Habits of the Heart, 1988      Habits of the Heart Robert Neelly Bellah, 1985      Encyclopedia of New Religious Movements Peter Clarke, 2004-03 An essential companion to both research and scholarship upon which undergraduates postgraduates lecturers and researchers can all be expected to draw      The Political Economy of Heaven and Earth in Ghana Charles Prempeh, 2023-09-30 In March 2017 the president of Ghana Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo announced his intention to build a national cathedral to the people of Ghana The announcement elicited watertight counter arguments that morphed into two a priori re litigated assumptions First Ghana is a secular country and second religion and state formation are incompatible Informed by a frustrating paradox of an overwhelming religious presence and concurrent pervasive corruption in the country public conversation reached a cul de sac of conviction without compromising In The Political Economy of Heaven and Earth in Ghana Charles Prempeh deploys the national cathedral as an entry point to provide both interdisciplinary and autoethnographic understanding of religion and politics The book shows the capacity of religion when properly cultivated and curated as a worldview to answer the why questions of life will foster personal moral collective and ontological responsibility All this is needed to stem the tide against corruption commodity fetishism environmental degradation illegal mining galamsey heritage destruction and religious exploitation Prempeh recuperates a historical fact about the mutual inclusivity between religion and politics politics helping to manage differences while religion provides a transcendental reason for unity to be forged for human flourishing Separating the two is therefore ahistorical and an obvious threat to the intangible virtues that answers why and how questions for public governance      Families and the State S. Cunningham-Burley, L. Jamieson, 2003-11-25 How possible is it for the state to steer family values and relationships How do we assess claims of harm and benefit from state action and inaction What kind of engagement should we seek between the state and our personal lives The evidence presented includes state engagements with separating couples lone parents retired people black families disabled people pregnant teenagers and young people negotiating adulthood The range of perspectives data and cross nation state comparisons helps readers to come to their own conclusions      The Inward Gaze Peter Middleton, 2024-11-01 First published in 1992 The Inward Gaze looks at men s fantasies and self images from a wide range of texts notably boy s superhero comics modernist literary classics and a Freudian case study to discuss the theories of subjectivity masculinity and emotion The author explores the split between the experience based claims of the men s movement and the discourse theories of postmodernism Does this division reveal a continuing refusal of masculine self awareness Why does postmodernist theory investigate desire and ignore emotion This is a ground breaking and controversial book which seeks to reformulate the way we think about men s subjectivity Its interdisciplinary approach weaves together material from many different sources and will be of vital interest to students of literature cultural studies gender studies and psychoanalysis      Ageing and Place Gavin J. Andrews, David R. Phillips, 2004-11-10 During recent years an increasing amount of academic research has focused on older people with a particular emphasis on settings places and spaces This book provides a comprehensive review of research and the policy area of ageing and place An insightful book on an important topic Andrews and Phillips have together edited a valuable information and reference source for those with interests in the spatial dimensions of ageing in the twenty first century Ranging from macro scale perspectives on the distribution of older populations on national scales to the meaning of specific local places and settings to older individuals on the micro scale the book spans an entire range of research traditions and international perspectives

Developments in Sociology Robert Burgess, Anne Murcott, 2014-06-11 Appropriate as a supplemental text to courses in Sociology Providing an overview grounded in research Developments in Sociology focuses on the major areas of theoretical methodological and substantive developments in sociology Each author takes a field of study in which they are an acknowledged expert and highlights the way in which the subject has developed over the last fifty years

Criminologists in the Media Mark Wood, Imogen Richards, Mary Iliadis, 2022-05-05 Criminologists in the Media presents the results of a cross national study examining the structures that shape criminologists contributions to news and social media discourse Drawing on interviews with criminologists and a survey of 1 211 criminologists working in the US the UK Australia New Zealand Canada Ireland and South Africa this book represents the first cross national study exploring how why and to what extent criminologists working in these countries engage in newsmaking and digital public criminology Through examining the predictors of criminologists appearing in news media the research presented in this book demonstrates that newsmaking practices within criminology are not reflective of equal access interest or opportunity Rather newsmaking operates within fields of power shaped by the political economy of higher education and researchers academic rank gender and areas of research expertise Together these factors generate several situational logics that predispose criminologists to pursue particular courses of action in promoting their personal projects Key among these logics Wood Richards and Iliadis argue are a social logic informing criminologists moral political views on newsmaking and an industrial logic responsive to the demands of academic capitalism and the rise of the entrepreneurial university With its focus on the practicalities challenges and inequities of newsmaking in the post broadcast era Criminologists in the Media will appeal to researchers interested in the public role s of criminology as well as researchers concerned with the challenges of communicating social scientific knowledge beyond the academy

Ageing and Popular Culture Andrew Blaikie, 1999-03-04 As the grey market perpetuates the quest for eternal youth the biological realities of deep old age are increasingly denied Ageing and Popular Culture traces the historical emergence of stereotypes of retirement and documents their recent demise arguing that although modernisation marginalisation and medicalisation created rigid age classifications the rise of consumer culture has coincided with a postmodern broadening of options for those in the Third Age With an adroit use of photographs and other visual sources Andrew Blaikie demonstrates that an expanded leisure phase is breaking down barriers between mid and later life At the same time positive ageing also creates new imperatives and new norms with attendant forms of deviance While babyboomers may anticipate a fulfilling retirement none relish decline Has deep old age replaced death as the taboo subject of the late twentieth century If so what might be the consequences

