Services and the Green Economy Andrew Jones, Patrik Ström, Brita Hermelin, Grete Rusten, 2016-05-04. Services and the Green Economy addresses a significant gap in the knowledge and understanding of sustainable economic development. Bringing together a range of expert contributions, the book analyses the role of services and service industries in the transition to a greener economy. Framed by an approach within environmental economic geography, chapters written by leading researchers from a range of disciplines explore how service industries, service firms, and service activities are at heart of green economic processes. Adopting a global perspective, it includes research from the US, Europe, South America, and Japan, providing a detailed insight into how the crucial role of service industry activity has often been ignored in current understandings of a green economic transition.

Key Concepts in Creative Industries John Hartley, Jason Potts, Stuart Cunningham, Terry Flew, Michael Keane, John Banks, 2012-10-04. This guide to the emerging language of creative industries is a valuable resource for researchers and students alike.
