Diaspora Christianities Sam George, 2019-01-15 South Asians make up one of the largest diasporas in the world and Christians form a relatively large share of it Christians from the Indian subcontinent have successfully transplanted themselves all over the globe and many from different faith backgrounds have embraced Christianity at overseas locations This volume includes biblical reflections on diasporic life charts the historical and geographical spread of South Asian Christianity and closes with a call to missional living in diaspora It analyzes how migrants revive Christianity in adopted host nations and ancestral homelands This book portrays the fascinating saga of Christians of South Asian origin who have pitched their tents in the furthest corners of the globe and showcases triumphs and challenges of scattered communities It presents the contemporary religious experiences from a plethora of discrete perspectives It deals with issues such as community history struggles of identity and belonging linkage of religious and cultural traditions preservation and adaptation of faith practices ties between ancestral homeland and host nation and diasporic moral dilemmas in diaspora This book argues that human scattering amplifies diversity within Christianity and for the need for heterogeneous unity amidst great diversities

The Power of Listening Lynne M. Baab, 2014-06-05 Listening skills and the perspective gained through careful listening are more important in congregations than ever Many factors make attentive listening a significant contributor to healthy congregations As we enter into a post Christendom culture the people coming into congregations as well as the people in the wider community are less likely to be operating from a shared set of assumptions With world wide migration reshaping our communities and congregations diverse perspectives coming from varied cultural backgrounds are also more common The breakdown of many support structures in society has created profound pastoral care needs making listening increasingly significant for both ministers and lay leaders Polarization over so many issues and the increasing emphasis on story telling in the journey of faith are two additional reasons why listening matters today Careful and loving listening nurtures care connection and depth which contribute to congregational life and health Listening to God is another aspect of listening which is gaining increased attention today Many congregational leaders have become weary of church as a business and are looking for authentic experiences of God's guidance Congregations are increasingly engaging in communal discernment Many listening skills used in human interactions are also building blocks for listening to God

Who Did You See Today? Dustin Schadt, 2024-05-28 In January 2019 a U S Census Bureau survey reported that 11 percent of respondents indicated symptoms of anxiety or depression Just twenty two months later in December 2020 the percentage nearly quadrupled to more than 42 percent As believers we are the ones called to truly see the lonely and hurting among us What if instead of getting caught up in our own busy calendars and daily stressors we dialed into the needs of those around us listening with bold intentionality and responding to them with extravagant thoughtfulness and outrageous kindness Jesus offered us the ultimate example of how to serve and minister to others by meeting people right where they were Through us neighbors coworkers classmates and family members should experience that same grace kindness and loving attention Author Dustin Schadt offers a biblical and theological basis for seeing people outlines practical ways that individuals families schools nonprofits small groups churches and other organizations can collectively value focus on and respond to the world around us Our care builds a bridge of trust strong enough to bear the weight of our gospel conversations Kindness has become a precious commodity We are fast paced busy and often distracted In a world marked by skepticism loneliness and anxiety Christ followers must be the ones who live beyond differences and distractions to see the people God places in our lives Jesus saw us drew closer and gave Himself up to make a way for us to come to Him He is calling us to do the same to love people the way Jesus loved people ears open and eyes widen to the beauty of the love of Christ shown in His gospel     Invitation to Educational Ministry George Hillman, Sue Edwards, 2018-09-25 Because teaching is at the heart of Christian ministry the editors of Invitation to Educational Ministry have assembled a team of seasoned experts to present a comprehensive plan of Christian education This volume will help church staff parachurch leaders and small group teachers become more effective influential and creative After laying a biblical and practical foundation for Christian education the contributors provide specific guidance on teaching a variety of individuals and groups including children adults singles seniors and non Christians The final section shares valuable insights on leading small groups teaching innovatively and overseeing a healthy educational ministry among other topics Each chapter is designed to equip educators with the most relevant information and includes many useful features Real life case studies Scriptural support Explanations of key terms and concepts Practical suggestions Resources for additional study Sidebars illustrating best principles and practices     SOARING: Your Life Journey by Design (Facilitator Book) The Significance Project, Note This ebook is best viewed on a large screen Are you looking for a unique way to reach women and share with them SOARING is a personal development discovery course for women done in a life coaching small group environment You can use SOARING in your neighborhood on your campus in your office or with friends or family In the course women do Life Coaching Tools to help identify and celebrate their uniqueness consider their life foundation and discover their direction in life as they pursue their personal life design SOARING is easy to facilitate The Facilitator Guide equips you to facilitate the content of each page for each session Additional input and instructions are included in the Facilitator Instructions section When inviting women you will want to explain that this course covers all areas of life vocational relational spiritual financial social and physical and that you will be sharing from your life including what you are learning in these areas and they will be sharing from their lives The authors also share stories in these areas One shares about being herself in the face of the expectations of others one about her life foundation as a Christian one about having so much to do and not being able to focus etc The value added course allows women to have personal life coaching in a
