Hd And Modernist Religious Imagination Mysticism And Writing:

H.D. and Modernist Religious Imagination Elizabeth Anderson, 2013-08-01 Exploring the intersection of religious sensibility and creativity in the poetry and prose of the American modernist writer H D this volume explores the nexus of the religious the visionary the creative and the material Drawing on original archival research and analyses of newly published and currently unpublished writings by H D Elizabeth Anderson shows how the poet's work is informed by a range of religious traditions from the complexities and contradictions of Moravian Christianity to a wide range of esoteric beliefs and practices H D and Modernist Religious Imagination brings H D's texts into dialogue with the French theorist Hélène Cixous whose attention to writing imagination and the sacred has been a neglected but rich critical and theological resource In analysing the connection both writers craft between the sacred the material and the creative this study makes a thoroughly original contribution to the emerging scholarly conversation on modernism and religion and the debate on the inter relation of the spiritual and the material within the interdisciplinary field of literature and religion

Material Spirituality in Modernist Women's Writing Elizabeth Anderson, 2020-03-19 For Virginia Woolf H D Mary Butts and Gwendolyn Brooks things mobilise creativity traverse domestic public and rural spaces and stage the interaction between the sublime and the mundane Ordinary things are rendered extraordinary by their spiritual or emotional significance and yet their very ordinariness remains part of their value This book addresses the intersection of spirituality things and places both natural and built environments in the work of these four women modernists From the living pebbles in Mary Butts's memoir to the pencil sought in Woolf's urban pilgrimage in Street Haunting the Christmas decorations crafted by children in H D's autobiographical novel The Gift and Maud Martha's love of dandelions in Brooks's only novel things indicate spiritual concerns in these writers' work Elizabeth Anderson contributes to current debates around materiality vitalism and post secularism attending to both mainstream and heterodox spiritual expressions and connections between the two in modernism How we value our spaces and our world being one of the most pressing contemporary ethical and ecological concerns this volume contributes to the debate by arguing that a change in our attitude towards the environment will not come from a theory of renunciation but through attachment to and regard for material things

H.D. (Hilda Doolittle) Lara Vetter, 2023-06-24 A concise biography of the modernist poet and avant garde woman H D Hilda Doolittle 1886 1961 best known for her imagist poetry was one of the first writers of free verse in English For over forty years H D wrote poetry about forgotten ancient goddesses and autobiographical prose about her own traumas and desires Dubbed the perfect bi by Sigmund Freud she was also a scholar of religion mythology and history a translator of ancient Greek and an avant garde filmmaker This new biography explores the fascinating life and work of this important but often overlooked modernist figure

T. E. Hulme and the Ideological Politics of Early Modernism Henry Mead, 2015-08-27 Drawing on a range of archival materials this book explores the writing career of the poet philosopher art critic and political commentator T E Hulme a key

figure in British modernism T E Hulme and the Ideological Politics of Early Modernism reveals for the first time the full extent of Hulme's relationship with New Age a leading radical journal before the Great War focussing particularly on his exchange of ideas with its editor A R Orage Through a ground breaking account of Hulme's reading in continental literature and his combative exchanges amongst the bohemian networks of Edwardian London Mead shows how the strange death of Liberal England coincided with Hulme's emergence as what T S Eliot called the forerunner of the twentieth century mind Tracing his debts to French Symbolism evolutionary psychology Neo Royalism and philosophical pragmatism the book shows how Hulme combined anarchist and conservative impulses in his journey towards a religious attitude The result is a nuanced account of Hulme's ideological politics complicating the received view of his work as proto fascist The Bloomsbury

Handbook of Modernist Archives Jamie Callison,Matthew Feldman,Anna Svendsen,Erik Tønning,2024-06-13 Providing a broad definitive account of how the archival turn in humanities scholarship has shaped modernist studies this book also functions as an ongoing practitioner's toolkit including useful bibliographical resources and a guide to avenues for future work Archival work in modernist studies has revolutionised the discipline in the past two decades fuelled by innovative and ambitious scholarly editing projects and a growing interest in fresh types of archival sources and evidence that can re contextualise modernist writing Several theoretical trends have prompted this development including the focus on compositional process within genetic manuscript studies the emphasis on book history little magazines and wider publishing contexts and the emphasis on new material evidence and global and non canonical authors and networks within the New Modernist Studies This book provides a guide to the variety of new archival research that will point to fresh avenues and connect the methodologies and resources being developed across modernist studies Offering a variety of single author case studies on recent archival developments and editing projects including Samuel Beckett Hart Crane H D James Joyce Dorothy Richardson May Sinclair and Virginia Woolf it also offers a range of thematic essays that examine an array of underused sources as well as the challenges facing archival researchers of modernism The Routledge Companion to Literature and Religion Mark Knight,2016-04-28 This unique and comprehensive volume looks at the study of literature and religion from a contemporary critical perspective Including discussion of global literature and world religions this Companion looks at Key moments in the story of religion and literary studies from Matthew Arnold through to the impact of 9 11 A variety of theoretical approaches to the study of religion and literature Different ways that religion and literature are connected from overtly religious writing to subtle religious readings Analysis of key sacred texts and the way they have been studied re written and questioned by literature Political implications of work on religion and literature Thoroughly introduced and contextualised this volume is an engaging introduction to this huge and complex field Hotel Modernisms Anna

