He Set His Face to Jerusalem Richard B. Wilke, 2013 Prepare for Easter by looking toward Jerusalem     He Set His Face to Jerusalem Richard B. Wilke, 2013-12-17 Adapting from Luke 9 51 Richard Wilke looks at Jesus journey to Jerusalem in order to help us think about how we set our faces in life What are our goals as people of faith What are we resolute or determined about in our lives As we set our faces to Jerusalem and to the ministry crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus what difference does it make What does Jesus determination say to us about our commitments and about our need to grow in love of God and neighbor The 40 days of Lent are ideal to use this study and for readers to set their faces toward Easter Study includes seven sessions one for each Sunday in Lent and Easter Sunday Each session features a Scripture reference a personal reading questions for personal reflection or group study and closing prayer     Rhythms Richard Francis Wilson, 2002 Rhythms Sermons for a Community of Faith and Learning is a collection of selected sermons and responsive readings written by Mercer University's Dean of the Chapel and delivered at the university's weekly gathering of worship and praise The first sermon Rhythms was the first sermon Wilson preached as Dean of the Chapel and won first prize in the HarperCollins Best Sermons competition of 1991     Luther League Review , 1920     Radical Renovation James A. Harnish, 2007-12 This title presents seven sessions one for each Sunday in Lent including Easter Sunday Each session features a scripture reference a personal reading questions for personal reflection or group study and prayers and a focus for the coming week     The Message of the College to the Church , 1901     The great example, 6 Lenten sermons William Francis Shaw, 1884     Gospeled Lives John Indermark, 2017-07-15 Gospeled lives are lives that have encountered Jesus Christ Christ's call leads to a continually unfolding story for each of us An encounter with the living Christ demands a response John Indermark says In this book you will learn about New Testament characters who encountered Jesus Some responded with joy and gratitude Others ignored or rejected his offer of good news Indermark's powerful reflections on the various biblical characters along with daily reading of scripture written prayers and suggested exercises make an ideal 6 week study for individuals or groups Each chapter contains 5 daily readings Here are a few of the New Testament characters you will explore Bartimaeus The women at Jesus tomb Mary and Jesus family The slave of the high priest A rich young man Herod Antipas The woman with the hemorrhage The Gerasene demoniac Mary Magdalene Ten lepers Study this book during Lent or any time you or your small group wants to think more deeply about what it means to hear and respond to Christ's word Includes a Leader's Guide     Living In-Between André Resner, 2015-11-04 The community of faith finds itself located precariously between Jesus first and second comings between the promise and fulfillment between what God has begun in the gospel and what God has yet to complete It thus finds itself proclaiming a gospel of life love hope and faith in a world more characterized by death hate despair and fear The gospel insists that Jesus death has shut the door on the age of violence and death even as his resurrection has opened the door on the Age of Shalom and life But in this tense in between time those conflicting ages overlap and the church struggles against powers and experiences that mock its message Drawing on resources from the New Testament's vision of the apocalyptic gospel Andre Resner urges the church and its preachers to engage in the linguistic practices of lament and proclamation as well as the embodied practices of justice making and justice keeping as counter testimony to those powers that have been served notice in Jesus life death and resurrection that their end is near The reflections offered here model the kind of honest speech and risk of life to which the gospel calls its adherents

Something Sacred Alydia Smith,2024-12-18 What we sing together has the power to change us What music do you hope will be sung in churches generations from now What music helps you become the follower of Christ you hope to be This Lenten devotional explores how the power of music can deepen our connection to God and form us as disciples of Christ For many music is a ubiquitous presence in our lives that affects us sometimes despite us The music we resonate with speaks to who we are what we believe and what we aspire to as people Because of this music is a powerful faith formation tool
