I Was A Stranger A Christian Theology Of Hospitality:

I was a Stranger Arthur Sutherland, 2006 A compelling and passionate theology that calls us to a practice that is the virtue by which the church stands or falls      Christianity and Migration Peter C. Phan, Oxford Editor, 2025-10-07 This book essays a not the Christian theology of migration The phenomenon of human migration that is the movement of people to and settlement temporary or permanent in a new area or country its causes and reasons and its historical anthropological social political legal and cultural dimensions have been widely studied and reasonably well understood and the next chapter will discuss them in detail By contrast theology as an academic discipline seems least capable of illuminating this human phenomenon It appears to most people outside the church and its educational institutions to be at best an esoteric subject and at worst a convoluted and useless mumbo jumbo especially when liberally sprinkled with Greek and Latin phrases Why not leave the study of migration to scholars in history sociology anthropology economics politics and law who albeit no less infected with highfalutin language than theologians do at least try to offer practical policies and effective strategies either for or against immigration Provided by publisher      Primitive Piety: A Journey from Suburban Mediocrity to Passionate Christianity Ian Stackhouse, 2012-10-01 In Primitive Piety Ian Stackhouse takes us on a journey away from the safe world of suburban piety with its stress on moderation and politeness and into the extreme and paradoxical world of biblical faith As someone who has pastored churches in suburbia for the last twenty years the author is convinced that so much that passes off as Christian faith falls short of the radicalism or primitivism that we see in the pages of scripture a primitivism that includes honest lament dogged prayer raw emotions and heart felt desire In a culture in which there is every danger that we all look the same and speak the same Stackhouse argues for a more gritty kind of faith one that celebrates the oddity of the gospel the eccentricity of the saints and the utter uniqueness of each and every church      Neighborhood Transformation Olusegun Solomon Osineye, 2024-07-31 Neighborhood Transformation is a Christian reimagination of compassionate ministry through the application of the practice of biblical hospitality This book advocates the creation of community outreach programs focused on emotional support legal support and spiritual refuge for undocumented African immigrants Linking the theological and biblical vision for neighborhood transformation with the philosophical framework of community building it considers the meaning of community within the context of the Christian calling to build a community of strangers in a pluralistic society like the United States of America The African diaspora is invited to their vocational calling of rebuilding their local communities using Nehemiah Ezra and the contemporary Jewish community in the Diaspora as biblical and contemporary example      Flunking Sainthood Every Day Jana Riess, 2014-12-01 Over one year recounted in Flunking Sainthood Riess failed twelve different spiritual practices To her surprise thought she learned something important even from the ones she failed most spectacularly This new 365 daily devotional readers who are looking for spiritual growth will find guidance arranged according to monthly practices such as gratitude generosity prayer Sabbath keeping and hospitality

Each day's reading has a reflection from a contemporary or classic spiritual thinker a short scripture verse and a brief prayer reflection or follow up action This daily devotional helps us know that there is great compassion for all of us who are flunking sainthood as we learn that spiritual growth is a lifelong journey without a fixed destination Jana Riess is the author of The Twible and Flunking Sainthood A Year of Breaking the Sabbath Forgetting to Pray and Still Loving My Neighbor which was named by Publishers Weekly as one of the best religion books of the year This book is about how to relax in our imperfections trust God's grace and take authentic and practical steps toward deepening maturity in faith Sharon Garlough Brown author of Sensible Shoes This devotional will stimulate your brain companion your soul and inspire you Lauren F Winner author of Mudhouse Sabbath and Still In addition to being a sagely writer Jana is an avid quote collector Here are 365 gems full of mojo in insight for normal folks like us along with a simple challenge to make each day a wonderful experience of falling forward Brian D McLaren author of We Make the Road by Walking Refreshingly realistic about our human imperfections and heartily confident of grace Marjorie Thompson author of Soul Feast Jana is a thoughtful wise and compassionate guide to the life of the spirit and this book will be a daily gift to all of us who are flunking sainthood but hope to raise our GPA Greg Garrett author of The Other Jesus Relax spiritual slackers Somebody else has done all the reading Now you have a book of poetic inspiration Bible verses current bestsellers and ancient thinkers one for each day Skip a day No guilt Don't understand You'll catch up What's the point Try doing it anyway Seriously Hilariously Lillian Daniel author of When Spiritual But Not Religious Is Not Enough     At the Feet of Abraham Levi UC Nkwocha, 2020-11-30 This book advances an Abrahamic asymmetric mutual substitutive model of hospitality as a practical approach to establish peaceful coexistence between Muslims and Christians The merits include its helpful survey of the four models of interfaith dialogue and its clear exposition of the dialogue of life its constructive use of the philosophy of Levinas particularly in supporting its vision of asymmetrical moral responsibility among Muslim and Christians and its familiarity with an extensive philosophical literature on alterity gift exchange and responsibility The research also demonstrates strong command of the relevant Christian and Muslim scriptures and Catholic teaching on interfaith relations in addition to a wide range of background material on African Ubuntu spirit visible in Nigerian sociocultural and religious interdependent relations Through a consistent engagement of these philosophical ethical and cultural dimensions the Abrahamic theology of hospitality is ingeniously crafted to fill the age old gap mutual inability to deal with religious otherness At once the book provokes further scholarship inquiries on and around the identified concerns Its commonness and concreteness with the proposed respect for each other's faith commitment further underscores its quality     Living Into Community Christine D. Pohl, 2011-12-20 Every Christian should read this provocative book Christine thoroughly delineates the interlocking relationships and dangerous deformities of practices that could deepen our communities but often destroy them This volume is pertinent to our families churches even places of work Marva J Dawn author of Truly the Community     The Church, Migration, and Global (In)Difference Darren J. Dias, Jaroslav Z.

