Identity and Foodways of the Terengganu Chinese Tan Yao Sua, Kamarudin Ngah, The Chinese minority in Terengganu Malaysia are struggling to maintain their Sinic culture identity and community in the face of socio political changes and Islamisation since the early 1970s They are also facing problems due to population attrition from an outflow of the younger generation to larger cities in Malaysia for jobs and further education The acculturated Terengganu Peranakan Chinese descendants of the earliest settlers who arrived at least two centuries ago face additional inter generational tensions and challenges This book is based on extensive interviews and fieldwork and includes an overview of the role of the Kuala Terengganu Chinese associations in promoting traditional Chinese culture and identity a study of the Peranakan Chinese in Tirok to further examine issues of identity maintenance and identity shift and a comparison between the foodways of the Tirok Peranakan Chinese with a similar rural Peranakan community in the neighbouring state of Kelantan to demonstrate the community's continual negotiation of Sino Malay identity Culinary Nationalism in Asia Michelle T. King, 2019-07-11

With culinary nationalism defined as a process in flux as opposed to the limited concept of national cuisine the contributors of this book call for explicit critical comparisons of cases of culinary nationalism among Asian regions with the intention of recognizing patterns of modern culinary development As a result the formation of modern cuisine is revealed to be a process that takes place around the world in different forms and periods and not exclusive to current Eurocentric models Key themes include the historical legacies of imperialism colonialism nationalism the Cold War and global capitalism in Asian cuisines internal culinary boundaries between genders ethnicities social classes religious groups and perceived traditions modernities and global contexts of Asian cuisines as both nationalist and internationalist enterprises and Asia itself as a vibrant culinary imaginary The book which includes a foreword from Krishnendu Ray and an afterword from James L Watson sets out a fresh agenda for thinking about future food studies scholarship
