Handbook Of Approach And Avoidance Motivation Handbook Of Approach And Avoidance Motivation:

Handbook of Approach and Avoidance Motivation Andrew J. Elliot, 2013-05-13 Of the many conceptual distinctions present in psychology today the approach avoidance distinction stands out as one of if not the most fundamental and basic The distinction between approach and avoidance motivation has a venerable history not only within but beyond scientific psychology and the deep utility of this distinction is clearly evident across theoretical traditions disciplines and content areas This volume is designed to illustrate and highlight the central importance of this distinction to serve as a one stop resource for scholars working in this area and to facilitate integration among researchers and theorists with an explicit or implicit interest in approach and avoidance motivation The main body of this volume is organized according to seven broad sections that represent core areas of interest in the study of approach and avoidance motivation including neurophysiology and neurobiology and evaluative processes Each section contains a minimum of four chapters that cover a specific aspect of approach and avoidance motivation The broad applicability of the approach avoidance distinction makes this Handbook an essential resource for researchers theorists and students of social psychology and related disciplines The Handbook of Narcissism and Narcissistic Personality Disorder W. Keith Campbell, Joshua D. Miller, 2011-08-09 The Handbook of Narcissism and Narcissistic Personality Disorder is the definitive resource for empirically sound information on narcissism for researchers students and clinicians at a time when this personality disorder has become a particularly relevant area of interest This unique work deepens understanding of how narcissistic behavior influences behavior and impedes progress in the worlds of work relationships and politics EndFragment Motivation and Its Regulation Joseph P. Forgas, Eddie Harmon-Jones, 2014-04-03 It is motivation that drives all our daily endeavors and it is motivation or the lack of it that accounts for most of our successes and failures Motivation however needs to be carefully controlled and regulated to be effective This book surveys the most recent psychological research on how motivational processes are regulated in daily life to achieve desired outcomes Contributors are all leading international investigators and they explore such exciting questions as What is the relationship between motivation and self control What is the role of affect and cognition in regulating motivation How do conscious and unconscious motivational processes interact What role do physiological processes play in controlling motivation How can we regulate aggressive impulses How do affective states control motivation Can motivation distort perception and attention What are the social cultural and interpersonal effects of motivational control Understanding human motivation is not only of theoretical interest but is also fundamental to applied fields such as clinical counseling educational organizational marketing and industrial psychology The book is also suitable as an advanced textbook in courses in motivational sciences and is recommended to students teachers researchers and applied professionals as well as laypersons interested in the psychology of human motivation and self control Cognitive Motivation David Beswick, 2017-08-10 Motivation and cognition were treated as separate concepts throughout most of twentieth century psychology However in recent years researchers have begun viewing the two as inextricably intertwined not only does what we want affect how we think but how we think affects what we want In this innovative study Beswick presents a new general theory of cognitive motivation synthesizing decades of existing research in social cognitive and personality psychology New basic concepts are applied to a wide range of purposive behaviour Part I of the volume reviews different forms of cognitive motivation such as curiosity cognitive dissonance achievement motivation and the search for purpose and meaning while Part II examines the basic processes that underlie it such as working memory attention and emotion The central concept is the incomplete gestalt in which motivation is generated by a universal striving to integrate information and make sense at all levels of cognitive organization

Motivational Immediacy in the Workplace Jonathan E. Taylor, 2022-05-02 Learners are always motivated they just may not be motivated to learn the things you are wanting them to learn Motivational Immediacy refers to the moment by moment motivation of learners during a learning event This is in contrast to typical global views of motivation and while casting a much heavier burden on the instructor brings with it more deep meaningful and permanent learning Motivational Immediacy in the Workplace focuses not only on fostering learner engagement with a primary emphasis on the role of the instructor but also addresses the work and concerns of curriculum writers and training directors The author defines Motivational Immediacy as both a phenomenon and a practice and provides concrete steps for practical action Motivational Immediacy as a construct refers to a moment by moment feeling of motivation on the part of the learner to engage in the learning opportunity directly at hand As a practice it is the instructor's process of working to stay connected with individual learners and foster engagement consistently at every moment of the teaching activity The author addresses this idea from a learner centered orientation making the case that understanding and empathizing with the learner's perceptions is the most effective way to promote efficient meaningful learning The book will provide a comprehensive conceptualization of learning engagement and learning resistance It begins with a substantial theoretical framework and then shifts to direct applications to practice in the workplace Motivational Immediacy is multidisciplinary and draws from fields such as Adult Education Workplace and Training Development Psychology Educational Psychology Sociology Cultural Anthropology and Communications
