Healing Of Domestic Violence Through Faith In Christ:

Healing of Domestic Violence Through Faith in Christ Jessie E. Koehler, 2014-09-24 Jesus Christ wants to lead hurting women out of bondage of Domestic violence into freedom and peace The Lord is calling you answer the call Religion and Men's Violence Against Women Andy J. Johnson, 2015-04-14 This reference offers the nuanced understanding and practical guidance needed to address domestic violence sexual assault and human trafficking in diverse religious communities Introductory chapters sort through the complexities from abusers distorting of sacred texts to justifying their actions to survivors conflicting feelings toward their faith The core of the book surveys findings on gender violence across Christian Jewish Islamic Eastern and Indigenous traditions both attitudes that promote abuse and spiritual resources that can be used to promote healing Best practices are included for appropriate treatment of survivors their children and abusers and for partnering with communities and clergy toward stemming violence against women Among the topics featured Ecclesiastical policies vs lived social relationships gender parity attitudes and ethics Women s spiritual struggles and resources to cope with intimate partner aggression Christian stereotypes and violence against North America s native women Addressing intimate partner violence in rural church communities Collaboration between community service agencies and faith based institutions Providing hope in faith communities creating a domestic violence policy for families Religion and Men s Violence against Women will gain a wide audience among psychologists social workers marriage and family therapists and other mental health professionals who treat religious clients or specialize in treating survivors and perpetrators of domestic and intimate partner violence stalking sexual assault rape or human trafficking A Spiritual Journey of Healing & Forgiveness through CHRIST Joshua B. Seth, 2014-12-23 This book is for anyone who has ever been victimized directly or indirectly and is in need of spiritual healing but more specifically how victims of heinous crimes such as sexual assault and rape emotional and physical abuse murder homicide and school shootings and innocent bystander deaths car accidents how they can learn to forgive those deemed unforgivable The bottom line is that you do not ever need to forgive those who hurt you or your loved ones in order to receive God s unconditional love and Jesus Christ s supernatural healing In this book the author openly talks about his own spiritual journey from Judaism to Christianity and how he was able to heal from two adult sexual assaults and forgive those deemed unforgivable through Christ Whether you do not know who God or Christ is whether you have turned away from God or Christ or whether you wish to know who they are this book is for you

Making Peace with Faith Michelle Garred, Mohammed Abu-Nimer, 2018-01-15 Although religion is almost never a root cause it often gets pulled into conflict as a powerful element especially where conflicting parties have different religious identities Every faith tradition offers resources for peace and secular policy makers are more and more acknowledging the influence of faith based actors even though there remains a tendency to associate religion more with conflict than peace In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of The contributors are all practitioners whose faith or religious experience motivates their work for peace and justice in such a way that it influences their actions Their roles are diverse as some work for faith based institutions while others engage in secular contexts The multiple perspectives featured represent multiple faiths Muslim Christian Hindu Buddhist Jewish diverse scopes of practice different geographic regions Each chapter follows a similar template to address specific challenges such as dealing with extremist views addressing negative stereotypes about one's faith endorsing violence developing relations with other faith based or secular groups confronting gender based violence and working with people who hold different beliefs In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of They provide a comprehensive view of the practice of peacebuilding in its many challenging aspects for both professionals and those studying religion and peacebuilding alike

Rethinking Faith James Newton Poling, 2011-08 What can practical theology contribute to other theological disciplines and the church about the nature of God and the church's witness to Jesus Christ in the world What can we learn about the love and power of God in Jesus Christ from the community of survivors of violence Rethinking Faith urges all Christians to consider themselves practical theologians by drawing on their own experiences in making theological assertions Poling couples his understanding of the tradition with his work with survivors of violence to demonstrate the resilience of Christianity

Responding to Abuse in Christian Homes Nancy Nason-Clark, Catherine Clark Kroeger, Barbara Fisher-Townsend, 2011-03-04 Domestic abuse is a horror It lurks beneath the surface of our collective existence sometimes raising its ugly head where least expected in the church or within families of faith Are we individually or collectively ready to respond What can or should congregations and their pastoral leaders do And as we survey the Christian landscape across the United States and Canada are we as the community of faith stepping up to the challenge presented by violence in the family There is no easy answer to the problems that surface when abuse impacts the Christian family But each of the authors contributing to this volume believes fervently that it is imperative that followers of Jesus and their spiritual shepherds respond to the cries for help To respond well necessitates both knowledge and a willingness to act This book is here to help It represents a collective effort to bring all of us a step farther in our journey of walking with Christ over a sea of troubled waters None of us know as much as we should but all of us can learn from one another Throughout the collection we provide an opportunity to examine a diversity of perspectives with the hope that each will in some way advance our understanding of the complexity of domestic violence issues in our midst within our churches and the communities where our churches minister

