God Behind Bars The Amazing Story Of Prison Fellowship:

God Behind Bars John Perry, 2006-08-06 When Charles Colson was released after seven months of prison time following the Watergate scandal the last thing on earth he wanted to do was go back into those dark frightening prisons but God called him to do just that Thus was born a life long ministry and here for the first time is the amazing success story of Prison Fellowship s thirty years of work in the darkest places on earth

God in Captivity Tanya Erzen, 2017-03-07 An eye opening account of how and why evangelical Christian ministries are flourishing in prisons across the United States It is by now well known that the United States incarceration rate is the highest in the world What is not broadly understood is how cash strapped and overcrowded state and federal prisons are increasingly relying on religious organizations to provide educational and mental health services and to help maintain order And these religious organizations are overwhelmingly run by nondenominational Protestant Christians who see prisoners as captive audiences Some twenty thousand of these Evangelical Christian volunteers now run educational programs in over three hundred US prisons jails and detention centers Prison seminary programs are flourishing in states as diverse as Texas and Tennessee California and Illinois and almost half of the federal prisons operate or are developing faith based residential programs Tanya Erzen gained inside access to many of these programs spending time with prisoners wardens and members of faith based ministries in six states at both male and female penitentiaries to better understand both the nature of these ministries and their effects What she discovered raises questions about how these ministries and the people who live in prison grapple with the meaning of punishment and redemption as well as what legal and ethical issues emerge when conservative Christians are the main and sometimes only outside forces in a prison system that no longer offers even the pretense of rehabilitation Yet Erzen also shows how prison ministries make undeniably positive impacts on the lives of many prisoners men and women who have no hope of ever leaving prison can achieve personal growth a sense of community and a degree of liberation within the confines of their cells With both empathy and a critical eye God in Captivity grapples with the questions of how faith based programs serve the punitive regime of the prison becoming a method of control behind bars even as prisoners use them as a lifeline for self transformation and dignity

Shockley Ph.D., 2017-09-21 An essential new reference work for students and general readers interested in the history dynamics and influence of evangelicalism in recent American history politics and culture What makes evangelical or born again Christians different from those who identify themselves more simply as Christian What percentage of Americans believe in the Rapture How are evangelicalism and Baptism similar What is the influence of evangelical religions on U S politics Readers of Evangelical America An Encyclopedia of Contemporary American Religious Culture will learn the answers to these questions and many more through this single volume work s coverage of the many dimensions of and diversity within evangelicalism and through its documentation of the specific contributions evangelicals have made in American society and culture It also illustrates the Women Leaving Prison Jill L. Snodgrass,2018-11-16 Women Leaving Prison examines the oft ignored experiences of female returning citizens our returning sisters who face numerous individual and systemic barriers as they return to life beyond bars In the age of mass incarceration with 700 000 inmates leaving prison each year spiritual and religious support during reentry is a crucial component of prison ministry Women Leaving Prison describes women s pathways to prison their spiritual and religious experiences inside and then utilizes interpretative phenomenological analysis a qualitative research method to uncover the spiritual and religious beliefs and practices of returning sisters The findings from the qualitative study then ground the book s call for a revised prison ministry praxis entitled Project Sister Connect that details how churches as well as concerned citizens and people of faith can welcome and care for returning sisters Project Sister Connect offers a model for facilitating female returning citizens successful reentry via communal and individual spiritual care and support and by working toward the eradication of structural injustices for chaplaincy by using Winnifred Sullivan's three categories of religious secularism, irreligious secularism, and areligious secularism to outline the essential and transforming value of spiritual care services. Preface, Introduction. The manual provides a history of justice initiatives and chaplaincy services in a Canadian context. Chapters one and two: The manual provides a rationale for spiritual care giver training by showing how chaplaincy courses at a university level can build on the competencies of leadership and core knowledge that many ministers, rabbis, imams, priests, nuns, and other faith group representatives have. Emotional intelligence, professional practice skills, and diversity are additional competencies needed for spiritual care givers to become effective prison chaplains. Chapters three to six: Six principles shape the content of this book. 1. integration of chaplaincy into corrections. chapters three to six. 2. understanding of prison dynamics. chapters seven to ten. 3. complementary use of sociology and psychology. chapters eleven to fourteen. 4. provision of faith formation rites and rituals programs, pastoral care, and a ministry of presence. chapters fifteen to eighteen. 5. ecumenical and multi faith religious accommodation. chapters nineteen to twenty one. and 6. professional development. chapters twenty four and twenty five. The manual concludes with a statement of best practices by Dr. Thomas Beckner, long time chaplaincy educator, Correctional Chaplains Keepers of the Cloak, p. 24. Chaplains are to have highly polished counselling skills, strong management and facilitation abilities, a working knowledge of various faith group requirements, and a strong commitment to serve all residents of the institution regardless of their faith identity or lack thereof. Displacement, relocation, dissociation: each of these terms elicits images of mass migration, homelessness, statelessness, or outsidership of many kinds, too numerous to name. This book aims to create opportunities for scholars, practitioners, and silenced voices to share theories and stories of progressive and transgressive music pedagogies that challenge the ways music educators and learners think about and practice their arts relative to displacement. Displacement is defined as encompassing all those who have been forced away from their locations by political, social, economic, climate, and resource change, injustice, and insecurity. This includes refugees and internally displaced persons, forced migrants, indigenous communities who have been forced off their traditional lands, people who have fled homes because of their gender identity and sexual orientation, imprisoned individuals, persons who seek refuge for reasons of domestic and social violence, homeless persons, and others who live in transient spaces, the disabled who are relocated involuntarily, and the culturally dispossessed whose languages and heritage have been taken away from them. In the context of the first ever book on displacement and music education, the authors connect displacement to what music might become to those peoples who find themselves between spaces parted from the familiar and the familial. Through in and because of a variety of musical participations, they contend that displaced peoples might find comfort, inclusion, and welcome of some kinds, either in making new music or remembering and reconfiguring past musical experiences.
