Clark, 2011-03-06 Nerves make us bomb job interviews, first dates and SATs. With a presentation looming at work, fear robs us of sleep for days. It paralyzes seasoned concert musicians and freezes rookie cops in tight situations. And yet not everyone cracks. Soldiers keep their heads in combat, firemen rush into burning buildings, unflappable trauma doctors juggle patient after patient. It's not that these people feel no fear; often in fact they're riddled with it. In Nerve, Taylor Clark draws upon cutting edge science and painstaking reporting to explore the very heart of panic and poise. Using a wide range of case studies, Clark overturns the popular myths about anxiety and fear to explain why some people thrive under pressure while others falter and how we can go forward with steadier nerves and increased confidence.
