Icebound Andrea Pitzer, 2021 The human story has always been one of perseverance often against remarkable odds The most astonishing survival tale of all might be that of 16th century Dutch explorer William Barents and his crew of sixteen who ventured farther north than any Europeans before and on their third polar exploration lost their ship off the frozen coast of Nova Zembla to unforgiving ice The men would spend the next year fighting off ravenous polar bears gnawing hunger and endless winter In Icebound Andrea Pitzer masterfully combines a gripping tale of survival with a sweeping history of the great Age of Exploration a time of hope adventure and seemingly unlimited geographic frontiers At the story's center is William Barents one of the 16th century's greatest navigators whose larger than life ambitions and obsessive quest to chart a path through the deepest most remote regions of the Arctic ended in both tragedy and glory Journalist Pitzer did extensive research learning how to use four hundred year old navigation equipment setting out on three Arctic expeditions to retrace Barents's steps and visiting replicas of Barents's ship and cabin A visceral thrilling account full of tantalizing surprises Andrea Barrett author of The Voyage of the Narwhal Pitzer's reenactment of Barents's ill fated journey shows us how the human body can function at twenty degrees below the history of mutiny the art of celestial navigation and the intricacies of building shelters But above all it gives us a first hand glimpse into the true nature of human courage
