Headscarves And Hymens Why The Middle East Needs A Sexual Revolution:

Headscarves and Hymens Mona Eltahawy, 2015-04-21 A passionate manifesto decrying misogyny in the Arab world by an Egyptian American journalist and activist When the Egyptian journalist Mona Eltahawy published an article in Foreign Policy magazine in 2012 titled Why Do They Hate Us it provoked a firestorm of controversy The response it generated with more than four thousand posts on the website broke all records for the magazine prompted dozens of follow up interviews on radio and television and made it clear that misogyny in the Arab world is an explosive issue one that engages and often enrages the public In Headscarves and Hymens Eltahawy takes her argument further Drawing on her years as a campaigner and commentator on women's issues in the Middle East she explains that since the Arab Spring began women in the Arab world have had two revolutions to undertake one fought with men against oppressive regimes and another fought against an entire political and economic system that treats women in countries from Yemen and Saudi Arabia to Egypt Tunisia and Libya as second class citizens Eltahawy has traveled across the Middle East and North Africa meeting with women and listening to their stories Her book is a plea for outrage and action on their behalf confronting the toxic mix of culture and religion that few seem willing or able to disentangle lest they blaspheme or offend A manifesto motivated by hope and fury in equal measure Headscarves and Hymens is as illuminating as it is incendiary

Pan-Africanism and Psychology in Decolonial Times Shose Kessi, Floretta Boonzaier, Babette Stephanie Gekeler, 2022-01-01 This book explores the potential of Pan African thought in contributing to advancing psychological research theory and practice Euro American mainstream psychology has historically served the interests of a dominant western paradigm Contemporary trends in psychological work have emerged as a direct result of the impact of violent histories of slavery genocide and colonisation Hence this book proposes that psychology particularly in its social forms as a discipline centered on the relationship between mind and society is well placed to produce the critical knowledge and tools for imagining and promoting a just and equitable world

A Bite of the Apple Lennie Goodings, 2020 In this insightful memoir Lennie Goodings takes the reader behind the scenes at Virago the feminist press that she has led for twenty years Moving from Virago's early days of independence through its various commercial incarnations the author reflects on idealistic publishing and how it feels to be a beacon for change

Getting Jesus Right: How Muslims Get Jesus and Islam Wrong James A Beverley, Craig A Evans, 2015-06-01 IS IT POSSIBLE THAT MUSLIMS ARE WRONG ABOUT JESUS AND VARIOUS TENETS OF ISLAM Is the famous Muslim writer Reza Aslan mistaken in his portrayal of Jesus of Nazareth and apologetic for Islam Professor James Beverley and Professor Craig Evans take an in depth look at subjects at the core of the Muslim Christian divide the reliability of the New Testament Gospels and the Qur'an and what we can really know about Jesus and the prophet Muhammad Importantly they also examine the implications of traditional Islamic faith on the status of women jihad and terrorism

Coerced Liberation Zamira Abman, 2024-05-01 In 1924 the Bolshevik regime began an unprecedented campaign to forcibly emancipate the Muslim women of Tajikistan The emancipatory reforms included unveiling women passing progressive family code laws and educating women By the 1950s the Soviet regime largely succeeded in putting an end to veiling child marriage polygamy and bride payments Yet today there is a resurgence in these practices the Bolsheviks claimed to have eliminated Coerced Liberation reveals that the Soviet regime transformed the lives of urban women within a single generation but without lasting effect Drawing on unique primary sources the book examines why this occurred It addresses questions that are pertinent to ongoing debates in the international arena What happens when an outside force attempts to modernize a society deeply rooted in centuries of patriarchal norms and values In what ways can a devout religious rural community respond to survive and adapt to such interventions And how does a state centred top down approach towards women s emancipation work Coerced Liberation presents critical insights for readers interested in gender dynamics within Muslim communities the roles of women in Islam the resurgence of Islam in former colonial territories the effectiveness of a top down approach towards women s movements and more

The Other #MeToos Iqra Shagufta Cheema,2023 From Asia to Africa to the Middle East MeToo has inspired local movements and hashtag trends like AnaKaman and transnational collective hashtags like MosqueMeToo Yet most Western scholarly and popular treatment of the movement assumes it is a primarily Western phenomenon To attend to the revolutionary international impact of MeToo Iqra Shagufta Cheema brings together contributions from scholars and scholar activists that look at specific iterations of the MeToo movement across multiple communities cultures and countries in the Global South Going beyond gender this comprehensive study focuses on the intersectional assemblage of ethnicity religion race class and politics that informs MeToo and its place in local and transnational feminisms By doing so The Other MeToos highlights the adaptation translation and impact of MeToo in non Western postcolonial minoritized and othered locales to explore its wider scope and possibilities

