Essays on Art Education in India

And Others BABU NAMBOODIRI K, 2020-08-18 In the writings based on factual incidents space and time are the relevant factors when describing it in the view of making it into a historical action

Also the background of the writer the writer's wisdom on the particular issue describing and the writer's ability on narration of incidents accurately bound to space and time his psychological attitude towards the happenings in his surroundings most of the time without his own involvement are certain elements of relevance here

Even though the historical happenings are of unique characteristics and its nature of existence with similar altitude unchangingly forever the sincere studious activities towards its objectiveness can establish the real time facts even to the future generations ever after centuries

When we engage in deep studies with curiosity and a special inborn interest towards art the studious beings get a clear idea of the differences between factual incidences and documented evidences of incidents

These kinds of arrivals at falsely fabricated ideas on the historical scenarios follows loss of believability on documentations and established versions of incidents The process of historical development has attracted me because it is propagated to maintain time space objectivity bound relations towards various objectivities

These are some of the factors that directed and confirmed my arrival at these kinds of creative destinations

Deep Cosmopolitanism

Leah Lowthorp, 2025-09-02 Deep Cosmopolitanism explores the extraordinary past and present of Kutiyattam Sanskrit theater the world's oldest continuously performed theater Recognized as India's first UNESCO intangible cultural heritage of humanity the matrilineal temple art of Kutiyattam has been performed by men and women in Kerala India since the tenth century C E

Deep Cosmopolitanism illustrates how Kutiyattam Sanskrit theater has encountered multiple forms of cosmopolitanism over the course of its thousand year history Exploring how Kutiyattam artists create meaning out of their deep past through everyday narratives and reflections author Leah Lowthorp traces the art's cosmopolitan encounters over time from the premodern Sanskrit cosmopolis to Muslim sultans British colonialists Communist politics and UNESCO intangible cultural heritage In so doing Lowthorp fundamentally rethinks the notion of cosmopolitanism from a non Western perspective with premodern roots and offers a critique of the colonialist undertones of how international heritage organizations like UNESCO conceptualize peoples and traditions around the world Diving into an ethnographic exploration that considers Kutiyattam's multiple cosmopolitanisms over a period of one thousand years Deep Cosmopolitanism offers a model for decolonizing modernity and challenges us to rethink what it means to be cosmopolitan traditional and modern in the world today Lines in Water Eliza F. Kent, Tazim R. Kassam, 2013-07-12 When asked to distinguish between different faiths Mughal prince Dara Shikoh is said to have replied How do you draw a line in water Inspired by this question the essays in this volume illustrate how ordinary people in South Asia and the diaspora negotiate their religious identities and encounters in creative complex and diverse ways Taking the approach that narratives from below provide the richest insight into the dynamics of religious pluralism the authors examine life histories oral traditions cartographic practices pilgrimage rites and devotional music and songs Drawing on both ethnographic and historical data they illuminate how like lines in water religious boundaries are dynamic fluid flexible and permeable rather than permanently fixed frozen and inviolable A distinct feature of the volume is its proposition of a fresh and innovative typology of boundary dynamics Boundaries may be attractive or porous firmly drawn or transcended Attractive boundaries invite confluence while affirming the differences between self and other whereas permeable boundaries facilitate exchanges that create new identities and in turn form new lines Although people may recognize the significance of religious borders they can choose to transcend them Throughout this volume the authors highlight the fascinating range of South Asian religious and cultural traditions Imperial Rome, Indian Ocean Regions and Muziris K.S. Mathew, 2016-11-25 17 Money Matters Indigenous and Foreign Coins in the Malabar Coast Second Century BCE Second Century CE Bibliography List of Contributors Index Kalarippayat Dick Luijendijk, 2008-09-25 Kalarippayat is the indigenous martial art of the South Indian state Kerala The art incorporates empty hand fighting exercises weapon drills vital point attacks massages and healing methods for muscular and bone problems This book is based on many years of field research It provides an insight in Kalarippayat and its traditions and in the society of India and Kerala in particular Mudpacks and Prozac Murphy Halliburton, 2016-09-17 People seeking psychiatric healing choose from an almost dizzying array of therapies from the medicated mud packs of Ayurveda to the pharmacopeia of Western biomedicine to the spiritual pathways of the world's religions How do we choose what do the treatments offer and how do they cure In Mudpacks and Prozac Murphy Halliburton investigates the very different ways in which Ayurvedic Western and religious Christian Muslim and Hindu healing systems define psychiatric problems and cures He describes people's embodied experiences of therapies that range from soothing to frightening and explores how enduring pleasure or pain affects healing

And through evocative portraits of patients in Kerala India a place of incredible cultural diversity that has become a Mecca for alternative medicine Halliburton shows how sociopolitical changes around the globe may be limiting the ways in which people seek and experience health care with negative effects on our quality of health and quality of life India: The Ancient Past Burjor Avari, 2016-07-01 India The Ancient Past provides a clear and systematic introduction to the cultural political economic social and geographical history of ancient India from the time of the pre Harappan culture nine thousand years ago up until the beginning of the second millennium of the Common Era The book engages with methodological and controversial issues by examining key themes such as the Indus Sarasvati civilization the Aryan controversy the development of Vedic and heterodox religions and the political economy and social life of ancient Indian kingdoms This fully revised and updated second edition includes Three new chapters examining the differences and commonalities between the north and south of India Extended discussion on contested issues such as the origins of the Aryans and the role of feudalism in ancient India New source excerpts to introduce students to the most significant works in the historiography of India and questions for discussion Study guides including a list of key issues suggested readings and a selection of internet sources for each chapter Specially designed maps to illustrate different time periods and geographical regions This richly illustrated guide provides a fascinating account of the early development of Indian culture and civilization that will appeal to all students of Indian history The Laws of Yesterday's Wars 3 Samuel C.
