The Lost Continent Edgar Rice Burroughs,2023-06-21 The Lost Continent originally titled Beyond Thirty is a 1916 science fiction novel by Edgar Rice Burroughs The year is 2137 Two hundred years ago in our time more or less Eurasia fought a war to end all wars a war that meant for all intents and purposes the end of the Old World The Americas managed to retain their civilization but only by engaging by the most extreme form of isolationism imaginable for two centuries now no American has ventured east of the thirtieth parallel East for the East the slogan went The West for the West Until a terrible storm at sea forced American lieutenant Jefferson Turck to disobey the law seeking safe harbor in England where he found that two centuries of isolation have desolated the land The damaged ship found a Europe that is no longer an enemy a ruined land that is utterly unable to be an enemy or a friend century Europe My interest is keenest perhaps not so much in relation to known facts as to speculation upon the unknowable of the two centuries that have rolled by since human intercourse between the Western and Eastern Hemispheres ceased the mystery of Europe's state following the termination of the Great War provided of course that the war had been terminated From out of the meagerness of our censored histories we learned that for fifteen years after the cessation of diplomatic relations between the United States of North America and the belligerent nations of the Old World news of more or less doubtful authenticity filtered from time to time into the Western Hemisphere from the Eastern Then came the fruition of that historic propaganda which is best described by its own slogan The East for the East the West for the West and all further intercourse was stopped by statute Even prior to this transoceanic commerce had practically ceased owing to the perils and hazards of the mine strewn waters of both the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans Just when submarine activities ended we do not know but the last vessel of this type sighted by a Pan American merchantman was the huge Q 138 which discharged twenty nine torpedoes at a Brazilian tank steamer off the Bermudas in the fall A heavy sea and the excellent seamanship of the master of the Brazilian permitted the Pan American to escape and report this last of a long series of outrages upon our commerce The Lost Continent Edgar Rice Burroughs,2020-11-28 The Lost Continent by Edgar Rice Burroughs