Beyond Abuse in the Christian Home Catherine Clark Kroeger, Nancy Nason-Clark, Barbara Fisher-Townsend, 2008-08-15 In January 2004 a newly founded evangelical organization called PASCH was formed The word denotes the Passover or time of new beginnings when God kept people safe in their own homes before leading them into freedom from abuse and oppression Yet the word PASCH also stands for Peace and Safety in the Christian Home PASCH

began as a small group of therapists sociologists domestic violence experts clergy biblical scholars survivors and dedicated Christians In essence PASCH was born out of the cries confusion and frustration of the people of God As we encountered many horrifying situations of domestic abuse in Christian homes those of us who seek to address various aspects of the issue concluded that we needed a fellowship of concerted study prayer and action It was the dream of Catherine Clark Kroeger that an edited book might emerge from the 2005 and 2006 PASCH conferences in order that the papers presentations and discussions might be widely available We found that to make that happen we needed to work together that each of us possessed one piece of the puzzle and that by God s grace we could collectively begin to put the pieces together The topic of abuse is ugly which is why so many Christians shy away from discussing it But in this volume we have tried to present an accurate faith based analysis of abuse in the Christian family context We hope that various chapters stimulate discussion sometimes debate and in so doing prompt pastor and people to action We call on you the reader to consider the various ideas and perspectives offered throughout the book Hopefully each chapter will prompt you to consider afresh how you conceptualize violence among families of faith Like you the reader the contributors to our collection come from various faith traditions work in different contexts and see the issue in part based on their own narrative and training Yet despite our differences and our ongoing debates we are unanimous that violence has no place in the home Every home should be a safe place every home a shelter When abuse occurs in families of faith it is the responsibility of the church to offer compassion and support to victims and to call those who act abusively to accountability and justice Our edited collection includes Dan Allender speaking from the heart about the impact of the fall on relationships between men and women Al Miles reflecting on his pastoral experience of the difficulties and opportunities of speaking out against violence in Christian families Bruce and Karen McAndless Davis offering one couple s story of the long journey toward accountability and dramatic change Julie Owens retelling her own dramatic story of abuse the life imprisonment of her ex partner and what she wished every pastor knew about domestic violence

Human Behavior in the Social Environment Anissa Taun Rogers, 2016-04-14 This addition to Anissa Rogers bestselling Human Behavior in the Social Environment expands the original text with new chapters on spirituality families and groups organizations and communities Written in the compact concise manner of the original text the new chapters cover mezzo and macro contexts and offer additional material valuable to two and three semester HBSE courses

