Owens, 2019-02-28 Dr Bryant K Owens presents the argument of the value of the Christian tradition of caritas or love from the philosophy and the subsequent hermeneutic of Saint Augustine of Hippo 354 430 within contemporary philosophical scholarship Dr Owens s study of Augustine s investigations into biblical interpretation will reveal that he sought the beauty of understanding as evidenced through caritas The shift in the Western philosophical tradition during the Enlightenment period resulted in a solid break from authority based hermeneutics to the autonomy of the mind The result was a greater emphasis on the literal meaning of a text as gleaned from the subjective mind of the reader and through grammatical and historical criticism over the spiritual meaning of the text or application of the greater meaning to Christian living Dr Owens proposes that the benefits of Augustine s caritas as the a priori spirit of the biblical text and the proper application of that spirit in contemporary scholarship should be the epistemological focus of hermeneutics rather than the emphasis on method prevalent from Spinoza to Dilthey The concluding value from Augustine s hermeneutic is that caritas is a product of understanding while at the same time is the method or means by which caritas is produced Therefore Augustine s hermeneutic argues that the sense or spirit of Scripture is caritas and is the truth to which all Christian philosophy must cohere The Culture of Love in China and Europe Paolo Santangelo, Gábor Boros, 2020-01-13 In The Culture of Love in China and Europe Paolo Santangelo and Gábor Boros offer a survey of the cults of love developed in the history of ideas and literary production in China and Europe between the 12th and early 19th century They describe parallel evolutions within the two cultures and how innovatively these independent civilisations developed their own categories and myths to explain exalt but also control the emotions of love and their behavioural expressions The analyses contain rich materials for comparison point out the universal and specific elements in each culture and hint at differences and resemblances without ignoring the peculiar beauty and attractive force of the texts cultivating love In between, there is Love Mariel Terre, 2021-11-29 In between there is Love is both a passage and a destination for your soul A compendium of poems that would help you see the threads of Life in all their Light and Night

The Interaction Between Law and Love in the Pauline Writings

Pandelani Paul,2015-07-16 There are five chapters of this book The first chapter is the overview of the whole book and how the research was going to be conducted It also gives the summary of law and love in the books of Paul The interaction between law and love in Pauline writing has been an interesting topic where we have discovered that the law of God cannot be separated from his agape love which has followed mankind from creation and eventually leads him to eternity We discovered that the law of God reveals Gods character and that is his love The law of God and his love are one and cannot be separated from each other God gives the law to prove to man that he loves him deeply and eternally The death of Jesus on the cross was the final crown of the proof of how much we mean to God and the length He can go to redeem us He gave his all for our redemption The plan of salvation is the perfect revelation of law and love in Pauline writings Chapter 1 and 2 looks at law and love and the theology and ethics of law and love The plan of salvation is laid bare and how the Jews missed the mark of spreading the Word to the whole world by holding to God as a Jewish God alone In chapter 3 we discover the difference between the ceremonial law and the Decalogue The ceremonial laws were pointing toward the coming of Jesus and so with his arrival they came to an end because they were pointing to his coming The Decalogue was there and it will continue till the end of time when Jesus will come the second time Chapter 4 is all about love and what it means to God and how he could not compromise his Decalogue and the meaning of redemption Chapter 5 is the blending of law and love in Pauline writings Keeping the law is not a problem when you love God and you know that God loves you its not difficult to keep the Decalogue because your love supercedes the law When you love someone its easy to follow or keep the law Gods Decalogue is a mirror and love is the crown of our redemption For God so loved the world that he gave His only begotten son to die for man because His law could not be changed Love will lift us up such that doing and keeping Gods law will not be a burden but a pleasure because through Christs death we realize how important we are to God

Love and Death in Edith Wharton's Fiction

Tricia M. Farwell,2006 Original Scholarly Monograph

Caught in the Venus trap. Between love and crime Jürgen

Schonarth,2024-01-12 A successful model a failed marriage the Parisian luxury life against this backdrop a love story unfolds that is put to the test in many ways The question soon arises as to whether the fateful encounter between Jonas and Adaya was really a coincidence or whether there are more connections between them than they initially believe Gradually the entanglements of secret services and family tragedies become apparent It is the love of the protagonists that keeps the reader captivated until the very last line Distinctions Between Sexual Desire and Love in Narrative Report, Nonverbal Expression and Physiology Gian Carles Gonzaga,2001 Lest We Lose Love Scherto Gill,2023-04-18 Few are aware that since antiquity there has always been the philosophy of love at the core of Western culture It articulates what makes life meaningful and worthwhile and how we can live a good life together through an ethic of love This book fills this significant gap not only reconnecting the reader with such important wisdom and more crucially also reorienting our socio economic institutions and collective actions towards more loving and caring and more concerned with the qualities of our lived experiences By re-discovering the gifts of love we may challenge the existing systemic dehumanisation and draw from knowledge and understanding already present in our culture This is timely because the global crises we are facing are catastrophic especially when it comes to climate change Therefore we must respond from a place of love rather than fear Whether it is reducing the use of fossil fuels lowering greenhouse emission choosing the right food to eat or advocating for structural transformation our concerted endeavours start with an appropriate appreciation of the nature of our well being which includes the planet's well-being This book highlights a clear pathway forward to ensure collective healing and co-flourishing with nature we must practise the art of loving
