Picasso's War Hugh Eakin, 2023-09-26 A riveting story of how dueling ambitions and the power of prodigy made America the cultural center of the world and Picasso the most famous artist alive in the shadow of World War II Eakin has mastered this material The book soars The New York Times Book Review Editors Choice ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR Vanity Fair The New York Times Book Review The New Yorker In January 1939 Pablo Picasso was renowned in Europe but disdained by many in the United States One year later Americans across the country were clamoring to see his art How did the controversial leader of the Paris avant garde break through to the heart of American culture The answer begins a generation earlier when a renegade Irish American lawyer named John Quinn set out to build the greatest collection of Picassos in existence His dream of a museum to house them died with him until it was rediscovered by Alfred H Barr Jr a cultural visionary who at the age of twenty seven became the director of New York's new Museum of Modern Art Barr and Quinn's shared goal would be thwarted in the years to come by popular hostility by the

Depression by Parisian intrigues and by Picasso himself It would take Hitler's campaign against Jews and modern art and Barr's fraught alliance with Paul Rosenberg Picasso's persecuted dealer to get Picasso's most important paintings out of Europe Mounted in the shadow of war the groundbreaking exhibition Picasso Forty Years of His Art would launch Picasso in America define MoMA as we know it and shift the focus of the art world from Paris to New York Picasso's War is the never before told story about how a single exhibition a decade in the making irrevocably changed American taste and in doing so saved dozens of the twentieth century's most enduring artworks from the Nazis Through a deft combination of new scholarship and vivid storytelling Hugh Eakin shows how two men and their obsession with Picasso changed the art world forever

Baroque Tendencies in Contemporary Art Kelly A. Wacker, 2021-02-03 Baroque Tendencies in Contemporary Art is a collection of essays by an international cadre of scholars addressing current trends within the field of contemporary art and how artists and architects reflect upon past traditions and fold them into the present Often referred to as the Neo Baroque scholarship on this topic first emerged in the 1980s with the publication of several notable studies in France but not translated into English until the 1990s in addition a number of recent exhibitions have focused on contemporary responses to the Baroque The Baroque and the Neo Baroque are frequently defined as having a propensity for instability seriality reflexivity fluidity and spectacle This is perhaps partly why in the millennial period there is so much interest in the Baroque we are seeking ways to find parallels between the art of then and the art of our own diverse pluralistic culture This book provides context for how contemporary artists meet and deal with the Baroque both formally and conceptually Among others it provides discussions of the work of American artists John Currin Jeff Koons Frank Stella Lisa Yuskavage American architect Frank Gehry European artists Lucian Freud Jenny Saville Emilio Vedova Latin American artists Monica Castillo Raphael Cauduro Yishai Judisman and New Zealand artists Richard Reddaway and Joanna Langford

Researching and Applying Metaphor in the Real World Graham Low, Zazie Todd, Alice Deignan, Lynne Cameron, 2010-10-13 It has become increasingly clear that metaphor needs to be explored in terms of the social and discourse context in which it is used especially where the aim is to address real world problems The notion of real world metaphor research has been developed to describe this important area of investigation This book starts by describing the nature and scope of real world metaphor research and then illustrates through 17 detailed mainly empirically based studies the different areas it can apply to and different methodologies that can be employed Research problems are explored in areas such as artificial intelligence language teaching and learning reconciliation dialogue university lecture discourse poetry and wine description Methods include corpus analysis experimentation discourse analysis cross cultural analysis and genre analysis In each case the empirical studies refer back to Gibbs s opening overview of real world research The result is an invaluable and cross referenced collection of papers addressing real world problems Edward Hopper Gail

Levin,2023-01-03 New York Times Notable Book Los Angeles Times Book Prize Finalist Wall Street Journal One of Five Best Artist Biographies Edward Hopper s canvasses are filled with stripped down spaces and unrelenting light evocative landscapes and the lonely aspects of men and women seemingly isolated in their surroundings What kind of man had this haunting vision and what kind of life engendered this art No one is better qualified to answer these questions than art historian Gail Levin author and curator of the major studies and exhibitions of Hopper s work In this intimate biography she reveals the true nature and personality of the man himself and of the woman who shared his life the artist Josephine Nivison

Radicals and Rogues Lottie Whalen,2024-01-22 From artists to activists an explosive and eye opening new history of the women who gave us New York This is the story of a group of women whose experiments in art and life set the tone for the rise of New York as the twentieth century capital of modern culture Across the 1910s and 20s through provocative creative acts shocking fashion political activism and dynamic social networks these women reimaged modern life and fought for the chance to realize their visions Taking the reader on a journey through the city s salons and bohemian hangouts Radicals and Rogues celebrates the tastemakers collectors curators artists and poets at the forefront of the early avant garde scene Focusing on these trailblazers at the center of artistic innovation including Beatrice Wood Mina Loy the Stettheimer sisters Clara Tice the Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney Marguerite Zorach and Louise Arensberg Lottie Whalen offers a lively new history of remarkable women in early twentieth century New York City