What a Woman Ought to Be and to Do Stephanie J. Shaw,2010-01-15 Stephanie J Shaw takes us into the inner world of American black professional women during the Jim Crow era This is a story of struggle and empowerment of the strength of a group of women who worked against daunting odds to improve the world for themselves and their people Shaw s remarkable research into the lives of social workers librarians nurses and teachers from the 1870s through the 1950s allows us to hear these women s voices for the first time The women tell us in their own words about their families their values their expectations We learn of the forces and factors that made them exceptional and of the choices and commitments that made them leaders in their communities What a Woman Ought to Be and to Do brings to life a world in which African American families communities and schools worked to encourage the self confidence individual initiative and social responsibility of girls Shaw shows us how in a society that denied black women full professional status these girls embraced and in turn defined an ideal of socially responsible individualism that balanced private and public sphere responsibilities A collective portrait of character shaped in the toughest circumstances this book is more than a study of the socialization of these women as children and the organization of their work as adults It is also a study of leadership of how African American communities gave their daughters the power to succeed in and change a hostile world

Christian Ethics in Secular Worlds Robin Gill,2004-08-23 A challenging book examining issues such as biotechnology AIDS and nuclear weapons and demonstrating that Christian ethics has something important and distinctive to contribute to secular worlds

New Religions in Global Perspective Peter Bernard Clarke,2006 This volume provides a complete guide to the global impact and cultural significance of new religious movements

Urban Futures Tim Hall,Malcolm Miles,2004-11-23 Urban Futures brings together commentaries from a wide range of contemporary disciplines and fields relevant to urban culture form and society The book concerns cities in the broadest sense not just as buildings and spaces but also as processes and events or sites of occupation in which meanings are constructed in many ways The contributors draw on their specialist areas of research to inform current debate but they also speculate as to how cities will be shaped in the 21st century Specific areas of research include homeless people s organisations and restoration ecology in brownfield sites in the USA post industrial urban landscapes post industrial economics tourism and cultural planning The book allows each writer to state their own conclusions but together they suggest that tomorrow s cities will while remaining locations of difference and contestation be rapidly evolving systems in which dwellers assume increasing responsibilities and power

Cultural Gerontology Lars Andersson,2002-11-30 The concept of culture has gained considerable attention within the humanities and social sciences in general and this is certainly true in the field of gerontology The new perspectives thus gained widen the scope of gerontology In this study chapter authors examine the growth of gerontology as a discipline the phenomenon of ageism as a socio cultural

concept identity politics in which older persons are perceived as belonging to a subculture and images of the older body in cultural perspective The manner in which gerontology emerged as a discipline was embedded in culturally defined views of aging that had consequences for how it was seen to vary between cultures One consequence was a perception of ageism as a cultural construction Since the 1980s much of the politics of older people is a form of identity politics in which groups are mobilized to further their interests Questions of cultural meanings ascribed to the gendered aging body is a central question for ageism social identity and self image These questions become especially relevant in confrontations with bodily decline and negotiations of intimacy in institutions for older people      Seeking Love in Modern Britain Zoe Strimpel,2020-03-05 Seeking Love in Modern Britain charts the emergence of the modern British single through an account of the dating industry that sprang up to serve men and women It shows how amid a period of unprecedented sexual and social change the single became a key unisex identity and lifestyle From around 1970 a growing cottage style matchmaking industry in Britain was offering the romantically solo a choice between computer dating firms such as Dateline or Computate introduction agencies and the lonely hearts pages of Private Eye Time Out and others Zoe Strimpel reveals how this rapidly expanding landscape of services was catering to a new breed of single people and how by the late 1990s singleness had become the culturally mainstream wholly expected part of the romantic life cycle that it is today Refuting the widespread idea that the Internet invented modern dating this book uses an eclectic and engaging range of first person accounts and snapshots from the time to show that the story of contemporary romance mediated courtship and singleness began in a time long before Tinder

The Crucible of Christian Morality J. Ian H. McDonald,2016-04-29 The Crucible of Christian Morality explores the notion of Christian ethics and discusses its roots in the teachings of Jesus and also Hellenistic philosophy Its significance in developing moral standards throughout the world and its stability in the modern world The Crucible of Christian Morality uses new critical perspectives including the sociology of knowledge and discourse analysis J Ian H McDonald challenges conventional approaches by focusing on the behaviour of early Christian communities rather than their texts to shed new light on the nature of Christian morality in its earliest and most formative years      Christian Values James Ian H. McDonald,1995-06-01 An exciting introduction to the theory and practice of Christian ethics in the contemporary world

Youth Lifestyles In A Changing World Miles , Stephen,2000-05-01 This book suggests that the study of youth lifestyles is potentially more enlightening than traditional structural or cultural approaches In a society in which young people s transitions into adulthood are increasingly uncertain processes of individualization are central to young people s experience of social change This clear introduction to a complex field considers key aspects of young people s lifestyles such as their relationship to rave the media and consumption in general as a means of constructing identities in a rapidly changing world

Women in Twentieth-Century Britain Ina Zweiniger-Bargielowska,2014-07-30 Women s lives have changed dramatically over the course of the twentieth century reduced fertility and the removal of formal barriers to their participation in education work and public life are just some examples At the same time women are under represented in many areas are paid significantly less than men continue to experience domestic violence and to bear the larger part of the burden in the domestic division of labour Women in 2000 may have many more choices and opportunities than they had a hundred years ago but genuine equality between men and women remains elusive This unique illustrated history discusses a wide range of topics organised into four parts the life course the experience of girlhood marriage and the ageing process the nature of women s work both paid and unpaid consumption culture and transgression and citizenship and the state

The Top Books of the Year Habits Of The Heart Middle America Observed The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Habits Of The Heart Middle America Observed : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
