Stories from the Heart Lillian Adrian,2021-11-09 Having searched these long and lonely years for a new kind of normal I realized that with recognition of life gone there was realization of new beginnings without guilt through the process of creating new sweet precious memories Realizing there is HOPE JOY and PEACE knowing without a doubt that my heavenly Father loves me more than life itself That is where I gained my trust Normal is different for everyone For me there was nothing normal about losing my spouse so suddenly at a young age but then what s normal about a kind gentle man being crucified spit upon beaten until blood ran down his face hands and sides cursed and then left to hang on an old rugged cross while his mother sat and watched weeping for the loss of her son It was HOPE JOY and PEACE knowing her heavenly Fathers hands were holding her Even though she KNEW it was not a normal kind of death in the eyes of God it was right He ordained it as His will HIS perfect plan was in place Now mine has not been three days but then again I am certain that Jesus felt as though it was years as he went through the torture he experienced uttering those last words It is FINISHED But GOD had another plan Completeness came as He said it would with His son s resurrection It is only by TRUST and FAITH in Him that you can walk the depths of this darkness

Stories of the Heart Nancy Siemers, 1999 Tales, stories, fables and tales. Vol. 09 Zoila Camacho, 2024-03-23 Tales, stories, fables, and stories for children collection in Spanish, illustrated in full color. Tales: Children's tales are short stories that include imaginative characters, exciting adventures, and moral lessons or educational messages to entertain children, stimulate their imagination, teach them about values such as friendship, courage, or the importance of being kind, and often end with happy endings. Stories: Children's stories can be longer stories than fairy tales, with more elaborate plots and more developed characters. These stories can address a variety of themes from fantasy and adventure to everyday life, allowing children to immerse themselves in different worlds and situations, fostering their curiosity and understanding of the world around them. Fables: Children's fables are short stories featuring anthropomorphic animals, animals that act and speak like humans, or elements of nature that convey a clear moral lesson. Often, these stories present a situation or conflict that illustrates a value or teaching, and at the end, provide an explicit moral for children to reflect on concepts such as honesty, humility, perseverance, or cunning. Stories: A story is the narration of a fact, real or imaginary, that is done through oral or written language. In other words, a story is an account, usually brief, of a series of events that occurred in reality or in the imagination. In short, whether through tales, stories, or fables, children's literature seeks to captivate their imagination, teach them important values, and provide entertainment in an educational and enriching way.
