Confronting the rifts created by our common conceptual vocabulary for North American colonial studies How can we tell colonial histories in ways that invite intercultural conversation within humanistic fields that are themselves products of colonial domination Beginning with a famous episode of failed communication from the narrative of the freed slave Olaudah Equiano The Silence of the Miskito Prince explores this question by looking critically at five concepts frequently used to imagine solutions to the challenges of cross cultural communication understanding cosmopolitanism piety reciprocity and patience Focusing on the first two centuries of North American colonization Matt Cohen traces how these five concepts of cross cultural relations emerged from and continue to evolve within colonial dynamics Through a series of revealing archival explorations he argues the need for a new vocabulary for the analysis of past interactions drawn from the intellectual and spiritual domains of the colonized and for a historiographical practice oriented less toward the illusion of complete understanding and scholarly authority and more toward the beliefs and experiences of descendant communities The Silence of the Miskito Prince argues for new ways of framing scholarly conversations that use past interactions as a site for thinking about intercultural relations today By investigating the colonial histories of these terms that were assumed to promote inclusion Cohen offers both a reflection on how we got here and a model of scholarly humility that holds us to our better or worse pasts Emotional Freedom Judith Orloff, M.D.,2010-12-28 A New York Times bestseller Emotional Freedom is a

Rushdan,2017-08-07 Trends and Issues in Interdisciplinary Behavior and Social Science contains papers presented at the 5th International Congress on Interdisciplinary Behavior and Social Science 2016 ICIBSoS 2016 held 5 6 November 2016 in Jogjakarta Indonesia The 24 papers cover every discipline in all fields of social science discussing many current trends and issues 21st century society is facing especially in Southeast Asia The topics include literature family culture studies behavior studies psychology and human development religion and values social issues such as urban poverty and juvenile crisis driving behavior well being of women career women career performance happiness social adjustment quality of life among patients job stress and religious coping etc The issues are discussed using scientific quantitative or qualitative methods from different academic viewpoints I Stumbled Upon a Jewel Margaret Petersson,2013-06 Virtually everything written in English about Buddhism has been written by scholars ministers or formal leaders no matter whether it is Tibetan Zen Shin or any other Buddhist sect This book is written by lay people about their own experiences with Shin Buddhism which is after all the Buddhism of the common people The sangha or the community of fellow seekers is the backbone of Buddhism providing a structure encouragement and nurturing of the development of one s beliefs yet it is not represented in Buddhist literature Perhaps it is understandable that this is so since Buddhism began as an oral tradition at a time when few people besides scholars could read or write However it is very often the sharing of one s concerns and ideas with members of the sangha which makes Budddhism or any spiritual endeavor alive and relevant to one s life The sense of sharing and intimacy are captured in the essays presented here with the special richness of poetry and visual images to enhance the heartfelt message of the book s intent It represents a breath of fresh air bridging the gap between the point of view of the expert and the experience of the ordinary follower of the Buddhist path