Engendering Violence in Papua New Guinea Margaret Jolly, Christine Stewart, Carolyn Brewer, 2012-07-01 This collection builds on previous works on gender violence in the Pacific but goes beyond some previous approaches to domestic violence or violence against women in analysing the dynamic processes of engendering violence in PNG Engendering refers not just to the sex of individual actors but to gender as a crucial relation in collective life and the massive social transformations ongoing in PNG conversion to Christianity the development of extractive industries the implanting of introduced models of justice and the law and the spread of HIV Hence the collection examines issues of troubled masculinities as much as battered women and tries to move beyond the black and white binaries of blaming either tradition or modernity as the primary cause of gender violence It relates original scholarly research in the villages and towns of PNG to questions of policy and practice and reveals the complexities and contestations in the local translation of concepts of human rights It will interest undergraduate and graduate students in gender studies and Pacific studies and those working on the policy and practice of combating gender violence in PNG and elsewhere Healing in His Wings L. Eastman M.A. Sex Therapist, 2016-07-30 For anyone who has ever longed for spiritual love power for healing and restoration from abuse Healing In His Wings is the workbook that will lead the reader into the Lords loving truth where liberation in grace is found Very informative The author has spent years with experience in developing this spiritual program that enables the wounded to face themselves and find unimpaired satisfying restoration and wholeness Her approach brings knowledge and understanding into the darkened world of abuse The emphasis is on Gods merciful love for the emotional wounded and leads the weary out of darkness into grace and light where fulfillment in Gods destiny is found Dedicated to helping anyone suffering from the aftermath of a wide variety of forms of abuse this program includes physical emotional sexual and neglect within the home church school or other such places that should be safe Grateful for her own recovery from abuse the author extends this comprehensive enlightening love based program that touches all those who have ever been abused Pacific Well-Being Jione Havea, 2024-03-29 This book makes space 1 for Pasifika contributions to academic conversations on critical topics and 2 for influencing the conversations to account for and thus reflect Pasifika ways and modes The critical topic that runs through the chapters is well being and the contributors were located at the time of writing in Pasifika Aotearoa Fiji Kioa Kiribati Samoa Tonga and Tuvalu but there are many more Pasifika voices and concerns than are represented in this work Nonetheless the ways in which this work seeks to influence the conversations on well being reflect the intersectional modes of thinking that native Pasifika Islanders share The essays are placed into three intersecting clusters well being of bodies and is lands well being of traditions and theologies and well being of imaginations and worldviews The rationale for this arrangement is that the well being of Pasifika requires attention to the present bodies and islands to the past traditions and theologies and to the future imaginations and worldviews The chapters address Pasifika questions and concerns and they are placed so that the conversations they spark can take place free of the traps of Western theories and disciplines with Pasifika accents and rhythms Setting the Captives Free Ron Clark, 2005-11-01 Abuse is a problem that needs to be understood addressed and challenged The abused are humans in the image of God who need to be protected loved and empowered to stand with us and walk through life with respect and dignity When God brings a victim to us we have a responsibility to love them as we want to be loved and be faithful to that responsibility We must make sure that they and their children are safe protected and given the chance to live in peace and love Abusers are also humans who are in the image of God and they need to be taught how to live and respect all others They must be confronted and challenged to change or face prosecution by our legal system and our spiritual communities I believe that the faith community is in a great position to address this problem We have a God who grieves over the violence that occurs in families Yet we have a God who grieves even more over the fact that spiritual leaders have failed to act as servants of Yahweh in this respect The rest of this book is an appeal to you to gain an understanding of what it really means to face domestic violence and how to help bring peace and wholeness to victims and their children caught in the web of abuse It is an appeal to you to confront those who abuse others rather than shut your eyes from the Introduction

Freeing the Oppressed Ron Clark, 2009-09-01 When Jesus spoke at his local synagogue he boldly proclaimed that he was the one sent to free those who were oppressed He came to provide hope peace and safety to those suffering in the world When he left this earth his followers were left with the task of continuing this ministry Statistics suggest that in America one in four women has experienced physical violence in an intimate relationship Dating violence intimate partner violence and child abuse rank as some of our nation's largest problems Men are also being abused by intimate partners parents or care providers at increasing rates The statistic is even more alarming worldwide Unfortunately these statistics represent only reported incidents The rates of verbal emotional and spiritual abuse are even higher In addition countless women are encouraged by clergy to return to their abusive spouses The faith community while called by God to free the oppressed has been slow to respond to this sin against humanity Few seminaries offer quality domestic violence prevention training for clergy However clergy still continue to be sought for help from the community and as advocates for victims of domestic violence A partnership between the church and community locally and abroad is necessary if we wish to transform humans caught in this form of oppression In Setting the Captives Free Ron Clark proposed a theology of addressing domestic violence and its application for clergy Freeing the Oppressed is a book that seeks to condense Clark's previous work into a readable form for those seeking spiritual answers concerning abuse and batterer intervention and for helpers of those caught in the cycle of family violence It is also designed as an outreach for those seeking help from the faith community

The Survivor's Voice Kathy Manis Findley, 1999 In 1997 more than 3.2 million abused children were reported to protective service agencies In these pages are the intimate voices of the survivors of the anguish of domestic violence and sexual abuse in the home the place that should be a haven of safety

Taking It Seriously Geneece Goertzen, 2024-08-12 Domestic violence harms congregants and impacts our churches Abuse affects millions across this nation and around the world including individuals in your own congregation Informed by research and verified by experience this book provides practical guidance for pastors and lay leaders to faithfully address and respond to this crisis The influence of pastoral care and congregational preparedness from the author's seminary education and community practice social work lens is clearly evident The chapters are well researched trauma conscious and survivor informed The supplemental unique and comprehensive glossary of domestic violence terms crafted specifically for faith based ministry sets this book apart Prevention and intervention guidelines along with valuable recommendations for interacting with victims and survivors is the