Despotopoulou,Vassiliki Kolocotroni,Efterpi Mitsi,2023-03-14 This collection of essays explores the hotel as a site of modernity a space of mobility and transience that shaped the transnational and transcultural modernist activity of the first half of the twentieth century As a trope for social and cultural mobility transitory and precarious modes of living and experiences of personal and political transformation the hotel space in modernist writing complicates binaries such as public and private risk and rootedness and convention and experimentation It is also a prime location for modernist production and the cross fertilization of heterogeneous inter and trans literary cultural national and affective modes The study of the hotel in the work of authors such as E M Forster Katherine Mansfield Kay Boyle and Joseph Roth reveals the ways in which the hotel nuances the notions of mobilities networks and communities in terms of gender nation and class Whereas Mary Butts Djuna Barnes Ana s Nin and Denton Welch negotiate affective and bodily states which arise from the alienation experienced at liminal hotel spaces and which lead to new poetics of space Vicki Baum Georg Luk cs James Joyce and Elizabeth Bishop explore the socio political and cultural conflicts which are manifested in and by the hotel This volume invites us to think of hotel modernisms as situated in or enabled by this dynamic space Including chapters which traverse the boundaries of nation and class it regards the hotel as the transcultural space of modernity par excellence

Resisting Theologies and the Everyday Wren Radford, 2025-06-26 This powerful volume provides dynamic ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation by engaging with the everyday practices of marginalised communities In doing so this collection of theological experts reject abstracted concepts of bodes and taxonomies of race gender sexuality and disability Readers will find this a dynamic book with a variety of approaches that provide ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation Experiences of marginalisation have provided a powerful reference point for developing theologies of justice and liberation however theological and political frameworks often reduce the complexity of lived experiences into categories and themes Daily practices of resisting and surviving are frequently considered too fleshy domestic or banal to be of theological meaning Therefore Radford and their coterie of academics draw on understandings of the everyday in feminist womanist Latinx and decolonial theologies as well as in cultural theory This allows critical reflection on how theological approaches can shape alternative relations to self society and the sacred In recognising the lived and felt realities of struggling against oppressive colonial and racialised systems contributors engage with academic and activist debates about the possibilities of remaking social relations and creating other ways of knowing and being From Black theology to disabled activists on social media to queer clergy in South Africa this volume holds together differences in contributors approaches modelling the view that there is not just one form of resistance nor a single approach to constructing theology

Haunting Modernisms Matt Foley, 2017-11-11 This book is about haunting in modernist literature Offering an extended and textually sensitive reading of modernist spectrality that has yet to be undertaken by scholars of either haunting or modernism it provides a fresh reconceptualization of modernist haunting by synthesizing recent critical work in the fields of haunting studies Gothic modernisms and mourning modernisms The chapters read the form and function of the ghostly as it appears in the work of a constellation of important modernist contributors including T S Eliot Virginia Woolf D H Lawrence Elizabeth Bowen

Wyndham Lewis Richard Aldington and Ford Madox Ford It is of particular significance to scholars and students in a wide range of fields of study including modernism literary theory and the Gothic Modernist Women Writers and Spirituality Elizabeth Anderson, Andrew Radford, Heather Walton, 2016-12-22 Concentrating on female modernists specifically this volume examines spiritual issues and their connections to gender during the modernist period Scholarly inquiry surrounding women writers and their relation to what Wassily Kandinsky famously hoped would be an Epoch of the Great Spiritual has generated myriad contexts for closer analysis including feminist theology literary and religious history psychoanalysis queer and trauma theory This book considers canonical authors such as Virginia Woolf while also attending to critically overlooked or poorly understood figures such as H D Mary Butts Rose Macaulay Evelyn Underhill Christopher St John and Dion Fortune With wide ranging topics such as the formally innovative poetry of Stevie Smith and Hope Mirrlees to Evelyn Underhill's mystical treatises and correspondence this collection of essays aims to grant voices to the mostly forgotten female voices of the modernist period showing how spirituality played a vital role in their lives and writing

