mothers face are examined through frameworks of postcolonialism nationalism feminism and diaspora studies Black Women as Custodians of History: Unsung Rebel (M)Others in African American and Afro-Cuban Women's Writing Paula Sanmartin, 2014-03-28 This book is an essential addition to the study of comparative black literature of the Americas it will also fill the gap that exists on theoretical studies exploring black women's writing from the Spanish Caribbean This book examines literary representations of the historic roots of black women's resistance in the United States and Cuba by studying the following texts by both African American and Afro Cuban women from four different literary genres autobiographical slave narrative contemporary novel on slavery testimonial narrative and poetry Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl 1861 by the African American former slave Harriet Jacobs Dessa Rose 1986 by the African American writer Sherley Ann Williams Reyita sencillamente testimonio de una negra cubana nonagenarian Simply Reyita Testimonial Narrative of a Nonagenarian Black Cuban Woman 1996 written transcribed by the Afro Cuban historian Daisy Rubiera Castillo from her interviews with her mother Mar a de los Reyes Castillo Bueno Reyita and a selection of poems from the contemporary Afro Cuban poets Nancy Morej n and Georgina Herrera The study argues that the writers participate in black women's self inscription in the historical process by positioning themselves as subjects of their history and seizing discursive control of their histories Although the texts form part of separate discourses the book explores the commonalities of the rhetorical devices and narrative strategies employed by the authors as they disassemble racist and sexist stereotypes re constructing black female subjectivity through an image of active resistance against oppression one that authorizes unconventional definitions of womanhood and motherhood The book shows that in the women's revisions of national history their writings also demonstrate the pervasive role of racial and gender categories in the creation of a discourse of national identity while promoting a historiography constructed within flexible borders that need to be negotiated constantly The study's engagement in crosscultural exploration constitutes a step further in opening connections with a comparative literary study that is theoretically engaging in order to include Afro Cuban women writers and Afro Caribbean scholars into scholarly discussions in which African American women have already managed to participate with a series of critical texts The book explores connections between methods and perspectives derived from Western theories and from Caribbean and Black studies while recognizing the black women authors studied as critics and scholars In this sense the book includes some of the writers own commentaries about their work taken from interviews many of them conducted by the author Paula Sanmart n herself as well as critical essays and letters Black Women as Custodians of History adds a new dimension to the body of existing criticism by challenging the ways assumptions have shaped how literature is read by black women writers Paula Sanmart n's study is a vivid demonstration of the strengths of embarking on multidisciplinary study This book will be useful to several disciplines and areas of study such as African diaspora studies African American studies Afro Latin American and Afro Caribbean studies women's studies genre studies and slavery studies Rebels Leerom Medovoi, 2005-11-23 A cultural history of the political

Haynes,2015-10-21 Nineteenth century America saw numerous campaigns against masturbation which was said to cause illness insanity and even death Riotous Flesh explores women s leadership of those movements with a specific focus on their rhetorical social and political effects showing how a desire to transform the politics of sex created unexpected alliances between groups that otherwise had very different goals As April R Haynes shows the crusade against female masturbation was rooted in a generally shared agreement on some major points that girls and women were as susceptible to masturbation as boys and men that self abuse was rooted in a lack of sexual information and that sex education could empower women and girls to master their own bodies Yet the groups who made this education their goal ranged widely from ultra utopians and nascent feminists to black abolitionists Riotous Flesh explains how and why diverse women came together to popularize then institutionalize the condemnation of masturbation well before the advent of sexology or the professionalization of medicine
