Fernandez, 2017-05-05 When religious diversity is our reality radical hospitality to people of other faiths is not a luxury but a necessity More than necessary for our survival radical hospitality to religious diversity is necessary if we are to thrive as a global society By no means does the practice of hospitality in a multifaith world require that we be oblivious of our differences On the contrary it demands a respectful embrace of our differences because that s who we are Neither does radical hospitality require that we water down our commitment because faithfulness and openness are not contradictory We must be able to say with burning passion that we are open to the claims of other faiths because we are faithful to our religious heritage The essays in this book do not offer simply theological exhortations they offer specific ways of how we can become religiously competent citizens in a multifaith world Let s take the bold steps of radical openness with this book on our side Enacting a Public Theology Clive Pearson, 2019-12-17 The practice of a public theology is to identify issues that require attention for the sake of a civil society and the flourishing of all In diverse ways the writers of Enacting a Public Theology recognise that the present is a volatile moment in time The publication explores the loss of confidence in the contemporary expressions of democracy the climate emergency accompanies the dawn of the Anthropocene the migration of people raises concerns to do with identity belonging and where is home the invasion of land wrongly described as terra nullius and then invaded demands a deepened praxis of reconciliation between first and second peoples and lastly there is an urgent need to speak into the situation of those pushed to the margins because of HIV Aids Enacting a Public Theology represents the thinking of writers from Australia and Aotearoa New Zealand It is both local and global in its concern Each one of the contributors participated in the triennial gathering of the Global Network of Public Theology held in Stellenbosch in 2016 The Georgetown Companion to Interreligious Studies Lucinda Mosher,2022-06-01 The Georgetown

Companion to Interreligious Studies provides fifty thought provoking chapters on the field s unique history priorities challenges pedagogies and practical applications written by an international roster of experts and practitioners across religious traditions This will serve as a valuable reference to students in the field Virtue in Dialogue Mara

Brecht,2014-03-05 Religious diversity is a persistent theological predicament for Christian thinkers Historically theologians have wrestled with the relationship between believing Christians and religious others The clash between the Christian doctrine of salvation and non Christian belief systems often comes down to the question can non Christians be saved In a pluralist world a second question arises can believers of divergent traditions reconcile their theological differences Is the logical answer that one believer abandon her faith convictions and promote a relativistic mindset This book draws upon original research documenting conversations by women in an interreligious dialogue group to show that when believers converse in honesty empathy and patience in short when engaged in virtuous dialogue they can bridge the gap left by theory When believers from different faiths come together in open conversation it need not lead to relativism but instead can lead to strengthened belief Sharing convictions with people who believe differently sincere believers find they often come to hold their own core beliefs with newfound strength Receptive Ecumenism as Transformative Ecclesial Learning Paul D.

Murray,Gregory A. Ryan,Paul Lakeland,2022-05-26 Receptive Ecumenism asks not what other churches can learn from us but what can we learn and receive with integrity from our ecclesial others Since the publication of Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning Exploring a Way for Contemporary Ecumenism OUP 2008 this fresh ecumenical strategy has been adopted critiqued and developed in different Christian traditions and in local national and international settings including the most recent bilateral dialogue of the Anglican Roman Catholic International Commission ARCIC III The thirty eight chapters in this new volume by academics church leaders and ecumenical practitioners who have adopted and adapted Receptive Ecumenism in various ecclesial and cultural contexts show how Receptive Ecumenism has grown and matured Part One demonstrates how Receptive Ecumenism itself is capable of being received with integrity into very different ecclesiologies and ecclesial traditions In Part Two this approach to transformative ecumenical learning is applied to some recurrent ecclesial problems such as the understanding and practice of ministry revealing new insights and practical opportunities Part Three examines the potential and challenges for Receptive Ecumenism in different international settings Part Four draws on scripture hermeneutics and pneumatology to offer critical reflection on how Receptive Ecumenism itself implements transformative ecclesial learning Addressing the 70th Anniversary of the World Council of Churches Archbishop

