I Believe in Santa Claus and I Believe in God: Why I Believe Lynn Currie,2023-03-22 Mr Currie discusses how it can be difficult to share the reasons he believes in God which is what motivated him to write this book The main thesis is that it makes as much sense scientifically and logically to believe in God as to not believe He accepts that you may disagree with his choice but hopes you will consider that belief is not necessarily a delusion or something that ruins everything With some discussion about what we mean by belief and God he presents the reasons and evidence that support his belief Some reasons to believe are based on things he doesn't believe He doesn't believe that nothing produces something that matter has always existed or that intelligence consciousness emotions and a sense of morality arose from inanimate matter He believes that there is evidence of design in creation and life that points to God These things require an autonomous intelligent external to our time and space entity God He also believes that the arguments against God are not adequate to negate the plausibility of sensible belief He believes in free will A person can choose to believe or not Either choice is based on a person's understanding of the evidence along with faith I Believe in Santa Claus and I Believe in God J.
