High school and up. God Don't Like Ugly Mary Monroe, 2010-01-07. The captivating first book in the acclaimed award-winning and New York Times bestselling God series sweeps readers back to the streets, porches, and parlors of the civil rights era. Ohio to bring to life the beginning of an enduring friendship between two girls from opposite sides of the track. Reminiscent of Zora Neale Hurston. Publishers Weekly. Annette Goode is a shy, awkward, overweight child with a terrible secret. Frightened and ashamed, Annette withdraws into a world of books and food. But the summer she turns thirteen, something incredible happens. Rhoda Nelson chooses her as a friend. Dazzling, generous Rhoda, who is everything Annette is not—gorgeous, slim, and worldly—welcomes Annette into the heart of her eccentric family, which includes her handsome and dignified father, her lovely, fragile mother, her brooding, dangerous brother Jock, and her colorful white relatives: half-crazy Uncle Johnny, sultry Aunt Lola, and scary, surly Granny Goose. With Rhoda's help, Annette survives adolescence and blossoms as a woman. But when her beautiful best friend makes a stunning confession about a horrific childhood crime, Annette's world will never be the same. Nick vs the Curse of Lucifer, Redemptive Memory Fran Leeper Buss, 2024-11-12. This powerful last work by pioneering oral historian Fran Leeper Buss examines how painful memories of traumatic experiences can be transformed into positive action for social good. In her more than 40 years gathering the life stories of working-class women, Buss found commonalities in the ways in which her subjects faced structural inequalities of race, class, and gender, as well as sufferings caused by poverty, child abuse, gun violence, and war. Some of these women subsequently went on to become participants and leaders in a variety of movements for social change. In this wide-ranging book, Buss shows how her subjects employed storytelling, art, spirituality, and other methods to create sense and meaning from traumatic memories and then make positive contributions to movements for labor rights, sanctuary for Central American refugees, gun violence prevention, peace, and other causes. Buss also relates her own story of medical malpractice and disability and discusses the work of historical and contemporary thinkers on the concepts underlying her ideas. She provides unique and original insights into how women who have endured great trauma are able to redeem their memories through communal action for a better world. This Land Is Your Land RD Moore, 2023-06-10 This land was made for you and me This is the emphatic refrain of Woody Guthrie's iconic anthem a profound rendering of one of our nation's most sacred truths Yet for far too many and for far too long this hasn't felt like a land made for them or one that even wants them And that's just not sustainable This Land Is Your Land TLIYL is a telling of our social story through the lens of the American people how we became who we are and who we're in the process of becoming It's about the systems we built both generative and degenerative from democracy and equality to slavery and social supremacy and how everything about us is changing Right this minute we're in the midst of the greatest sociological shift in U.S. history one where in every way we currently measure we'll soon be a post majority nation By 2045 incumbent majorities from racial whiteness to Christianization to heteronormativity will all be downgraded to minority status This Time of Turmoil one where everything's shifting is why we're experiencing so much unrest and instability from rising poverty to increasingly caustic elections to diminishing human regard But it's also why getting this right has never been more important or mattered more A combination of personal vignettes and cultural analysis TLIYL covers 300 years of shared history one that's been shaped by nearly 550 million lives lived and explores how together we move forward It's a story with three parts Part One How the American Race Construct ARC and other toxic frameworks impaired us Part Two How the Degenerative Cycle DGC and other predatory processes imperiled us Part Two and Part Three How through personal practices like the Four Actions each of us can help us become a society that embraces all of us Today we find ourselves in a bit of a tough place But instead of an ending this shift we're undergoing might actually be a beginning a chance to both make our founding dreams real and gift the future a future And in doing so we transform ourselves into a new land one as Woody sang made for you and me