Skira, Michael S. Attridge, Gerard Mannion, 2021-01-21 The painful reality faced by refugees and migrants is one of the greatest moral challenges of our time in turn becoming a focus of significant scholarship This volume examines the global phenomenon of migration in its theological historical and socio political dimensions and of how churches and faith communities have responded to the challenges of such mass human movement The contributions reflect global perspectives with contributions from African Asian European North American and South American scholars and contexts The essays are interdisciplinary at the intersection of religion anthropology history political science gender and post colonial studies The volume brings together a variety of perspectives inter related by ecclesiological and theological concerns Hosted by God

Jenni Ho-Huan, 2025-10-07 It is common to experience moments when we feel discouraged confused or plain angry at the circumstances of our lives What if these moments are gifts meant to awaken us to something deeper and better than our own machinations Instead of stuffing away these uncomfortable emotions and ploughing on we can embrace a new approach to living one where God graciously hosts us through life s ebbs and flows towards wholeness and flourishing Through pastoral insight authentic testimonies a fresh look at popular scriptural stories poetry and reflection questions Jenni Ho Huan invites us to ponder and posture ourselves to really live with a new paradigm it is God s gracious hospitality that undergirds all of life and he calls us to partner him to create better communities of love and grace Africans in Diaspora and Diasporas in Africa

Bulus Galadima, Sam George, 2024-09-14 Africans are on the move They are moving within their nations across the continent and around the world This is not a new phenomenon From the days of historic slavery to modern times Africans in pursuit of education jobs business and safety have created a vibrant global diaspora Whether voluntarily or forcibly displaced they carry their values of spirituality community and hospitality wherever they go As the largest Christian continent in the world African Christianity is inevitable in diasporic discourses This collection of essays from leading scholars and seasoned practitioners reveals the journeys of modern African diasporas from a Christian perspective Timely and unprecedented it reveals how God moves with African people making himself known amongst them and through them Dementia

John Swinton, 2012-11-19 Dementia is one of the most feared diseases in Western society today Some have even gone so far as to suggest euthanasia as a solution to the perceived indignity of memory loss and the disorientation that accompanies it In this book John Swinton develops a practical theology of dementia for caregivers people with dementia ministers hospital chaplains and medical practitioners as he explores two primary questions Who am I when I ve forgotten who I am What does it mean to love God and be loved by God when I have forgotten who God is Offering compassionate and carefully considered theological and pastoral responses to dementia and forgetfulness Swinton s Dementia Living in the Memories of God redefines dementia in light of the transformative counter story that is the gospel Jesus in the Hispanic Community

Harold Joseph Recinos, Hugo Magallanes, 2010-01-01 This first of its kind collection reveals U S Latino a theological scholarship as a vital terrain of study in the search for better understanding of the varieties of religious experience in the United States While the insights of Latino theologians from Central and South America have gained attention among professional theologians until now the role of U S Latino a theology in the formation of North American theological identity has been largely unacknowledged Nonetheless the four centuries old Latino a presence in the United States has been forming a rich creative and distinctively North American Latino a Christology Exploring both constructive theology and popular religion this collection of essays from top U S Latino a scholars reveals the varieties of religious experience in the United States and the importance of Latino a understandings of Christ to both academy and community

Religious Ethics and Migration Ilse Ahn, 2013-11-12 What does it mean to provide justice for undocumented workers who have been living among us without proper legal documentation How can we do justice to the undocumented migrants who have been doing the low skilled low paid jobs unwanted by citizens Why should we even try to do justice for people who violate the laws of the society Religious Ethics and Migration Doing Justice to Undocumented Workers addresses these questions from a distinctive religious ethical perspective the Christian theology of forgiveness and radical hospitality In answering these questions the author employs in depth interdisciplinary dialogues with other relevant disciplines such as immigration history global economics political science legal philosophy and social theory He argues that the political appropriation of a Christian theology of forgiveness and the radical hospitality modeled after it are the most practical and justifiable solutions to the current immigration crisis in North America Critical and interdisciplinary in its approach this book offers a unique comprehensive and balanced perspective regarding the urgent immigration crisis

