Believing in a Revealing God Gabriel Moran,2016-12-09 What is faith Is it a thing one has or a human activity What is revelation Is it a deposit of truths in the past or God s action in the present These questions are addressed by renowned religious educator Gabriel Moran who draws upon biblical and theological traditions set within today's interreligious dialogue. A church of moral and liturgical activity in relation to a revealing God is the needed response to both a dismissal of religion and apocalyptic violence in its name. The future role of Christianity in the world and in individual lives may well hang in the balance. The Christian ideas of faith and revelation will either be the chief obstacle to dialogue with the contemporary world or else the main foundation to a Christian spiritual life that can give substance and direction to religious searching.

Gabriel Moran is a professor in the Department of Humanities and the Social Sciences at New York University. He is widely credited with reshaping the field of religious education in the United States and beyond. Moran is author of twenty books on religion and education including Religious Education as a Second Language, Both Sides the Story of Revelation and most recently Speaking of Teaching Lessons from History. The Freedom of God for Us Brian D. Asbill, 2014-12-18 This volume provides an analysis of divine aseity in Karl Barth's thought and appreciates the vital role that this doctrine can play in contemporary theology. Brian D. Asbill begins by setting the general theological context first through a broad sketch of the development of Barth's understanding of the relationship between the life of God pro nobis, pronobility and a se aseity and secondly through the examination of the basic theological convictions that guide his approach to the divine being in Church Dogmatics II 1. The second section, The Love and Freedom of God, turns to the dialectical pairings which guide Barth's accounts of the divine reality in his earliest dogmatic cycle, The Göttingen Dogmatics 16-7, as well as in his most mature treatment, Church Dogmatics 28-31. Particular attention is given to how these themes arise from revelation and relate to one another. In the final section, The Aseity of God, Asbill identifies this doctrine's basic features and primary functions. Divine aseity is characterized as the self demonstration and self movement of God's life, a trinitarian and entirely unique reality, a primarily positive and dynamic concept and the manner and readiness of God's love for creatures. Divine aseity is said to indicate God's lordship in the act of self binding, God's uniqueness in the act of self revelation and God's sufficiency in the act of self giving.

Jeff Collene,2016-10-07 Seven Keys that will open the Book of Revelation to the Jesus follower of the first century and the twenty first century with practical application and life lessons This study cuts through the confusion and honors the library of Scripture through the ages Writing on the Revelation of Jesus Christ is not just a daunting challenge but a humbling experience The Scriptures are clear that there is nothing new under the sun and I do not think my efforts are so unique as having not been considered before now But I do hope to reintroduce The Revelation and this reality of a fresh and possibly renewed perspective into the conversation My motive is to bring Gods amazing disclosure back into the Christian conversation devotionally and practically I dont want to just make a point I want to make a difference Christian Faith and Life ,1910 Liahona ,1907 Living Hope for the End of Days John S.
