neglect from men that became him also Earnest and sharp there is a beauty in seeing a poet not shy away from both the melancholy and resolve of rescripting their path while cherishing their steps and missteps along the way This collection is a panel aching of fathers sons uncles grandfathers all of whom would do well to join in and confront shared privileges that are typically curtailed or altogether avoided in conversation Tender Headed entrusts the heart to be a compass insisting on a journey unto itself and a melodic detour toward tenderness precise with its own footing Ibadan ,1969
