with anyone but her unhealthily cloistered family When her brother shocks all of them by announcing he's leaving the Wooten Law Firm in New York City and moving to Amethyst Wisconsin a mere blip on the map to marry a small town girl Apple is prodded by her mother to rush in and talk sense into him Though it's the last thing she wants to do considering she's just been released from another rehabilitation she doesn't expect to stick and Amethyst is the hometown of a friend she all but destroyed with her selfishness she nevertheless sees no way to avoid her mother's bidding She'd never been able to refuse her parents anything and not simply because they control the purse strings The one person in Amethyst who will give her the time of day is Bailey Bay Johnson who also went into the family business The Johnsons own a slew of resort cabins on Lake Amethyst and during the tourist season they do brisk bustling business Apple had met Bailey years ago the first time she ever came to Amethyst when she'd ordered him around and all but made him her servant Bailey didn't seem bothered by her cruel teasing then just as he doesn't seem to be affected by her humbled fumbling attempts at kindness now As the youngest of nine siblings in a close knit family Bailey has learned that acceptance is far easier than fighting Unfortunately a bad experience with love when he was young also taught him that folding is preferable to holding because reaching for forbidden fruit like the treacherous beautiful disaster and recently child like and fragile Apple Wooten could be the worst mistake he's ever made
