Key Themes For The Study Of Islam:

Key Themes for the Study of Islam Jamal J. Elias, 2010-02 An introduction to Islam for Western students featuring nineteen essays that use English language terms to discuss familiar concepts in the Islamic religion and society and examining such topics as gender prophecy ritual war and more Key Themes for the Study of Islam Jamal J. Elias, 2014-10-01

Key Themes for the Study of Islam examines the central themes and concepts indispensable to an informed understanding of Islamic religion and society From Gender and History to Prayer and Prophecy each authoritative chapter focuses on a single aspect of the religion and presents a critical discussion written by a world expert in that field Exposing as false the idea that Islam and Muslims are incomprehensible to Western culture this book will become the first choice for students and experts in religion from disparate fields who wish to know how Islam relates to vital concepts in religion and society today What is Islam? Shahab Ahmed, 2016

A bold new conceptualization of Islam that reflects its contradictions and rich diversity What is Islam How do we grasp a human and historical phenomenon characterized by such variety and contradiction What is Islamic about Islamic philosophy or Islamic art Should we speak of Islam or of islams Should we distinguish the Islamic the religious from the Islamicate the cultural Or should we abandon Islamic altogether as an analytical term In What Is Islam Shahab Ahmed presents a bold new conceptualization of Islam that challenges dominant understandings grounded in the categories of religion and culture or those that privilege law and scripture He argues that these modes of thinking obstruct us from understanding Islam distorting it diminishing it and rendering it incoherent What Is Islam formulates a new conceptual language for analyzing Islam It presents a new paradigm of how Muslims have historically understood divine revelation one that enables us to understand how and why Muslims through history have embraced values such as exploration ambiguity aestheticization polyvalence and relativism as well as practices such as figural art music and even wine drinking as Islamic It also puts forward a new understanding of the historical constitution of Islamic law and its relationship to philosophical ethics and political theory A book that is certain to provoke debate and significantly alter our understanding of Islam What Is Islam reveals how Muslims have historically conceived of and lived with Islam as norms and truths that are at once contradictory yet coherent Islamic Studies in the Twenty-first Century Léon

Buskens, Annemarie Sandwijk, 2025-10-01 In recent decades traditional methods of philology and intellectual history applied to the study of Islam and Muslim societies have been met with considerable criticism from rising generations of scholars who have turned to the social sciences most notably anthropology and social history for guidance This change has been accompanied by the rise of new fields studying for example Islam in Europe and Africa and new topics such as the role of gender This collection surveys these transformations and others taking stock of the field and showing new paths forward

Sorcery or Science? Ariela Marcus-Sells, 2022-03-07 Sorcery or Science examines how two Sufi Muslim theologians who rose to prominence in the western Sahara Desert in the late eighteenth century Sidi al Mukhtar al Kunt d 1811 and his son and successor Sidi Muhammad al Kunt d 1826 decisively influenced the development of Sufi Muslim thought in West Africa Known as the Kunta scholars Mukhtar al Kunt and Muhammad al Kunt were influential teachers who developed a pedagogical network of students across the Sahara In exploring their understanding of the realm of the unseen a vast invisible world that is both surrounded and interpenetrated by the visible world Ariela Marcus Sells reveals how these theologians developed a set of practices that depended on knowledge of this unseen world and that allowed practitioners to manipulate the visible and invisible realms They called these practices the sciences of the unseen While they acknowledged that some Muslims particularly self identified white Muslim elites might consider these practices to be sorcery the Kunta scholars argued that these were legitimate Islamic practices Marcus Sells situates their ideas and beliefs within the historical and cultural context of the Sahara Desert surveying the cosmology and metaphysics of the realm of the unseen and the history of magical discourses within the Hellenistic and Arabo Islamic worlds Erudite and innovative this volume connects the Islamic sciences of the unseen with the reception of Hellenistic discourses of magic and proposes a new methodology for reading written devotional aids in historical context It will be welcomed by scholars of magic and specialists in Africana religious studies Islamic occultism and Islamic manuscript culture

Meditation in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Halvor Eifring, 2013-10-24 Meditative practices have flourished in widely different parts of Eurasia yet historical research on such practices is limited Research to date has focused on contexts rather than actual practices and within individual traditions For the first time in one volume the meditative practices of the three traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam are examined They are viewed in a global perspective considering both generic and historical connections to practices in other traditions particularly in India and East Asia Their cultural and historical peculiarities are examined comparing them both to each other and to Asian forms of meditation The book builds on a notion of meditation as self administered techniques for inner transformation a definition which focuses on transformative practice rather than notions of meditative states and mystical experiences It proposes ways of studying meditative practice historically and concludes with an essay on the modern scientific interest in meditation