Modernist Idealism Michael J. Subialka, 2021-11-01 Offering a new approach to the intersection of literature and philosophy Modernist Idealism contends that certain models of idealist thought require artistic form for their full development and that modernism realizes philosophical idealism in aesthetic form This comparative view of modernism employs tools from intellectual history literary analysis and philosophical critique focusing on the Italian reception of German idealist thought from the mid 1800s to the Second World War Modernist Idealism intervenes in ongoing debates about the nineteenth and twentieth century resurgence of materialism and spiritualism as well as the relation of decadent avant garde and modernist production Michael J Subialka aims to open new discursive space for the philosophical study of modernist literary and visual culture considering not only philosophical and literary texts but also early cinema The author's main contention is that in various media and with sometimes radically different political and cultural aims a host of modernist artists and thinkers can be seen as sharing in a project to realize idealist philosophical worldviews in aesthetic form

Mary Butts and British Neo-Romanticism Andrew Radford, 2014-08-28 Mary Butts was an important figure in inter war modernist circles and one who reviewed and associated with some of the major literary figures of the era from T S Eliot to Gertrude Stein Despite her importance and the varied nature of her writing she has been a neglected figure in modernist scholarship Providing a new analysis of the interwar literary period Mary Butts and British Neo Romanticism revisits her work vividly experimental writings spanning memoir poetry polemic and fiction through the lens of mid 20th century British neo Romanticism The book argues that behind Butts's eco feminist writings lies an intricate political and philosophical commentary The New Modernist Studies Douglas Mao, 2021-02-04 This is the first book specifically devoted to the new modernist studies Bringing together a range of perspectives on the past present and future of this vibrant complicated scholarly enterprise the collection reconsiders its achievements and challenges as both a mode of inquiry and an institutional formation In its first section the volume offers a fresh history of the new modernist studies origins amid the intellectual configurations of the end of the twentieth century and changing views of the value influence and scope of modernism In the second section a dozen leading scholars examine recent trends in modernist scholarship to suggest possible new paths of research showing how the field continues to engage with other areas of study and how it makes a case for the ongoing meaning of modernist literature and art in the contemporary world

Returning the Gift Rebecca

Colesworthy,2018-10-15 From debates about reparations to the rise of the welfare state the decades following World War I saw a widespread turn across disciplines to questions about the nature and role of gifts What is a gift What do gifts mean and do Which individuals and institutions have the authority to give Marshalling wide ranging interdisciplinary research Returning the Gift argues that these questions centrally shaped literary modernism The book begins by revisiting the locus classicus of twentieth century gift theory the French sociologist Marcel Mauss s 1925 essay The Gift The Form and Reason for Exchange in Archaic Societies His title notwithstanding the gift Mauss envisions is not primitive or pre capitalist but rather a distinctively modern phenomenon Subsequent chapters offer sustained nuanced readings of novels and nonfiction by Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys Gertrude Stein and H D from the 1920s to 1940s underscoring the ways their writing is illuminated by contemporaneous developments in the social sciences economics and politics while also making a case for their unique contributions to broader debates about gifts Not only do these writers insist that literature is a special kind of gift but they also pose challenges to the gift s feminization in the work of both their Victorian forebears and contemporary male theorists Each of these writers uses tropes and narratives of giving of hospitality sympathy reciprocity charity genius and kinship to imagine more egalitarian social possibilities under the conditions of the capitalist present The language of the gift is not as we might expect a mark of hostility to the market so much as a means of giving form to the society in market society of representing everyday experiences of exchange that the myth of the free market works even now to render unthinkable

Making No Compromise Holly A. Baggett,2023-10-15 Making No Compromise is the first book length account of the lives and editorial careers of Margaret Anderson and Jane Heap the women who founded the avant garde journal the Little Review in Chicago in 1914 Born in the nineteenth century Midwest Anderson and Heap grew up to be iconoclastic rebels living openly as lesbians and advocating causes from anarchy to feminism and free love Their lives and work shattered cultural social and sexual norms As their paths crisscrossed Chicago New York Paris and Europe two World Wars and a parade of the most celebrated artists of their time they transformed themselves and their journal into major forces for shifting perspectives on literature and art Imagism Dada surrealism and Machine Age aesthetics were among the radical trends the Little Review promoted and introduced to US audiences Anderson and Heap published the early work of the men of 1914 Ezra Pound James Joyce William Butler Yeats and T S Eliot and promoted women writers such as Djuna Barnes May Sinclair Dorothy Richardson Mina Loy Mary Butts and the inimitable Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven In the mid

