Congress, 1999 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 Scouting Our Way Robert Lee Edmonds, Linda Tucker Edmonds, 2015-04-16 Scouting Our Way celebrates a century of the Boy Scouts of America's rich faith based heritage. It embraces the spirit of Scouting and renews the religious bedrock of Lord Robert S S Baden Powell's pioneering experiment in shaping good character in youth and preparing them to do their best. His founding moral principles and ideals embodied in the Boy Scouts of America's Oath and Law are brilliantly illuminated in the book through prayers and devotions from over thirty religions and denominations. Scouting Our Way includes an extraordinary selection of traditional and favorite Scout prayers and devotions arranged by program and activity suitable for personal reflection and group gatherings. There is also a prayer journal inside the book for Scouts to record their personal and favorite prayers. At the end of each chapter are Set My Compass interactive theme based adventures where the reader can engage with unique chapter topics through faith building activities. Each Set My Compass exercise is an enlightening personal and sharing experience for Scouts to appreciate the blessings and value of reverence, duty and fellowship. These chapter tasks are readily adaptable for age and program and are an ideal complement to earning advancement service or religious honors requiring an understanding and the role of a Scout's duty to God. Scouting Our Way also features a journey of prayer in America from the country's foremost leaders and personalities during landmark events in our nation's history. Included as well are inspiring words from the presidents of the United States opening with Theodore Roosevelt to the current chief of state speaking on the importance of religious diversity and fellowship among all citizens in building this great nation. Scouting Our Way is distinctive in the body of published works on religious diversity and interfaith understanding. It is an indispensable resource for meditation and spiritual growth. Scouts, leaders, parents, teachers and mentors will also find it essential for use at meetings, outings, ceremonies and special events where people of one or many faiths come together to celebrate the spirit and adventure of Scouting. Scouting, 2003-05 Published by the Boy Scouts of America for all BSA registered adult volunteers and professionals.
