Campbell, 2011-09-29 The forty six books of the Old Testament offer a rich feast of spiritual nourishment yet they are by no means the easiest books to read and understand Without a proper tour guide a person's trip through the Old Testament often ends shortly after it begins The Stories of the Old Testament takes the difficult task of reading the Old Testament and turns it into an exciting and enjoyable journey Author Jim Campbell leads readers through central texts essential stories and major figures of the Old Testament in one hundred carefully selected readings Each of the readings is meant to be completed in one sitting and is paired with Jim's enlightening guide to the text You'll also find dozens of short easy to grasp informational pieces that supply the background and commentary you'll need to understand the Old Testament in context Perhaps most important Jim helps us connect our stories today to those of long ago and see ourselves as a part of God's ongoing redemptive work that began in the beginning

Living the Mass Dominic Grassi, Joe Paprocki, 2010-06 Living the Mass is a rich and resonant meditation on the Eucharist that will deepen the liturgy for those on both sides of the altar Andrew Greeley We Catholics don't go to Mass we go back to Mass from having been sent forth the last time Grassi and Paprocki explain why how and where in this important new book Gregory F A Pierce author of Spirituality at Work The concluding prayer of the Mass is a command Go in peace to love and serve the Lord We are charged to go forth and quite literally transform our families our communities and our world through the redeeming sacrifice of Christ as celebrated in the Mass Fr Dominic Grassi and Joe Paprocki use this challenge as the starting point for their inspiring and illuminating look at the central act of Catholic worship They ask What would our faith look like if we truly understood the gift of the Eucharist Living the Mass will stir a new passion for and a greater understanding of this sacred two thousand year old celebration offered freely to all who come to all who believe Amos/Hosea/Micah Joe

Warner,2009-01-01 It would be enough to recommend this astonishing 45 volume set first published in 1896 if it were merely a wonderfully massive compilation of the world s best writings from the world s best authors up until the advent of the 20th century But A Library of the World s Best Literature is so much more than that For this marvelous collection represents the evolution of human thought the evolution of human civilization even as seen through the mind of one of the most important if sadly almost forgotten literary figures of the 19th century Popular American essayist novelist and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER 1829 1900 was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing which encompassed travelogue biography and autobiography fiction and more and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers Here the prolific writer turned editor for his final grand work a splendid survey of global literature classic and modern and it s not too much to suggest that if his friend and colleague Mark Twain who stole Warner s quip about how everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it had assembled this set it would still be hailed today as one of the great achievements of the book world And so it still deserves to be Arranged not chronologically but alphabetically mostly under the names of authors but in some cases of literatures or special subjects such as Icelandic literature or Arthurian legend this set is no dry reference work These eminently browsable volumes available through Cosimo for the first time in decades in both paperback and hardcover editions are meant to be read and enjoyed by anyone who loves the written word Volume 45 features more synopses of notable works from Adam Bede by George Eliot to Zury The Meanest Man in Spring County by Joseph Kirkland including many not previously referenced in the set but highlighted as well worth a serious reader s time and attention This volume also includes a General Index to the 45 volume set A Library of the World's Best Literature - Ancient and Modern - Vol.XLII \(Forty-Five Volumes\); Dictionary of Authors \(A-J\) Charles Dudley Warner,2008-07-01 Popular American essayist novelist and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER 1829 1900 was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing which encompassed travelogue biography and autobiography fiction and more and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers Here the prolific writer turned editor for his final grand work a splendid survey of global
