William Davis, 2015-05-20 The First Crusade was the sacrifice of France for the sins of the Dark Ages Alone of all the Crusades it succeeded despite its surrender of countless lives No Richard of England no St Louis led its heroes were the nobles and peasants of France and Norman Italy who endured a thousand perils and hewed their victorious way to Jerusalem In this Crusade united Feudalism and Papacy won their greatest triumph Notwithstanding the self seeking of a few the mass of the Crusaders were true to their profession they sought no worldly gain but to wash out their sins in infidel blood In this Crusade also the alien civilizations of Christendom and Islam were brought into a dramatic collision which has few historic counterparts Except in Scott s Count Robert of Paris which deals wholly with the Constantinople episode I believe the First Crusade has not been interpreted in fiction Possibly therefore the present book may have a slight value as seeking to tell the story of the greatest event of a great age I have sometimes used modern spellings instead of unfamiliar eleventh century names The Crusade chronicles often contradict one another and once or twice I have taken trifling liberties To Mr S S Drury and Mr Charles Hill University friends who have rendered kind aid on several historical details I owe many thanks W S D
