War governor political heavyweight and wealthy industrialist Brown was nurtured in the Etowah Valley by people who celebrated mining industrialization banking land speculation and railroading as a path to a prosperous future Kenneth H Wheeler explains Brown's familial religious and social ties to these people clarifies the origins of Brown's interest in convict labor and illustrates how he used knowledge and connections acquired in the gold rush to enrich himself After the Civil War Brown aided by his sons dominated and modeled a vigorous crony capitalism with far reaching implications