To Deprave and Corrupt Catherine Scott,2019-05-27 Thousands have run afoul of Britain s Obscene Publications Act from Victorian erotica presses to 21st century dominatrices At a time when the internet has made sexually explicit material ubiquitous why are British traditional media still regulated by a vaguely worded law from 1857 This comprehensive analysis of obscenity in British culture explores what is considered obscene who gets to decide and how class race and gender inform laws regarding adult content The author describes how obscenity laws disproportionately affect the BDSM subculture the LGBT community and feminist porn performers

Bhandari, 2024-03-06

The study of women and society involves the exploration of the intersection of gender social structures and cultural norms that shape women s experiences in society This interdisciplinary field examines the social political economic and cultural factors that contribute to gender inequality and explores strategies for promoting gender equality and women s empowerment Written by global scholars in the social sciences Women and Society includes five chapters that provide a comprehensive overview of various topics related to women s role in society It examines the many ways in which women have been marginalized and continue to be oppressed in society The book covers a wide range of topics including the role of female characters in literature the practice of female genital mutilation the impact of government support agencies on women s entrepreneurship the effects of being child free on family resilience and the different branches of feminism It is an essential resource for anyone who wants to learn more about the challenges women face and the work that still needs to be done to achieve gender equality This book is a valuable resource for scholars researchers and policymakers working in the field of gender studies and women s empowerment The book covers a wide range of topics related to women s role in society and provides critical analysis and insights into the challenges and opportunities that women face in different cultures and societies The #MeToo

Movement in Iran Claudia Yaghoobi, 2023-08-24 The Iranian MeToo movement was a crucial form of resistance with ordinary Iranian women sharing their experiences of sexual harassment and assault in the public sphere of digital media This is the first book of its kind providing a comprehensive analysis of the Iranian MeToo movement Based on archival empirical ethnographic literary and cultural research the contributors discuss the abuse of women and society s responses to it

Contextualizing the historical framework of Iranian MeToo activism within larger Iranian feminist movements as well as the historical background within the context of Middle East the contributors address how the privileged position of men who have been outed as rapists helps them to aggregate social political sexual and economic capital through various networks in order to delegitimize the narratives of survivors The volume also covers the intersections of various systems of oppression specifically highlighting marginalized voices The contributors highlight the power dynamics within digital feminist networks in Iran and its unique attributes due to political social and religious structures The volume ends with a chapter focusing on cultural productions specifically cinematic works through which some filmmakers have challenged normalizations of sexual harassment by offering alternative discourses which have arguably paved the way for the MeToo in Iran movement

Spatiality at the Periphery in European Literatures and Visual Arts Kathryn Everly, Stefano Giannini, Karina von Tippelskirch, 2023-06-12 Spatiality at the Periphery in European Literatures and Visual Arts analyzes the impact migrations both internal and external have on Europe's literary and visual representations in the nineteenth to twenty first centuries The volume aims to subvert a centripetal reading of European cultural production by including peripheral thinkers writers and visual artists operating in transcultural contexts The essays highlight and investigate the fertile artistic discourses generated in the spatial peripheries outside of Europe or its inner peripheries The volume addresses the need for geocritical readings that overcome the engrained dichotomy of centers peripheries By doing so the book brings a more nuanced approach to national literatures and proposes the idea of contact zones of imaginative interaction

Modern Egyptian Women, Fashion and Faith Amany Abdelrazek-Alsiefy, 2023-11-03 This book discusses Egyptian Muslim women's dress as the social political and ideological signifier of the changing attitudes towards Western modernity It employs women's clothing styles as a feminist act that provides rich insights into the power and limits of legal regulations and hegemonic discourses in constructing gendered and cultural borders in the modern Egyptian public sphere Furthermore through highlighting marginalized but significant models and historical moments of cultural exchange between Muslim and Western cultures through female dress the book tells a third story beyond the binary model of an assumed modest oppressed traditional Muslim woman vis vis consumer emancipated modern Western woman in mainstream Western discourse and literary representation