Justin Welby said that One of the most important of recent ecumenical developments has been the concept of Receptive Ecumenism This volume provides an indispensable point of reference for understanding and applying that concept in the life of the Christian churches today God Beyond Borders Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook,2012-02-01 International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson,Marian de Souza,Gloria Durka,Liam Gearon,2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity Interfaith Education for All Duncan R. Interreligious Learning Didier Pollefeyt, 2007 The growth of secularisation pluralism and globalisation have placed the West's traditional monoreligious education under pressure Christianity no longer possesses a privileged position in Western Europe Since the 1970s a number of scholars have been trying to formulate an answer to this question of multireligiosity by developing a multireligious concept of religious education As both a critique on and alternative for the multireligious model scholars in the 1990s developed the interreligious model of religious education This approach distinguishes itself from monoreligious pedagogy through acknowledging plurality among the pupils as both a part of departure and as a possible end result of religious education Moreover it openly approaches the plurality of religions and worldviews as a learning opportunity Religious education thus becomes a place of encounter and dialogue between different religious convictions Interreligious learning further distinguishes itself from the multireligious model by overcoming a purely objective representation of the multitude of religions In the interreligious model students are not only informed but are introduced to the cognitive and value commitments underlying the different religions giving them the opportunity to enrich and develop their own personal religious identity The teacher takes an explicit and particular religious Christian standpoint but also tries to bring in other committed religious and philosophical voices The interreligious model aims to teach students that holding a proper religious identity while having an openness to the religious other is not necessarily self contradictory What is more that authentic religiosity is able to welcome the other in his/her vulnerability and strength as a witness to God In this volume scholars from various disciplines theology pedagogy psychology and ethics and from different religious backgrounds Jews Christians and Muslims face up to a total of ten challenges related to interreligious learning Challenges that may act as obstacles to the acceptance of this possible new paradigm for religious education Shared Learning in a Plural World Gert Rüppell, Peter Schreiner, 2003 Shared Learning in a Plural World takes the reader along to a discourse held between representatives of different world religions religious educators and researchers about How religious education can contribute to good community relations Starting with the issue of pluralism the book leads on to concepts of learning in world religions reflections on inter religious learning in Europe and examples on methodologies of education and community A number of documents related to the Interfaith work of the World Council of Churches are also documented The publication is an outcome of a co operation between the World Council of Churches Education and Ecumenical Formation Inter religious Relations and the Comenius Institut in Munster Germany Interreligious/Interfaith Studies Eboo Patel, Jennifer Howe Peace, Noah Silverman, 2018-08-21 A groundbreaking academic anthology that explores the emerging field of interreligious interfaith studies As it is now backed by an impressive number of courses academic programs and centers faculty positions journals and publications funding and professional partnerships there is no longer a question as to whether the interreligious interfaith field exists But its meaning and import are still being debated How is this field distinct from yet similar to other fields such as religious or theological studies What are its signature pedagogies and methodologies What are its motivations and key questions In other words what is the shape of interfaith and interreligious studies and what is its distinct contribution These questions are the driving force behind this anthology

Critical Perspectives on Interreligious Education, 2020-03-31 The editors of Experiments in Empathy Critical Reflections on Interreligious Education have assembled a volume that spans multiple religious traditions and offers innovative methods for teaching and designing interreligious learning This groundbreaking text includes established interreligious educators and emerging scholars who expand the vision of this field to include critical studies decolonial approaches and exciting pedagogical developments The book includes voices that are often left out of other comparative theology or interreligious education texts Scholars from evangelical Muslim Catholic Protestant Jewish religiously hybrid and other background enrich the existing models for interreligious classrooms The book is particularly relevant at a time when religion is so often harnessed for division and hatred By examining the roots of racism xenophobia sexism and their interaction with religion that contribute to inequity the volume offers real world educational interventions The content is in high demand as are the authors who contributed to the volume Contributors are Scott Alexander Judith A Berling Monica A Coleman Reuven Firestone Christine Hong Jennifer Howe Peace Munir Jiwa Nancy Fuchs Kreimer Tony Ritchie Rachel Mikva John Thatanamil Timur Yuskaev

Participatory Learning Chris Hermans, 2003-07-01 In many respects children and youths receiving religious instruction in our culture resemble extraterrestrial beings doing an orientation course Religion and religiosity are unknown quantities which they have hardly encountered at home Religion seems something else something greater This book is a study of the foundations of religious education centered around six concepts religion in a globalizing society religious tradition religion the religious self learning through participation and interreligious learning

Interreligious Learning and Teaching Kristin Johnston Largent, Mary E. Hess, Christy Lohr Sapp, 2014 There is still resistance in Christian institutions to interreligious dialogue The author provides not only the theological grounding for such a position but also advice on how to teach and live out this conviction in a way that promotes greater understanding and respect for others and engenders a deeper appreciation of one's own faith tradition

Decolonizing Interreligious Education Shannon Frediani, 2022-10-28 Decolonizing Interreligious Education explores multiple injustices focusing on the lived experience unaddressed grief and acts of resistance and resilience of populations most impacted by coloniality and white supremacy It lifts up the voices of those speaking from embodied experience of suffering multiple oppressions based on negative constructs of race religion skin color nationality etc Engaging ideological critique construction of knowledge beyond dominant lenses and acts of resistance are presented from the perspective of those most impacted by systemic injustice It challenges interreligious education to frame encounters where the impact of intergeneration trauma and the realities of power differentials are recognized and the contributions of all voices are truly integrated It challenges the fields of religious and interreligious education to imagine a broadened view that includes recognition of the role played by religion in harm done and to take a leadership role in engaging processes of accountability and redress Teaching about the Religious Other David R. Smock, 2005 While opportunities to learn about the religious other need to be much more widely available especially in countries experiencing religious conflict considerable progress has been made in recent years Particularly promising are the new programs being developed in Bulgaria Bosnia Serbia and Indonesia But to build on the progress already made mechanisms must be developed to enable professors in this field to share their materials and approaches with others The introduction of Internet based resources may be one such solution Interreligious Pedagogy Jung Eun Sophia Park, Emily S. Wu, 2018-06-20 This volume is a collection of essays by former students of Judith Berling based on her revolutionary interreligious pedagogy Her pedagogy can be summarized as a student centered collaborative and engaging teaching and learning process sparked by various ways of boundary crossing In this enterprise each chapter explores the importance of understanding and negotiating differences through dialogue The authors provide theoretical frameworks for engagements across conventional borders and explore how the collaborative teaching model can be utilized in various teaching settings As an example of her dialogical approach Judith Berling herself provides a response to the chapters
