The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics Nic Cheeseman, Karuti Kanyinga, Gabrielle Lynch, 2020-02-14 Kenya is one of the most politically dynamic and influential countries in sub Saharan Africa Today it is known in equal measure as a country that has experienced great highs and tragic lows In the 1960s and 1970s Kenya was seen as a success story of development in the periphery and also led the way in terms of democratic breakthroughs In 2010 when a new constitution devolved power and placed new constraints on the president However the country has also made international headlines for the kind of political instability that occurs when electoral violence is expressed along ethnic lines such as during the Kenya crisis of 2007-08 when over 1 000 people lost their lives and almost 700 000 were displaced The Oxford Handbook of Kenyan Politics explains these developments and many more drawing together 50 specially commissioned chapters by leading researchers The chapters they have contributed address a range of essential topics including the legacy of colonial rule ethnicity land politics devolution the constitution elections democracy foreign aid the informal economy civil society human rights the International Criminal Court the growing influence of China economic policy electoral violence and the impact of mobile phone technology In addition to covering some of the most important debates about Kenyan politics the volume provides an insightful overview of Kenyan history from 1930 to the present day and features a set of chapters that review the impact of devolution on regional politics in every part of the country

Mbah, 2023-08-29 Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa: Gender, Religion and Ethno-cultural Identities explores the changing dynamics of identities in Africa with a focus on gender, ethno-cultural and religious identity. Toyin Falola and Emmanuel M. Mbah argue that because identity defines who we are as individuals or groups, studies on African identities must focus on understanding the changing dynamics in the socio-economic and political spheres in the continent. These chapters cover subjects such as women's career identity, gender roles and knowledge, childlessness, ethnocentrism and democracy, cultural identity through theater, Black identity in the diaspora and diasporic consciousness. Using existing scholarship, the chapters in this edited volume challenge our understanding of what identity entails and provide new discussions on the hitherto politicized historiography of some identities in Africa. Equality in Kenya's 2010 Constitution

Victoria Miyandazi, 2021-02-25 This book makes a significant contribution to the ongoing global conversations on the various understandings of equality. It also sets out principled approaches on how they can be coherently interpreted to address the myriad inequalities in Kenya. Taking a comparative approach, the book considers how other jurisdictions including the United States, United Kingdom, Canada, South Africa, India and Botswana have approached the conceptualisation, interpretation and application of various equality concepts. The book focuses on important issues such as transformative constitutionalism in relation to the interpretation of Kenya's 2010 Constitution, expanding the list of enumerated grounds for non-discrimination, affirmative action, accommodating religious and cultural diversity versus gender equality, the interrelation between socio-economic rights and status-based equality. Emerging Dynamics in the Provision of Private Higher Education in Africa Wondwosen

Tamrat, Damtew Teferra, 2024-05-29 This edited book examines the private higher education (PHE) sector in African countries. Reports suggest that private institutions across the continent outnumber their public counterparts, yet there has been little scholarly investigation into this emerging phenomenon. The book therefore seeks to document, map and analyse key trends and contemporary themes in the PHE sector as well as chart historical developments, policy and regulatory frameworks. As a whole, it provides the reader with in-depth knowledge, rich perspectives and robust analyses from leading authorities in the field. Contributions from all sub-regions combine thematic issues with shaping discourse on the topic, and the discussions are undertaken in the context of global perspectives. The book will be of interest to academics, researchers, postgraduate students, policy makers, analysts and development partners interested in African higher education and PHE in particular. The
