Dynamics of Transformation Hiroyuki Takeshima, Kipo Jimah, Shashidhara Kolavalli, Xinshen Diao, Rebecca Lee Funk, 2013-06-21 Agriculture in African South of the Sahara SSA can be transformed if the right public support is provided at the initial stage and it can sustain itself once the enabling environment is put in place Successes are also specific to the location of projects In Ghana interesting insights are obtained from the successful Kpong Irrigation Project KIP contrasted with other major irrigation projects in the country Through an exploratory review we describe how a productive system evolved in KIP and how public support for critical aspects accumulation of crop husbandry knowledge selection and supply of profitable varieties and mechanization of land preparation might have created a productive environment that the private sector could enter and fill in the market for credit processing mechanization of harvesting and other institutional voids that typically have constrained agricultural transformation in the rest of SSA Slower progress in other projects also raises a number of questions We conclude by summarizing those questions and some testable hypotheses for future research

Overtum Countermeasures for Vehicles Melvin L Myers, 2022-01-17 This book describes the century long emergence and battle to protect drivers and occupants of off road and on road vehicles from crush related injuries from rollovers Deaths and serious injuries have been associated with vehicle overturns that involve tractors other motorized machinery automobiles and small vehicles It took more than a century to attend to much of this epidemic of death and disabling injury that resulted from these overturns This book argues that a key factor in this response was epidemiology that reported rollover related deaths and engineering revisionism that moved responses from blame the victim to rollbars to prevent the deaths
