Handling Truth Navigating The Riptides Of Rhetoric Religion Reason And Research:

Handling Truth William Melvin Gardner, 2012-01-01 Gardner develops the reader's mastery of truth with skills for identifying the four domains of truth their unique strengths and weaknesses and the authorities who govern them He includes techniques for classifying and critiquing assertions of truth for polishing debate skills crafting logical arguments and understanding research findings

Aphorisms for the Uncommon Reader William Gardner, 2020-07 Aphorisms for the Uncommon Reader provides witty and thought provoking escape from the mindlessness of daily life It is the perfect gift for that Uncommon Person The book provides an informative introduction to aphorisms and aphorists followed by 400 original aphorisms presented in no particular order For example Adulthood n The developmental stage in which we abandon our selves to become our lives Capitalism n An ingenious system for creating work for workers wealth for the wealthy and poverty for the poor You can learn what you have to say only by listening when you speak Perceptions n pl Images from our past distorted to accommodate the objects currently before us Happiness isn't something that happens to us It's something we do

Post-Truth Rhetoric and Composition Bruce McComiskey, 2017-11-01 Post Truth Rhetoric and Composition is a timely exploration of the increasingly widespread and disturbing effect of post truth on public discourse in the United States Bruce McComiskey analyzes the instances of bullshit fake news feigned ethos hyperbole and other forms of post truth rhetoric employed in recent political discourse The book frames post truth within rhetorical theory referring to the classic triad of logos ethos and pathos McComiskey shows that it is the loss of grounding in logos that exposes us to the dangers of post truth As logos is the realm of fact logic truth and valid reasoning Western society faces increased risks including violence unchecked libel and tainted elections when the value of reason is diminished and audiences allow themselves to be swayed by pathos and ethos Evaluations of truth are deferred or avoided and mendacity convincingly masquerades as a valid form of argument In a post truth world where neither truth nor falsehood has reliable meaning language becomes purely strategic without reference to anything other than itself This scenario has serious consequences not only for our public discourse but also for the study of composition

Responding to the Sacred Michael Bernard-Donals, Kyle Jensen, 2021-03-17 With language we name and define all things and by studying our use of language rhetoricians can provide an account of these things and thus of our lived experience The concept of the sacred however raises the prospect of the existence of phenomena that transcend the human and physical and cannot be expressed fully by language The sacred thus reveals limitations of rhetoric Featuring essays by some of the foremost scholars of rhetoric working today this wide ranging collection of theoretical and methodological studies takes seriously the possibility of the sacred and the challenge it poses to rhetorical inquiry The contributors engage with religious rhetorics Jewish Jesuit Buddhist pagan as well as rationalist scientific and postmodern rhetorics studying for example divination in the Platonic tradition Thomas Hobbes's and Walter Benjamin's accounts of sacred texts the uncanny algorithms of Big Data and Hélène Cixous's sacred passages and passwords From these studies new definitions of the sacred emerge along with new rhetorical practices for engaging with the sacred This book provides insight into the relation of rhetoric and the sacred showing the capacity of rhetoric to study the ineffable but also shedding light on the boundaries between them In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Michelle Ballif Jean Bessette Trey Conner Richard Doyle David Frank Daniel M Gross Kevin Hamilton Cynthia Haynes Steven Mailloux James R Martel Jodie Nicotra Ned O Gorman and Brooke Rollins The Rhetoric of Religion Kenneth Burke, 1970-04 But the point of Burke s work and the significance of his achievement is not that he points out that religion and language affect each other for this has been said before but that he proceeds to demonstrate how this is so by reference to a specific symbolic context After a discussion On Words and The Word he analyses verbal action in St Augustine s Confessions He then discusses the first three chapters of Genesis and ends with a brilliant and profound Prologue in Heaven an imaginary dialogue between the Lord and Satan in which he proposes that we begin our study of human motives with complex theories of transcendence rather than with terminologies developed in the use of simplified laboratory equipment Burke now feels after some forty years of search that he has created a model of the symbolic act which breaks through the rigidities of the sacred secular dichotomy and at the same time shows us how we get from secular and sacred realms of action over the bridge of language Religious systems are systems of action based on communication in society They are great social dramas which are played out on earth before an ultimate audience God But where theology confronts the developed cosmological drama in the grand style that is as a fully developed cosmological drama for its religious content the logologer can be further studied not directly as knowledge but as anecdotes that help reveal for us the quandaries of human governance Hugh Dalziel Duncan from Critical Responses to Kenneth Burke 1924 1966 edited by William H Rueckert Minneapolis University of Minnesota Press 1969
