A longtime psychologist and counselor as well as parent and past teacher, Jones Smith offers research and vignettes to recognize the growing problem of youth violence, understand its causes, and help adults closest to children know techniques to nurture non-violence as a way of life. She offers practical information like why a child may try to harm another and what to do when a child is angry. And she also presents tips for parents, teachers, and counselors including teaching children impulse control and anger management, teaching natural consequences, and instilling empathy, the antidote to violence.

Creating a Tween Collection Karen M. Smith, 2019-04-15 Specialized collections for tweens or middle schoolers are relatively new and becoming increasingly popular. This Practical Guide gives librarians everything they need to create such a collection. Beginning with a brief description of the early adolescent brain and developmental stages and a history of youth and teen services in libraries, Creating a Tween Collection provides a solid foundation on which librarians can build support for such a collection. In addition, librarians will be given specific criteria for what constitutes tween literature, guidelines for forming parameters that will work for their community, and suggestions for using reviews and other sources in selecting appropriate materials and dealing with controversial titles. Finally, readers will learn how to re-allocate spaces and budgets and how to market their new collection to patrons. This is a must-read for librarians who are looking to build a middle school collection in order to better serve their patrons. This book provides rationale about the importance of a specialized Tween Collection, gives specific examples for both fiction and nonfiction books, databases, and websites.
