Haiku-- the Sacred Art Margaret D. McGee, 2009 In this encouraging guide for both beginning and experienced haiku writers Margaret D McGee shows how writing haiku can be a consciously spiritual practice for seekers of any faith tradition or no tradition

The Heartbeat of God Katharine Jefferts Schori, 2010-10 Insights from a pioneering leader in world religion on the intersections of the sacred the secular As Christians indeed as people of faith of any tradition we are called to tend to the needs of the least among us Our response to them must be the response of faith God gives us a new heart to do this work and every time we gather to do it God offers a pacemaker jolt to tweak our heart s rhythm The challenge is this will our hearts respond with a strengthened beat in tune with God s own heartbeat sending more life out into the world from the Introduction Explore our connections as human beings with each other as one nation with all other nations as the human species with the whole of our environment through the lens of faith Katharine Jefferts Schori presiding bishop of The Episcopal Church examines these connections as she looks at the intersections of faith with the major issues of our day How does faith speak to poverty climate change the economy health care and what is the faith response How can believers from many faith traditions find common ground while honoring the Divine serving one another and creating deeper community How do we best use the resources of faith to connect us to the hearts of our neighbors and to the heart of God Our Religious Brains Ralph D. Mecklenburger, 2012 This is a groundbreaking accessible look at the implications of cognitive science for religion and theology intended for laypeople Avoiding neurological jargon and respectful to all faiths it examines

How Did I Get to Be 70 When I'm 35 Inside? Linda Douty, 2011-04-01 Have the courage and curiosity to face the inner changes of aging and learn how they can help you find meaning in your later years I used to think that age sixty five was the start of a slippery downward slope to the cemetery But inside I felt a surge of enormous energy with the potential to approach aging as an uncharted adventure instead of a prison sentence from the Introduction Unlike other authors spiritual director Linda Douty discusses the challenges and surprises of aging by talking about how you actually feel not what you re supposed to feel In a warm down to earth voice she offers a spiritually grounded method to adjust to the unexpected as you grow older There is no one size fits all here but a variety of responses to the inner and outer transformations of aging and new ways of looking at them She looks at surprises welcome and unwelcome concerning Self image The physical body Relationships Spiritual life Questions for reflecting on who you are in this period of your life or who you would like to be will help you live each day more purposefully and joyfully

Laugh Your Way to Grace Rev. Susan Sparks, 2010-05-01 Laughter the GPS System for the Soul Laughter was honored by the ancients as a spiritual healing tool and celebrated by the world s great religions So why aren t we laughing along the spiritual path today What would happen if we did In this personal and funny look at humor as a spiritual practice Rev Susan Sparks an ex lawyer turned comedian and Baptist minister presents a convincing case that the power of humor radiates far beyond punch lines Laughter can help you Remove the fearful mask of a God who doesn't laugh Debunk the myths that you don't deserve joy Find perspective when faced with adversity Exercise forgiveness for yourself and others Reclaim play as a spiritual practice Heal emotionally physically and spiritually Keep your faith when God is silent Live with elegance beauty and generosity of spirit Whatever your faith tradition or if you have none at all join this veteran of the punch line and the pulpit in reclaiming the forgotten humor legacy found in thousands of years of human spiritual history

Creative Aging Marjory Zoet Bankson, 2010-02-01 Discover Your Unique Gift Creative aging is a choice If we remember that transition always begins with endings moves on to a wilderness period of testing and trying and only then do we reach the beginning of something new then we can embrace this encore period of life with hope and curiosity remembering always that it is our true nature to be creative to be always birthing new ways of sharing our planet together from the Epilogue In a practical and useful way Marjory Zoet Bankson explores the spiritual dimensions of retirement and aging She offers creative ways for you to share your gifts and experience particularly when retirement leaves you questioning who you are when you are no longer defined by your career Drawing on stories of people who have reinvented their lives in their older years Bankson explores the issues you need to address as you move into this generative period of life Release Letting go of the vocational identity associated with your career or primary work Resistance Feeling stuck stagnant resisting change Reclaiming Drawing energy from the past discovering unused gifts Revelation Forming a new vision of the future Crossing Point Moving from stagnation to generativity Risk Stepping out into the world with new hope Relating Finding or creating new structures for a new kind of work

Living into Hope

Rev. Dr. Joan Brown Campbell, 2010-09-01 Step beyond the walls of the church and into the thick of humanity Joan Brown Campbell's career can be regarded as prophetic For Joan faith has meant engagement with the world and its pain Her words remind us that at its best religion should not narrow our horizons but enable us to live more fully should not cause us to withdraw from the world but to do our utmost to make it a better place from the Foreword by Karen Armstrong Drawing on her amazing life experiences Rev Dr Joan Brown Campbell speaks out on the pressing issues that face us today love justice reconciliation forgiveness and community With a bold distinctive voice this visionary minister asserts that we have the capacity to transcend the barriers that separate us from one another She poses that Who is my neighbor may be the most crucial question in our world where so many are hungry and hurting and weary of war She calls us to live life fully not carefully or cautiously but wholly engaged with the world and with the messiness of humanity She dares us to act as the people we are called and created to be to claim our freedom to care to risk and to step out into the unknown Capturing the essence of her wisdom gained from years of world travel and experience Campbell offers inspiration and challenge for all who would claim their lives as people of hope

The Hebrew Prophets, 2011-04-04 Fresh translation and facing page annotations bring the compelling wisdom of the Hebrew prophets to life Hundreds of commentaries and dozens of Bible translations make the Hebrew prophets available to modern day readers but most often these sources focus on history or apologetics losing the reader who is searching for spiritual insight The Hebrew Prophets Selections Annotated Explained makes the wisdom of these timeless teachers available to readers with no previous knowledge of the prophets With fresh contemporary commentary Rami Shapiro reveals the central themes covered by all the prophets moving from ignorance to wisdom injustice to justice cruelty to compassion and despair to joy This unique look at the Hebrew Prophets sharpens the personal nature of their message and highlights their critique of the spiritual errors we all face in life challenging readers to correct those errors and experience a life of awakening and joy
