Dunbar Hill, Angela N. Parker, Mitzi J. Smith, 2022-02-28 Bitter the Chastening Rod follows in the footsteps of the first collection of African American biblical interpretation Stony the Road We Trod 1991 Nineteen Africana biblical scholars contribute cutting edge essays reading Jesus criminalization the enslaved and whitened interpretations of the enslaved They present pedagogical strategies for teaching hermeneutics and bible translation that center Black Lives Matter and black culture Biblical narratives news media and personal stories intertwine in critical discussions of black rage protest anti blackness and mothering in the context of black precarity Reiki: Transmissions of Light Robert Fueston, 2017-05-07 Robert Fueston's book is a tremendous resource for everyone who loves Reiki enough to want to know its history accurately so they can practice Reiki with deeper appreciation and teach it with greater clarity and understanding Robert's years of dedicated research and commitment to objectivity have enabled him to achieve a spiritual and practical goal from which his readers will receive the blessings Reiki Transmissions of Light belongs in the library of every Reiki practitioner and teacher Amy Rowland Reiki Author Oromo Indigenous Religion and Oromo Christianity Ujulu Tesso Benti, 2018-05-31 The early non Oromo writers have distorted the history of the Oromo Without scientific research they were speaking of the so called Oromo migration of the 16th century Against the unscientific thesis of the early scholars this work confirmed the Oromo to be not only the indigenous African peoples but also belong to the Cushitic Africans who invented the first world civilization Their egalitarian and holistic culture the gadaa system is part of the ancient Cushitic civilization It is the base for modern democratic system of governance The root word of gadaa is originated from Ka the creator God of the ancient religion of the Cushitic Africans From this very name Ka originated the Oromo word Waaqa which also means creator of everything This shows that the Oromo are among the first nations who came up with the idea of monotheism Therefore this work disqualifies the missionary assumptions describing the Oromo Indigenous Religion OIR as Satanism and its religious experts the Qaalluus as witchdoctors or sorcerers This dissertation discovered many identical similar partial similar and few differing elements between the Oromo Indigenous Religion OIR and Oromo Christianity OC Also the study identified many Oromo cultural elements that are compatible to Christianity therefore must be adopted by the Oromo Christianity According modern scholarship God revealed himself in every human culture and religion is part of human culture Therefore no religion can claim to be the only true religion Based on this principle this dissertation calls all leaders of religious institutions in Oromia to change their attitude develop culture of tolerance conduct constructive religious dialogue create the atmosphere of peaceful coexistence of all religions and establish sustainable peace that serves humanity Back to the Garden

Christianity believes in a God who acts in history The Bible tells us the story of God s actions in Israel culminating in the ministry of Jesus of Nazareth and the spreading of the gospel from Jerusalem to Rome The issue of history is thus unavoidable when it comes to reading the Bible Volume 4 of the Scripture and Hermeneutics Series looks at how history has dominated biblical studies under the guise of historical criticism This book explores ways in which different views of history influence interpretation It considers the implications of a theology of history for biblical exegesis and in several case studies it relates these insights to particular texts Few topics are more central to the task of biblical interpretation than history and few books open up the subject in so illuminating and thought provoking a manner as this splendid collection of essays and responses Hugh Williamson Regius Professor of Hebrew University of Oxford England breaks new ground in its interdisciplinary examination of the methodology presuppositions practices and purposes of biblical hermeneutics with a special emphasis on the relation of faith and history Eleonore Stump Robert J Henle Professor of Philosophy Saint Louis University United States This volume holds great promise for the full fledged academic recovery of the Bible as Scripture It embodies an unusual combination of world class scholarship historic Christian orthodoxy bold challenges to conventional wisdom and the launching of fresh new ideas Al Wolters Professor of Religion and Theology Redeemer University College Ontario Canada The essays presented here respect the need and fruitfulness of a critical historiography while beginning the much needed process of correcting the philosophical tenets underlying much modern and postmodern biblical research The result is a book that mediates a faith understanding both theoretical and practical of how to read the Bible authentically as a Christian today Francis Martin Chair Catholic Jewish Theological Studies John Paul II Cultural Center Washington D C Not only is history central to the biblical story but from a Christian perspective history revolves around Jesus Christ All roads of human activity before Christ lead up to him and all roads after Christ connect with him A concern with history and God's action in it is a central characteristic of the Bible The Bible furnishes us with an account of God's interactions with people and with the nation of Israel that stretches down the timeline from creation to the early church It tells us of real men women and children real circumstances and events real cultures places languages and worldviews And it shows us God at work in human affairs revealing his character and heart through his activities Behind the Text examines the correlation between history and the Bible For the scholar student and informed reader of the Bible this volume highlights the importance of history for biblical interpretation and looks at how history has and should influence interpretation Adventist Today,1997 Breaking Away From Trauma To Healing Mickey R.