An Intercultural Theology of Migration Gemma Cruz, 2010-01-15 Migration has long been associated with the social sciences However as a phenomenon that provides windows into possibly new forms of oppression and at the same time paths toward human liberation a systematic theological look at contemporary migration is long overdue Building on the emerging interest on migration in theology this book presents an intercultural theology of migration drawn from the experience of Filipino women domestic workers in Hong Kong in dialogue with theological ethics and liberationist theologies The result is a new look at the phenomenon of contemporary migration

Chaplaincy Mark A. Jumper, Steven E. Keith, Michael W. Langston, 2024-03-26 This comprehensive introduction to the ministry of chaplaincy brings together three authors who oversee three of the leading chaplaincy programs in the United States Written from an evangelical perspective the book covers the foundations of chaplaincy and surveys specific types of chaplaincy work In the first half of the book the authors delve into the history of chaplaincy work as well as its biblical theological and philosophical foundations They introduce students to important topics such as endorsement placement and the constitutional and legal parameters of such work They also consider the person of the chaplain and the understanding of chaplaincy as Christian ministry In the second half of the book the authors bring together expert contributors to survey ten specific contexts for chaplaincy work such as education healthcare the military corporations prisons public safety and sports and they explore the future of chaplaincy This book will be an invaluable resource for students of chaplaincy

Studies in Society, Religion, and Bioethics Sana Loue, 2020-06-29 This book explores through case studies the interplay between religion culture government and politics in diverse societies on questions arising in the domain of bioethics The case studies draw from multiple disciplinary perspectives including history theology law bioethics public policy science and medicine The text s global perspective permits a comparison of the differing approaches adopted by countries facing similar bioethical quandaries and the extent to which religion has or has not been instrumental in addressing such dilemmas Secular and religious societies across the globe are being confronted with complex questions involving religious belief and the extent to which specific religious perspectives have in the past or should in the future be adopted as official policy Bioethical issues involving the interplay of religion and government have become particularly notable in recent years How these issues are resolved has major implications for individuals healthcare providers and the future of medical research and medical care Topics explored among the chapters include Homosexuality Sin Crime Pathology Identity Behavior Medical Error Truth-telling Apology and Forgiveness Refusal of Medical Treatment Medical Deportation Case Study Nazism Religion and Human Experimentation The New Frontier Cloning Case Studies in Society Religion and Bioethics will find an engaged audience among researchers and scholars in history religion theology medicine and bioethics interested in the influence of religion on bioethical decision making Students particularly upper level undergraduate and graduate students interested in bioethics humanities and theology will find the text helpful in understanding the processes through which religion may serve as a basis for both societal policy and law and individual decision making in health related matters      Refugee Diaspora Sam George, Miriam Adeney, 2018-10-15 God is at work among refugees everywhere Will you join Refugee Diaspora is a contemporary account of the global refugee situation and how the light of the gospel of Jesus Christ is shining brightly in the darkest corners of the greatest crisis on our planet These hope filled pages of refugees encountering Jesus Christ presents models of Christian ministry from the front lines of the refugee crisis and the real challenges of ministering to today s refugees It includes biblical theological and practical reflections on mission in diverse diaspora contexts from leading scholars as well as practitioners in all major regions of the world      Slow Church C. Christopher Smith, John Pattison, 2014-05-06 In today s fast food world Christianity can seem outdated or archaic The temptation becomes to pick up the pace and play the game But Chris Smith and John Pattison invites us to leave franchise faith behind and enter the kingdom of God where people know each other well and love one another as Christ loves the church      Disclosing Church Clare Watkins, 2020-03-05 From 2006 to 2011 researchers at Heythrop College and the Oxford Centre for ecclesiology and Practical Theology OxCEPT Ripon College Cuddesdon worked on a theological and action research project Action Research Church and Society ARCS 2010 saw the publication of Talking About God in Practice Theological Action research and Practical Theology SCM which presented in an accessible way the work of ARCS and its developing methodology This turned out to be a landmark study in the praxis of Anglican and Catholic ecclesiology in the UK showing how theology in these differing contexts interacted with the way in which clergy and congregations lived out their religious convictions This book is a direct follow up to that significant work authored by one of the original researchers providing a systematic analysis of the impact of the theological action research methodology and its implications for a contemporary ecclesiology The book presents an ecclesiology generated from church practice drawing on scholarship in the field as well as the results of the theological action research undertaken It achieves this by including real scenarios alongside the academic discourse This combination allows the author to tease out the complex relationship between the theory and the reality of church Addressing the need for a more developed theological and methodological account of the ARCS project this is a book that will be of interest to scholars interested not only Western lived religion but ecclesiology and theology more generally too The

^A Strangers in Our Midst Ulrike Elisabeth Stockhausen, 2021-05-25 This book examines evangelical responses to immigrants and refugees in the era of modern immigration It traces evangelical responses to refugees and immigrants from the Cuban refugees in the 1960s to their divided stances on undocumented immigration in the twenty first century While evangelicals drew on elaborate Biblical teachings to welcome the stranger in their activism how and to whom they applied those teachings must be understood through the lens of their partisan leanings In telling this forgotten story The Strangers in Our Midst adds a missing dimension to the public debate surrounding evangelical partisanship
