

"Smolin and Guinan are pioneers in the use of support groups to help those left behind after a suicide. This book shows why they have been able to be comforting and to help survivors heal. It has humanity and gentle wisdom."

—Christopher Lukas,
coauthor of Silent Grief: Living in the Wake of Suicide

"A very informative book that will provide suicide survivors with new insights into the emotional responses they may be experiencing following the self-inflicted death of a loved one. The authors are direct and honest in their approach as they offer support, hope, and permission to go on with life."

—Helen Fitzgerald,
author of The Grieving Child

As the survivor of a person who has ended his life by suicide, you are left a painful legacy, and not one you chose. This book can help you take the first steps toward healing. While each individual becomes a suicide survivor in his or her own way, there are predictable phases of pain that most survivors experience sooner or later, from the grief and depression of mourning to guilt, rage, and despair over what you have lost.

Too often people suffering the aftermath of a suicide suffer alone. You may be torturing yourself with repetitive questions of "What if...?" and "Why didn't we...?" And "Why, why, why?"

Healing After the Suicide of a Loved One, written for the living, is filled with case studies, excellent information, and advice, and includes a list of suggested readings and a directory of suicide support groups nationwide.

Remember, your wounds can heal and you can recover. You can still laugh and love. This book invites you to begin this journey.

Ann Smolin, C.S.W., is Director of the Northern Westchester branch of Westchester Jewish Community Services. John Guinan, Ph.D., is the Director of the Wall Street Counseling Center. Both authors conduct suicide survivor groups and live in Westchester County, New York.