1920s Anderson and Heap became adherents of George I Gurdjieff a Russian mystic and in 1929 ceased publication of the Little Review Holly A Baggett examines the roles of radical politics sexuality modernism and spirituality and suggests that Anderson and Heap s interest in esoteric questions was evident from the early days of the Little Review Making No Compromise tells the story of two women who played an important role in shaping modernism Devotion Constance M. Furey, Sarah Hammerschlag, Amy Hollywood, 2021-12-10 Three scholars of religion explore literature and the literary as sites of critical transformation We are living in a time of radical uncertainty faced with serious political ecological economic epidemiological and social problems Scholars of religion Constance M Furey Sarah Hammerschlag and Amy Hollywood come together in this volume with a shared conviction that what and how we read opens new ways of imagining our political futures and our lives Each essay in this book suggests different ways to characterize the object of devotion and the stance of the devout subject before it Furey writes about devotion in terms of vivification energy and artifice Hammerschlag in terms of commentary mimicry and fetishism and Hollywood in terms of anarchy antinomianism and atopia They are interested in literature not as providing models for ethical political or religious life but as creating the site in which the possible and the impossible transport the reader enabling new forms of thought habits of mind and ways of life Ranging from German theologian Martin Luther to French Jewish philosopher Sarah Kofman to American poet Susan Howe this volume is not just a reflection on forms of devotion and their critical and creative import but also a powerful enactment of devotion itself The Butterfly Hatch Richard Vytņiorgu, 2018-12-01 Some of H D s most oft quoted lines have to do with the meaning and value of words they are conditioned to hatch butterflies Yet rather than seeking merely to understand how H D represented the meaning and value of words this volume uses the butterfly hatch as a metaphor for thinking more broadly about the capacity of literary experience to hatch transformed persons butterflies in quest of wisdom in university English studies Dislodging H D from her usual modernist context this book positions her as a thinker and reads her autobiographical prose and recently published work of the 1940s for its ability to offer new insights into such pertinent and interconnected areas as literary contexts imagination and personal and social transformation H D has in her own words always been uncanonically seated resistant to rigid classification the texture of her work celebrates internal existential resonances that evidence the emergence of personality The author capitalizes on this facet of H D s work and uncanonically seats her in conversation with the neglected literary theorist Louise Rosenblatt 1904-2005 whose transactional contribution uniquely fuses critical theory politics philosophy and educational vision This book synthesizes the work of H D and Rosenblatt to create an emergent personalist theory of literary experience in the quest for wisdom crystallizing links between philosophical anthropology aesthetics pedagogy and the politics of human relations Benefiting from access to unpublished material housed at Columbia New York and Yale universities Vytņiorgu combines analysis and theorizing to offer a significant pedagogically inflected intervention in literary studies arguing that university English studies must incorporate critical and pedagogical vantages

which open a window on wisdom as well as knowledge Lived Experiences and Social Transformations CL Wren Radford, 2022-03-07 Practices of sharing marginalised lived experiences are framed as providing insight into injustices yet social inequalities influence whose experiences and whose interpretations of these experiences are seen as valid Lived Experiences and Social Transformations analyses academic and activist encounters with lived experiences arguing that these practices reinforce or disrupt power relations Through the example of UK activists sharing their experiences of poverty Wren Radford advocates for collaborative interventions that emphasise the critical creative knowledges enmeshed in marginalised experiences The book compellingly enacts this approach to practical theology rooted in concrete issues and argued through poetic writing artwork and interdisciplinary sources Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems Joe Moffett, 2014-10-28 Written from a literary critic's perspective Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems borrows insights from Religious Studies and critical theory to examine the role of spirituality in contemporary poetry specifically the genre of the long poem Descending from Whitman's Song of Myself the long poem is often considered the American twentieth century equivalent of the epic poem but unlike the epic it carries few generic expectations aside from the fact that it simply must be long This makes the form particularly pliable as a tool for spiritual inquiry The period following World War II is often described as a secular age but spirituality continued as a concern for poets as evidenced by this study These writers look beyond conventional faith systems and instead seek individual paths of understanding they engage in mysticism in other words With chapters on H D and Brenda Hillman Robert Duncan James Merrill Charles Wright and Galway Kinnell and Gary Snyder this study demonstrates how these poets engage the culture of consumption in the postwar years at the same time they search for opportunities for transcendence Not content to throw over the earthly in favor of the otherworldly these poets reject the familiar binary of the worldly and metaphysical to produce distinctive paths of spiritual understanding that fuel what Wright calls a contemplation of the divine Mysticism in Early Modern England Liam Peter Temple, 2019 Mysticism in Early Modern England traces how mysticism featured in polemical and religious discourse in seventeenth century England and explores how it came to be viewed as a source of sectarianism radicalism and most significantly religious enthusiasm
