Can We Zoom into God? Andrew Hemingway, 2023-10-19 When Zoom worship emerged in Britain during the COVID lockdown of 2020 Christians quickly turned to an art form a form of theater to deliver their worship It was a quest for immanence the very thing the Reformation dealt with by the elevation of transcendence What an intriguing thought Could John Calvin with his dictum regarding piety have practiced Zoom worship Served as he was with the principle that the finite cannot contain the infinite we must admit it looks very unlikely At least in this Calvin saw eye to eye with Erasmus but what of Luther He may have been a comfortable Zoom worshiper with his views that Religious artworks are neither here nor there and We may have them or not as we please Little did the church realize that it would be a step back into the past because what you permit you promote The desire to use images was much more sinister than in Medieval times as these were now images of ourselves Regardless of the age the image reigns supreme What had caused the demise Was it bereavement It could not be bereavement of God rather it was the loss of the social the bereavement of one another The need for one another had forced the hand of Christians to turn to a practice completely untested Zoom worship was born the genie is out and will never go back in But in the face of the now acceptable force of contemporary narcissism who cares Ore from the Puritans' Mine Dale Smith,2020-11-20 Ore from the Puritans Mine is the go to collection of quotes from the English Puritans What If We Pray? Crowned with Immortal Glory Matthew Hutton Hartline,2024-03-13 The doctrine of glorification is a biblical teaching that has been neglected within the Protestant church and therefore underdeveloped in our day For whatever reason that may be glorification is a doctrine that will affect every aspect of one's overarching theology especially the doctrine of soteriology What one ultimately believes about the future will significantly impact their present This book shows that this neglect or lack of development has not always been the case within the church especially within Reformed Protestantism Looking at one of the most influential second generation reformers and theologians of the English Reformation William Perkins 1558-1602 it becomes evident that embedded within the Reformed Scholastic tradition lays a robust development and understanding of the doctrine of glorification Perkins formulated and wrote a great deal on the final state of the believer in Christ what his rewards are in Christ and ultimately his complete and final transformation and conformity into his image This book is a historical and systematic treatment of William Perkins's celebrated hope eschatological glory
