Clifton Ives,2013-03 Life together begins with a strong foundation The Daughter Zion Allegory in Medieval German Religious Writing Annette Volting,2017-07-14 The Daughter Zion allegory represents a particular narrative articulation of the paradigm of bridal mysticism deriving from the Song of Songs the core element of which is the quest of

Daughter Zion for a worthy object of love Examining medieval German religious writing verse and prose and Dutch prose works Annette Volting shows that this storyline provides an excellent springboard for investigating key aspects of medieval religious and literary culture In particular she argues the allegory lends itself to an exploration of the medieval sense of self of the scope of human agency within the mystical encounter of the gendering of the religious subject of conceptions of space and enclosure and of fantasies of violence and aggression Volting suggests that Daughter Zion adaptations increasingly tended to empower the religious subject to seek a more immediate relationship with the divine and to embrace a wider range of emotions the mediating personifications are gradually eliminated in favour of a model of religious experience in which the human subject engages directly with Christ Overall the development of the allegory from the twelfth to the fifteenth centuries marks the striving towards a greater sense of equality and affective reciprocity with the divine within the context of an erotic union
