Saving Grace: a Contemporary Christian Romance Novel Kelsey MacBride,2025-07-11 When tragedy brings two broken hearts together can faith heal what seems irreparable Dr Kevin Pierce s world shattered the night he couldn t save eight year old Rachel in his emergency room Consumed by guilt and haunted by memories of losing his niece Sarah in a car accident Kevin abandons his promising medical career and retreats to the coastal town of Mendocino convinced he s failed as both a doctor and a man

Stephanie Knight's heart died alongside her daughter that terrible night. Thirteen-year-old Rachel was her everything, her purpose, her joy, her reason for living. Now, drowning in grief and questioning God's plan, Stephanie struggles to find meaning in a world that feels empty and cold. When a chance encounter brings Kevin and Stephanie face to face, neither expects to find hope in their shared tragedy. As they attend grief counseling together and slowly open their wounded hearts, an unexpected bond forms between the doctor who couldn't save her daughter and the mother who lost everything. But just as healing begins, Kevin inherits his uncle's prestigious Los Angeles medical practice, everything he once dreamed of achieving. Torn between honoring his family's legacy and following his heart, Kevin must choose between professional success and the woman who saved him from his darkest hour. Meanwhile, a manipulative office manager threatens to destroy their fragile relationship with lies and deception, testing whether their love can survive separation and doubt. As Kevin and Stephanie navigate loss, faith, and second chances, they discover that sometimes God's greatest gifts come wrapped in our deepest pain. But will they have the courage to trust in His plan when everything seems to be pulling them apart? Saving Grace is a powerful story of healing, forgiveness, and the transformative power of love. Perfect for readers who enjoy contemporary Christian romance with authentic characters facing real-life struggles while discovering that with God, beauty can bloom from ashes. Book Two in the Glen Ellen Series. Guided By His Light: An Inspirational Christian Romance Lillie Hart, 2025-04-04

Guided By His Light: A Story of Faith, Hope, and Love When storms rage both outside and within, where do you turn for light? On the rugged coast of Maine, Nicole Thomas has spent her life tending the Grayson Point Lighthouse alongside her father, a man whose unshakable faith has guided her through life's tempests. But as his health falters and the weight of responsibility grows, Nicole finds herself questioning whether she has the strength to weather the storms ahead. One fateful night, a violent storm brings a broken man to her doorstep: Tyler Hampton, a travel photographer with a past as turbulent as the sea, is stranded on the rocky shore near the lighthouse. Bitter and adrift, Tyler has spent years running from pain he doesn't know how to face until Nicole's quiet strength and steadfast faith begin to illuminate the darkness he's carried for so long. As Nicole and Tyler navigate their own storms, her father's declining health, the challenges of keeping the lighthouse operational, and the emotional scars Tyler has tried to bury, they discover that sometimes God's greatest blessings come through life's fiercest trials. Together, they learn to trust in God's plan, finding hope, healing, and an unexpected love that shines brighter than the lighthouse's beacon. Guided By His Light is an inspirational story of faith and redemption where love is both a guiding light and a reminder that even the darkest nights are no match for the power of God's enduring promises. Perfect for fans of heartfelt Christian romance, this novel will leave you encouraged and uplifted, ready to face your own storms with hope and courage.