The Handy Islam Answer Book John Renard, 2015-01-19 A western non Muslim Islamic scholar demystifies and explains one of the world's great religious traditions In an age of continued Middle East volatility religious extremists and terrorist threats the mere mention of Islam and Muslims too often provokes misunderstanding and even rancor Often overlooked are the important links between the Qur'an and the Bible Also ignored are the significant historical overlap between Islamic interpretation of history with those of Christianity and Judaism Islam is too often confusing and even opaque to those unfamiliar with it Truly a must have reference for our changing and trying times The Handy Islam Answer Book is clearly and eloquently written by John Renard Ph D a scholar of Islam with more than 40 years of research and teaching experience This user friendly guide answers nearly 800 questions and offers fun facts that cover Islamic history religious practices and Muslim cultural perspectives including When did Islam begin Why is Mecca a holy city for Muslims Do Muslims worship Muhammad What was the fate of Medieval Christian pilgrims to the Holy Land What do Muslims mean by the term Allah What does the crescent moon and star symbol mean to Muslims What is the Muslim call to prayer Is it similar to church bells Do Muslims believe that God tests people Does Muhammad play a role in Islamic spirituality in a manner similar to Jesus role in Christianity Is jihad a legal concept for Muslims Is it true that Muhammad both preached and engaged in military campaigns Do Muslims Christians and Jews worship the same God Why do Jews Christians and Muslims all claim parts of Israel Palestine as Holy Land Why do some people such as the Taliban not want girls to get an education Does Islam require wearing face veils Is there any similarity between Muslim and Christian art Muslims are diverse and they have a vast spectrum of views about Islam and The Handy Islam Answer Book is a resource for reliable information about Islam and Muslims This helpful book also provides a historic timeline a glossary of commonly used terms a genealogy from Adam to Muhammad and beyond a calendar of major observances an extensive index and a bibliography help further exploration of one of the world's great religions

Islamic Entrepreneurship Rasem N. Kaye, M. Kabir Hassan, 2013-12-16 This book discusses the idea that there is a specific Islamic form of entrepreneurship Based on extensive original research amongst small and medium sized enterprises in Saudi Arabia it shows how businesses are started and how they grow in the context of an Islamic economy and society It argues that as specific Islamic approaches to a wide range of economic activities are being formulated and implemented there is indeed a particular Islamic approach to entrepreneurship Examining the relationship between Islamic values and entrepreneurial activity the book considers whether such values can be more effectively used in order to raise the profile of Islamic entrepreneurship and also to promote alternatives to development in the contemporary business environment The book analyses the nature of entrepreneurship and the special qualities of Islamic entrepreneurship and discusses how the Islamic approach to entrepreneurship can be encouraged and developed further still

and Islamic Law Hossein Esmaeili, Irmgard Marboe, Javaid Rehman, 2017-12-14 The importance of the rule of law is universally recognised and of fundamental value for most societies Establishing and promoting the rule of law in the Muslim world particularly in the Middle East North Africa and Central Asia has become a pressing but complicated issue These states have Muslim majority populations and the religion of Islam has an important role in the traditional structures of their societies While the Muslim world is taking gradual steps towards the establishment of rule of law systems most Muslim majority countries may not yet have effective legal systems with independent judiciaries which would allow the state and institutions to be controlled by an effective rule of law system One important aspect of the rule of law is freedom of expression Given the sensitivity of Muslim societies in relation to their sacred beliefs freedom of expression as an international human rights issue has raised some controversial cases This book drawing on both International and Islamic Law explores the rule of law and freedom of expression and its practical application in the Muslim world Islamic Law, Epistemology and Modernity Ashk Dahlen, 2004-03-01 This study analyses the major intellectual positions in the philosophical debate on Islamic law that is occurring in contemporary Iran As the characteristic features of traditional epistemic considerations have a direct bearing on the modern development of Islamic legal thought the contemporary positions are initially set against the established normative repertory of Islamic tradition It is within this broad examination of a living legacy of interpretation that the context for the concretizations of traditional as well as modern Islamic learning are enclosed The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the Arts Frank Burch Brown, 2018 This volume offers 37 original essays from leading scholars on the crucial topics issues methods and resources for studying and teaching religion and the arts The Lighthouse and the Observatory Daniel A. Stolz, 2018-01-11 An observatory and a lighthouse form the nexus of this major new investigation of science religion and the state in late Ottoman Egypt Astronomy imperial bureaucrats traditionally educated Muslim scholars and reformist Islamic publications such as The Lighthouse are linked to examine the making of knowledge the performance of piety and the operation of political power through scientific practice Contrary to ideas of Islamic scientific decline Muslim scholars in the nineteenth century used a dynamic tradition of knowledge to measure time compute calendars and predict planetary positions The rise of a new astronomy is revealed to owe much to projects of political and religious reform from the strengthening of the multiple empires that exercised power over the Nile Valley to the modernization of Islamic centers of learning to the dream of a global Islamic community that would rely on scientific institutions to coordinate the timing of major religious duties Islam in Indonesia Carool Kersten, 2015 A compelling account of the struggle for the soul of Indonesian Islam Islamic Civilization in South Asia Burjor Avari, 2013 Muslims have been present in South Asia for 14 centuries Nearly 40% of the people of this vast land mass follow the religion of Islam and Muslim contribution to the cultural heritage of the sub continent has been extensive This textbook provides both undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as the general reader with a comprehensive account of the history of Islam in India encompassing political socio economic cultural and intellectual aspects Using a chronological framework the book discusses the main events in each period between c 600 CE and the present day along with the key social and cultural themes It discusses a range of topics including How power was secured and how was it exercised The crisis of confidence caused by the arrival of the West in the sub continent How the Indo Islamic synthesis in various facets of life and culture came about Excerpts at the end of each chapter allow for further discussion and detailed maps alongside the text help visualise the changes through each time period Introducing the reader to the issues concerning the Islamic past of South Asia the book is a useful text for students and scholars of South Asian History and Religious Studies