Marcel Duchamp Rudolf E. Kuenzli,Francis M. Naumann,1991 Artist of the Century These eleven illustrated essays explore the structure and meaning of Duchamp s work as part of an ongoing critical enterprise that has just begun The Fourth Dimension and Non-Euclidean Geometry in Modern Art, revised edition Linda Dalrymple Henderson,2018-05-18 The long awaited new edition of a groundbreaking work on the impact of alternative concepts of space on modern art In this groundbreaking study first published in 1983 and unavailable for over a decade Linda Dalrymple Henderson demonstrates that two concepts of space beyond immediate perception the curved spaces of non Euclidean geometry and most important a higher fourth dimension of space were central to the development of modern art The possibility of a spatial fourth dimension suggested that our world might be merely a shadow or section of a higher dimensional existence That iconoclastic idea encouraged radical innovation by a variety of early twentieth century artists ranging from French Cubists Italian Futurists and Marcel Duchamp to Max Weber Kazimir Malevich and the artists of De Stijl and Surrealism In an extensive new Reintroduction Henderson surveys the impact of interest in higher dimensions of space in art and culture from the 1950s to 2000 Although largely eclipsed by relativity theory beginning in the 1920s the spatial fourth dimension experienced a resurgence during the later 1950s and 1960s In a remarkable turn of events it has returned as an important theme in contemporary culture in the wake of the emergence in the 1980s of both string theory in physics with its ten or eleven dimensional universes and computer graphics Henderson demonstrates the importance of this new conception of space for figures ranging from Buckminster Fuller Robert Smithson and the Park Place Gallery group in the 1960s to Tony Robbin and digital architect Marcos Novak Chimneys and Towers Betsy Fahlman, Claire Barry, Charles Demuth, 2007-09-05 Chimneys and Towers focuses on Demuth's late paintings of industrial sites in Lancaster Depicting the warehouses and factories of the city's tobacco and linoleum industries in sharp geometric forms these paintings bring to the depiction of his hometown the style of the American avant garde that he helped create The Philosophy of Curatorial Practice Sue Spaid, 2020-10-15 This book walks us through the process of how artworks eventually get their meaning showing us how curated exhibitions invite audience members to weave an exhibition's narrative threads which gives artworks their contents and discursive sense Arguing that exhibitions avail artworks as candidates for reception whose meaning value and relevance reflect audience responses it challenges the existing view that exhibitions present already validated candidates for appreciation Instead this book stresses the collaborative nature of curatorial practices debunking the twin myths of autonomous artists and sovereign artistic directors and treating presentation and reception as separate processes Employing set theory to distinguish curated exhibitions from uncurated exhibitions installation art and collections it demonstrates how exhibitions grant spectators access to concepts that aid their capacity to grasp artifacts as artworks To inform and illuminate current debates in curatorial practice Spaid draws on a range of case studies from Impressionism Dada and Surrealism to more contemporary exhibitions such as Maurizio Cattelan All 2011 and Damien Hirst 2012 In articulating the process that cycles through exploration interpretation presentation and reception curating bears resemblance to artistic direction more generally

Women's Caucus for Art Honor Awards for Outstanding Achievement in the Visual Arts,1987 Loose Women, Lecherous Men Linda LeMoncheck,1997

The author discusses methods for mediating the tensions among apparently irreconcilable feminist perspectives on women s sexuality and shows how a feminist epistemology and ethic can advance the dialogue in women s sexuality across a broad political spectrum

Dressing and Undressing Duchamp Ingrid E. Mida,2022-08-25 Fashion is a subject that has long been marginalized in art history and in museums And yet one of the most well known artists in the twentieth century Marcel Duchamp created works that challenge the notion that fashion does not belong in the museum As well there is material evidence of his engagement with clothing as part of his oeuvre This book reveals that clothing and dressing are significant themes that recur in Duchamp s life and his work including his drawings his fashioning of his body his readymades and in his curatorial gestures In examining the items of clothing worn by Duchamp and the related traces of his wardrobe management Duchamp is unmasked as a dandy His waistcoat readymade series Made to Measure 1957 1961 is in fact a remarkable and deliberate effort to recalibrate the definition of the readymade to include clothing With this little studied readymade series Duchamp established a precedent for sartorial art as a valid form of artistic expression In considering the material traces of Duchamp s fashioning of his body and identity in his work and life this book makes a highly original contribution to the understanding of Duchamp s work as well as the significance of the clothed body in the vanguard of Modernism Ultimately this book explains the relevance of fashion in the museum to modern audiences today

Women in Dada Naomi Sawelson-Gorse,2001 his book is the first to make the case that women s changing role in European and American society was critical to Dada

Anne Brigman Kathleen Pyne,2020-06-23 The life and work of an essential photographer whose feminism and pictorialist images distanced her from the mainstream In the first book devoted to Anne Brigman 1869 1950 Kathleen Pyne traces the groundbreaking photographer s life from Hawai i to the Sierra and elsewhere in California revealing how her photographs emerged from her experience of local place and cultural politics Brigman s work caught the eye of the well known photographer Alfred Stieglitz who welcomed her as one of the original members of his Photo Secession group He promoted her work as exemplary of his modernism and praised her Sierra landscapes with female nudes work that at the time separated Brigman from the spiritualized upper class femininity of other women photographers Stieglitz later drew on Brigman s images of the expressive female body in shaping the public persona of Georgia O Keeffe into his ideal woman artist This nuanced account reasserts Brigman s place among photography s most important early advocates and provides new insight into the gender and racialist dynamics of the early twentieth century art world especially on the West
