Young,Paul Nathanson,2010 In Sanctifying Misandry Katherine Young and Paul Nathanson challenge an influential version of modern goddess religion one that undermines sexual equality and promotes hatred in the form of misandry the sexist counterpart of misogyny To set the stage The authors discuss two massively popular books Dan Brown s the Da Vinci Code and Riane Eisler s the Chalice And The Blade both of which rely on a feminist conspiracy theory of history They then show how some goddess feminists and their academic supporters have turned what Christians know as the Fall of Man into the fall of men In the beginning according to three documentary films our ancestors lived in an egalitarian paradise under the aegis of a benevolent great goddess But men either rebelled or invaded replacing the goddess with gods and establishing patriarchies that have oppressed women ever since In the end however women will restore the goddess and therefore paradise as well The book concludes with several case studies of modern goddess religion and its effects on mainstream religion Young and Nathanson show that we can move beyond not only both gynocentrism and androcentrism but also both misandry and misogyny Exploring Sexuality and Spirituality ,2020-10-20 The wide spectrum of links and interrelations found amongst the diversity of human sexual expressions and spiritual practices around the world constitutes one of the most fruitful grounds of scholarly research today Exploring Sexuality and Spirituality introduces an emerging academic field of studies focused on the multiplicity of problematizations intersecting spirituality and sexuality from eroticism and ecstasy embodiments to inner spiritual cultivation intimate relationships sex education and gender empowerment This collection of essays addresses subjects such as prehistoric art Queer Theology BDSM Tantra the Song of Songs la petite mort asceticism feminist performative protests and sexually charged landscapes among others Through varied methodologies and state of the art interdisciplinary approaches this volume becomes highly useful for readers engaged in the integration of scholarly and practical knowledge Weep Not for Your Children Lisa Isherwood,Rosemary Radford Ruether,2016-06-16 Violence remains endemic in today s society Religious morality and social prejudice can lead to many acts of violence going unnoticed Weep Not for Your Children presents a selection of essays that examine the ways in which religion and violence interconnect The presence of violence in the origins of cultural and religious norms is examined The essays cover a wide range of examples of violence from the Holocaust to domestic violence and from the violence created by economic systems to that created by the construction of gender itself Weep Not for Your Children challenges and provokes the reader to think beyond traditional associations of good and evil Engendering Curriculum History Petra Hendry,2011-05-20 How can curriculum history be re envisioned from a feminist poststructuralist perspective Engendering Curriculum History disrupts dominant notions of history as linear as inevitable progress and as embedded in the individual

This conversation requires a history that seeks remembrance not representation reflexivity not linearity and responsibility not truth Rejecting a compensatory approach to rewriting history which leaves dominant historical categories and periodization intact Hendry examines how the narrative structures of curriculum histories are implicated in the construction of gendered subjects Five central chapters take up a particular discourse wisdom the body colonization progressivism and pragmatism to excavate the subject identities made possible across time and space Curriculum history is understood as an emergent not a finished process as an unending dialogue that creates spaces for conversation in which multiple conflicting paradoxical and contradictory interpretations can be generated as a means to stimulate more questions not grand narratives
