God Could You Talk A Little Louder:

God, Just Tell Me What to Do Michael Youssef, 2014-08-01 The epistle of James is unusual in tone and content among the New Testament letters containing many moral precepts and challenging readers to seek godly wisdom on such topics as poverty and riches, trials and temptation, hearing and obeying the Word of God, faith versus works, and friendship with the world versus friendship with God. The wisdom of this letter speaks to us across the ages as every issue James addresses is as urgent and timely today as when he first wrote it. For the person who wants to be wise, time spent soaking up the wisdom of James, the half brother of Jesus, is time wisely spent. PEN America Best Debut Short

Stories 2018 Yuka Igarashi, 2018-08-21 THE ESSENTIAL YEARLY GUIDE TO THE NEWEST VOICES IN SHORT FICTION A book of gems, each one carrying its own particular clarity and cut that teaches students of writing how limitless the short story form can be. Marie Helene Bertino, author of 2 A.M. at the Cat's Pajamas, PEN America Best Debut Short Stories 2018 celebrates twelve outstanding stories by today's most promising new fiction writers and the literary magazines that discovered them. The characters within these pages include a college dropout dressed up as Hercules at Disney World, a college graduate playing a prostitute in a ghost town in Montana, a father from Trinidad leading a double life on a temporary visa, and a housewife in Taipei perfectly performing her familial and marital duties while harboring secret desires. This year's selections were made by three award-winning writers themselves: innovators of the short story form, Jodi Angel, Lesley Nneka Arimah, and Alexandra Kleeman. Each work is accompanied by commentary from the editors who first published it, explaining what made the piece stand out from the submissions pile and why they were moved to share it with readers. Hearings
