Bookshop Alba Donati, 2023-05-30 National Bestseller Under the Tuscan Sun meets Diary of a Bookseller in this charming memoir by an Italian poet recounting her experience opening a bookshop in a village in Tuscany Alba Donati was used to her hectic life working as a book publicist in Italy a life that made her happy and allowed her to meet prominent international authors but she was ready to make a change One day she decided to return to Lucignana the small village in the Tuscan hills where she was born There she opened a tiny but enchanting bookshop in a lovely little cottage on a hill surrounded by gardens filled with roses and peonies With fewer than 200 year round residents Alba s shop seemed unlikely to succeed but it soon sparked the enthusiasm of book lovers both nearby and across Italy After surviving a fire and pandemic restrictions the Bookshop on the Hill soon became a refuge and destination for an ever growing community The locals took pride in the bookshop from Alba s centenarian mother to her childhood friends and the many volunteers who help in the day to day running of the shop And in short time it has become a literary destination with many devoted readers coming from afar to browse enjoy a cup of tea and find comfort in the knowledge that Alba will find the perfect read for them Alba s lifelong love of literature shines on every page of this unique and uplifting book Formatted as diary entries with delightful lists of the books sold at the shop each day this inspirational story celebrates reading as well as book lovers and booksellers the unsung heroes of the literary world Heap House Edward Carey, 2014 A storm is brewing over Heap House The Iremongers are growing restless and the whispers are getting louder When Clod meets Lucy Pennant a girl newly arrived from the city everything changes The secrets that bind Heap House together begin to unravel to reveal a dark truth that threatens to

Observatory Mansions Edward Carey,2010-02-24 Easily the most brilliant fiction I ve seen this year it proves the potential brilliance of the novel form John Fowles author of The Magus Observatory Mansions once the Orme family s magnificent ancestral home set on beautiful grounds is now a crumbling apartment block stranded on a traffic island peopled with eccentrics Thirty seven year old Francis Orme lives in Observatory Mansions with his peculiar parents and a collection of misfits By day he is a street performer earning money as a statue of whiteness in the park wearing white gloves to ensure that his skin never touches anything He steals items for his museum of significant objects 996 in all not for their monetary value but because they have been loved often bringing grief to their erstwhile owners His bedridden mother Alice who has created for herself an alternative time frame called fiction and his father Francis are among the occupants set apart from the rest of the busy city by their histories their memories and their relationships with the other seven inhabitants of the flats Each of the house dwellers has his or her own story as seen through Francis s eyes and the careful routine and harmony of the house are shaken when along comes a new resident the half blind vulnerable Anna Tap She is sympathetic and resourceful and slowly the desperately lonely residents begin to open up their long closed hearts As the delicate balance of Observatory Mansions begins to shift Francis finds himself having to protect the secrets of his past and the sanctity of his collection while growing emotionally closer to Anna Hailed as no less than a tour de force Observatory Mansions is a debut novel of immense originality a strangely haunting landscape occupied by compelling and unforgettable characters
