Jewish Liturgical Reasoning Steven Kepnes, 2007-11-01 Liturgy a complex interweaving of word text song and behavior is a central fixture of religious life in the Jewish tradition It is unique in that it is performed and not merely thought Because liturgy is performed by a specific group at a specific time and place it is mutable Thus liturgical reasoning is always new and understandings of liturgical practices are always evolving Liturgy is neither preexisting nor static it is discovered and revealed in every liturgical performance Jewish Liturgical Reasoning is an attempt to articulate the internal patterns of philosophical ethical and theological reasoning that are at work in synagogue liturgies This book discusses the relationship between internal Jewish liturgical reasoning and the variety of external philosophical and theological forms of reasoning that have been developed in modern and post liberal Jewish philosophy Steven Kepnes argues that liturgical reasoning can reorient Jewish philosophy and provide it with new tools new terms of discourse and analysis and a new sensibility for the twenty first century The formal philosophical study of Jewish liturgy began with Moses Mendelssohn and the modern Jewish philosophers Thus the book focuses in its first chapters on the liturgical reasoning of Moses Mendelssohn Hermann Cohen and Franz Rosenzweig However it attempts to augment and further develop the liturgical reasoning of these figures with methods of study from Hermeneutics Semiotic theory post liberal theology anthropology and performance theory These newer theories are enlisted to help form a contemporary liturgical reasoning that can respond to such events as the Holocaust the establishment of the State of Israel and interfaith dialogue between Jews Christians and Muslims the love he has for you In God s Love is Like Carrol demonstrates that the totality of God s love is so different than anything you ve experienced in terms of loving each other Yet in many ways how you love others reveals small parts of how he loves you Carrol shares fun stories and verses in the Bible that show how God loves you like an artist a patient grandparent a kindergarten teacher an honorable judge an empathetic counselor a proud parent a broken hearted love a benevolent king a jealous spouse and an adoptive parent God s Love is Like creates an understanding of all the ways God really loves you pulling from examples of your everyday relationships
