Happy Birthday Message To My Dead Father:

Big Ray Michael Kimball, 2012-12-06 Big Ray's obesity and his mean temper define him at least to his family. When Big Ray dies, his son Daniel puts his feelings aside for a while. Years later, Daniel attempts to reckon with the enduring outsized memory of his father. In this stunning novel, a middle-aged man comes to terms with his father's death and with his life. Told in five hundred brief entries, the complexity of this searing story moves back and forth between the past and the present between an abusive childhood and an adult understanding. Shot through with humour and insight that will resonate with anyone who has a complicated parental relationship, Big Ray is a staggering family story at once brutal and tender, unusual and unsettling.

The Vital Dead Alison Bell, Alison, Kay Bell, 2022 This book builds on recent anthropological work to explore the social and cultural dynamics of cemetery practice and its transformation over generations in Virginia's Shenandoah Valley. Anthropologist Alison Bell finds that people are using material culture images and epitaphs on grave markers as well as objects they leave on graves to assert and maintain relationships and fight against alienation. She draws on fieldwork, interviews, archival sources, and disciplinary insights to show how cemeteries both reveal and participate in the grassroots cultural work of crafting social connections, assessing the transcendental durability of the deceased person, and asserting particular cultural values. The book's chapters range across cemetery types, focusing on African American burials, grave sites of institutionalized individuals, and modern community memorials.

Child of the Gryphon: Genesis, Welcome to Wherever We Are Deborah J. Cohan, 2020-02-14 In this extraordinary memoir, Deborah Cohan shares her story of caring for her elderly father, a man who was often generous and loving but who also subjected her to a lifetime of cruelty, rage, and controlling behavior. Trained as a sociologist and family violence counselor, Cohan reflects on how she healed from decades of emotional abuse.

Ox-Bow Janet Cresswell, Leisure and Death Adam Kaul, Jonathan Skinner, 2018-05-28 This anthropological study examines the relationship between leisure and death, specifically how leisure practices are used to meditate upon and mediate life. Considering travelers who seek enjoyment but encounter death and dying, tourists who accidentally face their own mortality while vacationing, those who intentionally seek out pleasure activities that pertain to mortality and risk, and those who use everyday leisure practices like social media or dogwalking to cope with death, Leisure and Death delves into one of the most provocative subsets of contemporary cultural anthropology. These nuanced and well-developed ethnographic case studies deal with different and distinct examples of the intertwining of leisure and death. They challenge established conceptions of leisure and rethink the associations attached to the prospect of death. Chapters testify to encounters with death on a personal and scholarly level, exploring, for example, the Cliffs of Moher as not only one of the most popular tourist destinations in Ireland but one of the most well-known suicide destinations as well, and the estimated 30 million active posthumous Facebook profiles being repurposed through proxy users and transformed by continued engagement with the living. From the respectful to the fascinated from the macabre to the morbid contributors consider how people deliberately or unexpectedly negotiate the borderlands of the living An engaging timely book that explores how spaces of death can be transformed into spaces of leisure Leisure and Death makes a significant contribution to the burgeoning interdisciplinary literature on leisure studies and dark tourism This book will appeal to students scholars and laypeople interested in tourism studies death studies cultural studies heritage studies anthropology sociology and marketing Contributors Kathleen M Adams Michael Arnold Jane Desmond Keith Egan Maribeth Erb James Fernandez Martin Gibbs Rachel Horner Brackett Shingo Iitaka Tamara Kohn Patrick Laviolette Ruth McManus James Meese Bjorn Nansen Stravoula Pipyrou Hannah Rumble Cyril Schafer An
