Bruegel the Elder Todd M. Richardson, 2017-07-05 Pieter Bruegel the Elder Art Discourse in the Sixteenth Century Netherlands examines the later images by Bruegel in the context of two contemporary discourses art theoretical and convivial The first concerns the purely visual interactions between artists and artistic practices that unfold in pictures which often transgress the categorical boundaries modern scholars place on their work such as sacred and profane antique and modern and Italian and Northern In this context the images themselves those of Bruegel his contemporaries and predecessors make up the primary source material from which the author argues The second deals with the dialogue that occurred between viewers in front of pictures and the way in which pictorial strategies facilitated their visual experience and challenged their analytical capabilities In this regard the author expands his base of primary sources to include convivial texts dialogues and correspondences and texts by rhetoricians and Northern humanists addressing art theoretical issues Challenging the conventional wisdom that the artist eschewed Italianate influences this study demonstrates how Bruegel's later peasant paintings reveal a complicated artistic dialogue in which visual concepts and pictorial motifs from Italian and classical ideas are employed for a subject that was increasingly recognized in the sixteenth century as a specifically Northern phenomenon Similar to the Dutch rhetorician societies and French Pléiade poets who cultivated the vernacular language using classical Latin the function of this inter pictorial discourse the author argues was not simply to imitate international trends a common practice during the period but to use it to cultivate his own visual vernacular language Although the focus is primarily on Bruegel's later work the author's conclusions are applied to sketch a broader understanding of both the artist himself and the vibrant artistic dialogue occurring in the Netherlands Connecting Histories of Education Barnita

Bagchi, Eckhardt Fuchs, Kate Rousmaniere, 2014-03-01 The history of education in the modern world is a history of transnational and cross cultural influence This collection explores those influences in post colonial and indigenous education across different geographical contexts The authors emphasize how local actors constructed their own adaptation of colonialism identity and autonomy creating a multi centric and entangled history of modern education In both formal as well as informal aspects they demonstrate that transnational and cross cultural exchanges in education have been characterized by appropriation re contextualization and hybridization thereby rejecting traditional notions of colonial education as an export of pre existing metropolitan educational systems Joost van den Vondel (1587-1679) Jan Bloemendal, Frans-Willem Korsten, 2011-11-25 Both historically and theoretically this book deals with the work and the life of Joost van den Vondel the most famous and controversial Dutch playwright in the Dutch Republic Over twenty five of his tragedies are analyzed offering an overview of different theoretical approaches Historically Vondel is situated in his own times and in the present

Translation, Rewriting, and the Manipulation of Literary Fame Andre Lefevere, 2016-10-26 Lefevere explores how the process of rewriting works of literature manipulates them to ideological and artistic ends so that the rewritten text can be given a new sometimes subversive historical or literary status The Making of the Humanities, Volume III Rens

Bod,Jaap Maat,Thijs Weststeijn,2025-10-01 This comprehensive history of the humanities focuses on the modern period 1850 2000 The contributors including Floris Cohen Lorraine Daston and Ingrid Rowland survey the rise of the humanities in interaction with the natural and social sciences offering new perspectives on the interaction between disciplines in Europe and Asia and new insights generated by digital humanities Rape in the Republic, 1609-1725: Formulating Dutch Identity Amanda C. Pipkin,2013-08-15 This book reveals the fundamental role rape played in promoting Dutch solidarity from 1609 1725 Through the identification of particular enemies it directed attention away from competing regional religious and political loyalties Patriotic Protestant authors highlighted atrocities committed by the Spanish and lower class criminals They conversely cast Dutch men as protectors of their wives and daughters an appealing characterization that allowed the Dutch to take pride in a sense of moral superiority and justify the Dutch Revolt After the conclusion of peace with Spain in 1648 marginalized authors including Catholic priests and literary women employed depictions of rape to subtly advance their own agendas without undermining political stability Rape was thus essential in the development and preservation of a common identity that paved the way for the Dutch defeat of the mighty Spanish empire and their rise to economic pre eminence in Europe Free Access to the Past Lotte Eilskov Jensen,Joseph Theodoor Leerssen,Marita Mathijssen,2010 Ranging across different countries and cultural domains museums opera literature history writing this collection explores the romantic historicist complexities at the root of the modern nation state how the past became both colourfully exotic and a matter of national identification and public interest Discord and Consensus in the Low Countries, 1700-2000 Jane Fenoulhet,Gerdi Quist,Ulrich Tiedau,2016-05-02 All countries regions and institutions are ultimately built on a degree of consensus on a collective commitment to a concept belief or value system This consensus is continuously rephrased and reinvented through a narrative of cohesion and challenged by expressions of discontent and discord The history of the Low Countries is characterised by both a striving for consensus and eruptions of discord both internally and from external challenges This interdisciplinary volume explores consensus and discord in a Low Countries context along broad cultural linguistic and historical lines Disciplines represented include early modern and contemporary history art history film literature and translation scholars from both the Low Countries and beyond Sources of Regionalism in the Nineteenth Century Linda Van Santvoort,Tom Verschaffel,2008 KADOC Artes 9Architectural concepts and styles seem to flourish on a variety of levels from the most local of contexts to the global This book investigates regionalism which is often conceived today as a late nineteenth century phenomenon because of the preservation and restoration movements that arose during that period Derived from the workshop The Sources of Regionalism held by the FWO research group World Views Cultural Identities and Architecture in Western Europe 1815 1940 the essays in this book examine the meaning of regionalism in architecture art and literature its sources and its cultural and historical background The contributors focus on the nineteenth century and the years of the twentieth century before World War I and focus geographically on Western Europe with an emphasis on Belgium

France and England Together their essays provide a thorough examination of the complexity and multilayered quality of regionalism
